Gold And Grand Dreams Cariboo East In The Early Years:

Gold and Grand Dreams Marie Elliott, 2000 Some of the richest gold claims in British Columbia lay along the Quesnel River and its creeks And there some of the grandest mining schemes were hatched From Denmark to the Cariboo Linda Peterat, 2022-11-02 A captivating account of the lives of Laura Christine and Caroline Lindhard three sisters who left their home in Stege Denmark in 1870 due to war political turmoil and limited opportunities and sought out new lives in the Cariboo region of British Columbia There are few stories of entrepreneurial business class women in nineteenth century BC They didn't keep diaries or save letters like the ruling class women often did and they were usually overlooked in newspaper reports Yet many came into British Columbia in the early years of the gold rush and helped build and sustain the developing communities This book tells the stories of three sisters Laura Christine and Caroline Lindhard who arrived in BC from Denmark in the 1870s Coming of age in Europe the Lindhard sisters had aspirations that were restricted by societal norms about what women could and should be and do This is a story of how each of the sisters made a life for themselves marrying and having children becoming single parents at an early age marrying again or not working together providing for their children and making choices that set them on different paths While their lives diverged at various points their commitments to each other and the next generation remained strong The sisters stories illustrate the importance of family and community relationships as support structures for women entrepreneurs who combine family responsibilities with earning a living While they were not heroic in the traditional patriarchal sense of the word the Lindhard sisters were powerful influential members of their families and their community and their lives reveal much about the complex social fabric of early British Columbia and the unsung contributions of women British Columbia by the Road Ben Bradley, 2017-06-07 In British Columbia by the Road Ben Bradley takes readers on an unprecedented journey through the history of roads highways and motoring in British Columbia's Interior a remote landscape composed of plateaus and interlocking valleys soaring mountains and treacherous passes Challenging the idea that the automobile offered travellers the freedom of the road and a view of unadulterated nature Bradley shows that an array of interested parties boosters businessmen conservationists and public servants manipulated what drivers and passengers could and should view from the road When it came to roads and highways planners and builders had two concerns grading or paving a way through the wilderness and opening pathways to new parks and historic sites They understood that the development of a modern road network would lead to new ways of perceiving BC and its environment Although cars and roads promised freedom they offered drivers a curated view of the landscape that shaped the province's image in the eyes of residents and visitors alike Stagecoach North Ken Mather, 2020-06-02 An in depth look at the origins and operations of a pioneering transportation company that moved people and goods across the province throughout the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries At the height of the Cariboo Gold Rush demand for an efficient transportation route to and from the goldfields was reaching a point of desperation With a lack of reliable roads to traverse the vast and rugged BC landscape delivering food mining equipment and mail to the newly built gold rush towns was a constant challenge not to mention the logistics of transporting people This book tells the fascinating story of one company that attempted to connect the province at an unprecedented time of growth and change Barnard s Express 1862 1878 later known as BX or the British Columbia Express Company 1878 1921 reflects the ingenuity risk and enterprising spirit of the era Focusing on the stagecoach line which ran from Yale to Barkerville from 1864 until 1886 and from Ashcroft to Barkerville after the construction of the CPR historian Ken Mather uncovers new details about the gold rush through the lens of this groundbreaking company s operations Rich in anecdotes and character sketches backed up with extensive research this is the first full length book to cover the history of one of BC s most important early businesses J. F. Bosher,2010-04 During the century 1850 1950 Vancouver Island attracted Imperial officers and other Imperials from India the British Isles and elsewhere in the Empire Victoria was the main British port on the north west Pacific Coast for forty years before the city of Vancouver was founded in 1886 to be the coastal terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway These two coastal cities were historically and geographically different The Island joined Canada in 1871 and thirty five years later the Royal Navy withdrew from Esquimalt but Island communities did not lose their Imperial character until the 1950s P 4 of cover Becoming British Columbia John Belshaw,2009-07-01 Becoming British Columbia is the first comprehensive demographic history of British Columbia Investigating critical moments in the demographic record and linking demographic patterns to larger social and political questions it shows how biology politics and history conspired with sex death and migration to create a particular kind of society John Belshaw overturns the widespread tendency to associate population growth with progress He reveals that the province has a long tradition of thinking and acting vigorously in ways meant to control and shape biological communities of humans and suggests that imperialism race class and gender have historically situated population issues at the centre of public consciousness in British Columbia On the Cusp of Contact Jean Barman,2020-03-28 The ways in which we can redress the past are many and varied writes Jean Barman and it is up to each of us to act as best we can The seventeen essays collected here originally published between 1996 and 2013 make a valuable contribution toward this laudable goal With a wide range of source material from archival and documentary sources to oral histories Barman pieces together stories of individuals and groups disadvantaged in white settler society because of their gender race and or social class Working to recognize past actors that have been underrepresented in mainstream histories Barman s focus is BC on the cusp of contact The essays in this collection include fascinating though largely forgotten life stories of the frontier that space between contact and settlement where for a brief moment anything seemed possible This volume featuring over thirty archival photographs and illustrations makes these important and very readable essays accessible to a broader audience for the first time The Canadian Historical Review ,2001 Canadian Books in Print 2002 Marian Butler,2002-02 Canadian Books in Print.
