Animal Welfare in World Religion Joyce D'Silva, 2023-05-01 This unique and readable book examines the relationship between religion and animal welfare taking a detailed dive into the teachings and practices of the major world religions While there are many books expounding the beliefs of the major religions and many about the rights and welfare of animals there are few linking the two With each chapter focusing on one of the five major religions Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism and Buddhism the book explores the beliefs and practices which drive our relationship with and treatment of animals The book draws on the scriptures of the major faiths and includes the voices of leading historical religious figures and contemporary faith leaders In doing so it compares the teachings of old with contemporary practices and showcases the impact of the major religions on both the protection and exploitation of animals from running animal sanctuaries to participating in or condoning cruel sports and factory farming Importantly the book also includes a chapter looking beyond the major world religions where it examines a wider range of beliefs and practices including Indigenous peoples from the USA and Australia Jainism Sikhism and Rastafarianism to provide fascinating insights into another range of beliefs and views on the human animal relationship Overall this book challenges and encourages religious leaders and followers to re examine

God of Love and God of Reason David R. Mason, 2016-02-18 These homilies lectures and essays vigorously champion the author's conviction that it is reasonable to believe in a God of pure unbounded love and also that the best religion is a reasonable religion That is the God of Love is the God of Reason and as a seventeenth century Cambridge preacher put it If you would be religious be rational in your religion Thus these essays challenge both the New Atheists and Fundamentalists who are twins like Tweedledum and Tweedledee And they aim positively to unpack the meaning and implications of Jesus dictum You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind This is the greatest and first commandment And the second is like it You shall love your neighbor as yourself On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets

Strong Opinions Chris Danta, Sue Kossew, Julian Murphet, 2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee's work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee's most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee's decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee's direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee's explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life

Dog Control and Welfare Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Environment, Food and Rural Affairs Committee, 2013-02-15 DEFRA's belated proposals to tackle irresponsible dog ownership are too limited Since 2007 dogs have killed seven people including five children in private homes The NHS also spends over 3 million annually treating dog attack injuries Some eight assistance dogs a month and thousands of livestock annually are attacked by dogs The Home Office approach to tackling antisocial behaviour is too simplistic and fails to reflect the impact that poor breeding and training by irresponsible owners can have on a dog's behaviour New rules should give enforcement officers more effective powers including Dog Control Notices to prevent dog related antisocial behaviour Local authorities need to devote more resources to the effective management of stray dogs MPs call for changes in the legislation to give powers to extend the banned list to include other dogs with particularly aggressive characteristics At the same time those tasked to enforce legislation should have the discretion to neuter rather than destroy a banned animal where a particular dog poses no threat The Advisory Council on Welfare Issues of Dog Breeding should be given a formal regulatory role to enforce standards Any breeder producing more than two litters per year should be licensed and subject to welfare checks The Kennel Club should stop registering puppies from breeders not compliant with its own Assured Breeder Scheme It should also commission an independent annual review of Breed Standards led by vets to eliminate health problems linked to breeding for exaggerated characteristics Lastly MPs call on websites advertising pets to develop a voluntary Code of Practice
