Gold Cord The Story Of A Fellowship:

Gold Cord Amy Carmichael, 2002-01-01 The Dohnavur Fellowship is a group of Indian and European men and women working together in South India Its friends wanted to know how it began and asked for something that would link up the stories already written What kind of cord holds you together Dohnavur answered A gold cord Nor Scrip by Amy Carmichael dated 1921 brought by Peter-John Parisi Army Carmichael, Triumphant Love J. Hans Kommers, 2020-11-17 This scientific historical biography explores the influences that shaped the spirituality of Amy Carmichael of Dohnavur J Hans Kommers investigates the historical background of Amy s childhood in Millisle and Belfast and provides new and more scholarly information than existing biographies He researched a variety of Keswick related literature in order to provide a fuller picture of Amy s connection with the Keswick Convention and their teaching The descriptions of the life of the millworkers in Belfast the happenings on the worldwide stage and Victorian missionary work and methods round out the picture to give the reader a greater understanding of Amy Carmichael These new facts are most enlightening Dr Jackuelin Woolcock MB BChir MRCP Lond Director Dohnavur Fellowship Corporation Shoreham by Sea UK and Doctor in Dohnavur India 1969 1987 Triumphant Love The Contextual Creative and Strategic Missionary Work of Amy Beatrice Carmichael in South India provides the most extensive biography thus far of Amy Carmichael 1867 1951 a major figure on the missionary landscape of the late 19th and the first half of the 20th century She is seen by some as the Protestant mother Teresa both women worked in India and devoted all of their time and energy to the poor The book is very well researched The author states that the purpose of the extensive research he undertook was to get a closer and clearer picture of Amy Carmichael as the founder off the Dohnavur Fellowship Also he wanted to give a balanced account of her dealings with people and especially her life with God He does this It provides the most comprehensive picture of this remarkable woman It is the definitive source of reference J Hans Kommers s view of the life of Amy Carmichael is that of a fellow evangelical He explains that not only Amy but many missionaries of her time were inspired by the ideal that all people should have the opportunity to hear of Christ s salvation According to him her inspirational work is still relevant today Prof Dr Gijbert van den Brink URC Professor for Theology and Science Faculty of Theology Free University Amsterdam the Netherlands Divine Domesticities Hyaewool Choi, Margaret Jolly, 2014-10-29 Divine Domesticities Christian Paradoxes in Asia and the Pacific fills a huge lacuna in the scholarly literature on missionaries in Asia Pacific and is transnational history at its finest Co edited by two eminent scholars this multidisciplinary volume an outgrowth of several conferences seminars critically examines various encounters between western missionaries and indigenous women in the Pacific Asia Taken as a whole this is a thought provoking and an indispensable reference not only for students of colonialism imperialism but also for those of us who have an interest in transnational and gender history in general The chapters are very clearly written engaging and remarkably accessible the stories are compelling and the research is thorough The illustrations are equally riveting and the bibliography is extremely useful Theodore Jun Yoo History Department University of Hawai i The editors of this collection of papers have done an excellent job of creating a coherent set of case studies that address the diverse impacts of missionaries and Christianity on domesticity and therefore on the women and children who were assumed to be the rightful inhabitants of that sphere The introduction to the volume is beautifully written and sets up the rest of the volume in a comprehensive way It explains the book s aim to advance theoretical and methodological issues by exploring the role of missionary encounters in the development of modern domesticities showing the agency of indigenous women in negotiating both change and continuity and providing a wide range of case studies to show breadth and complexity and the local and national specificities of engagements with both missionaries and modernity My view is that all three aims are well and truly fulfilled Helen Lee Head Sociology and Anthropology La Trobe University Melbourne

A Worldly Christian Dyron B. Duagherty, 2022-01-01 Stephen Neill 1900 1984 was a towering figure of twentieth century global Christianity but was in many ways a broken man who faced profound and crippling struggles A Worldly Christian charts the extraordinary but often tragic life of a global Christian pioneer par excellence in a church that diversified dramatically during his lifetime Privileged to live in radically different cultural contexts over the course of his life Neill excelled by turns as a missionary and bishop in India an ecumenist in Geneva a professor in Hamburg and Nairobi and a prolific author of some seventy books and hundreds of articles upon his retirement to the UK Throughout this varied career he shared his tremendous knowledge of the world Christian movement with scholars clergy and laypersons alike Many will find his story compelling from Christian scholars to all those who have cherished his influential body of work and benefit from his legacy

Knowing Who You Are Malcolm J. Gill, 2015-06-10 Throughout the history of the church many excellent books have been written addressing the theological significance of Christian identity Such works have delineated important doctrines such as adoption justification and sanctification While these studies of being in Christ have been fruitful and numerous they have often neglected one of the most useful tools in understanding Christian identity namely the use of metaphor A search of Scripture reveals that Jesus and his apostles frequently utilized images from everyday life to illustrate spiritual truths about our identity In this fresh work Knowing Who You Are invites the reader to explore eight lesser known images of Christian identity found in the New Testament Among others the author investigates how being a Christian is like being a boxer in ancient Corinth a citizen in Philippi a farmer in Galilee and a sheep in a flock This engaging assessment of first century images will draw the reader in and leave them challenged encouraged and often surprised as they discover afresh what it means to be Christian

God's Generals Roberts Liardon, 2014-09-12 They Served God to the Ends of the Earth In his fifth God's Generals volume Roberts Liardon chronicles some of the great evangelists who risked their lives to take the gospel message to strange and unknown cultures around the world including Nikolaus Ludwig von Zinzendorf the Austrian nobleman whose passion for Christ ushered in the Moravian revival of the 1700s David Brainerd the young American colonist who sacrificially reached out to Native Americans William Carey the British shoemaker and Bible translator whose passion to reach India birthed a missionary revolution David Livingstone the explorer who crossed the unknown continent and opened the heart of Africa to the gospel Adoniram Judson the Father of American Missions who endured tragedy to reach the people of Burma Hudson Taylor the first missionary to use the phrase Great Commission who pioneered the China Inland Mission transforming millions of lives along the way Hiram Bingham the first Protestant missionary who spent twenty years serving Christ in what is now Hawaii Amy Carmichael the selfless Irish missionary who dedicated her life to the forsaken children of India Jonathan Goforth the passionate Canadian revivalist who brought salvation and healing to hundreds of thousands of Chinese people The sacrifice and courage of these spiritual pioneers are sure to stoke the fires of your faith and revive within your heart a spirit of evangelism and compassion for the lost

Downward Discipleship Anita Rahma, 2024-03-19 Moving to the Margins with Amy Carmichael Follow in the footsteps of Amy Carmichael whose defiance against injustice shined a light in India's darkest corners Her extraordinary journey reveals the profound impact of unwavering faith when pitted against social wrongs What fierce conviction drove this fiery Irishwoman to forsake the familiar for the forsaken trading comfort for conflict and compassion Downward Discipleship beckons you to learn from Amy's life a beacon that questions the cost of true discipleship in our world of pain and injustice In these pages Amy's fifty year mission to rescue temple bound girls becomes a canvas for seven invitations of discipleship Rahma weaves in her own stirring narrative from Jakarta's slums presenting a model of discipleship that is demanding as it is rewarding challenging as it is inspiring This book calls to all who yearn for a faith that is lovingly courageous and radically sacrificial Rahma points us to a life of downward discipleship While many in the world clamor to climb the ladders of success and financial security she invites the reader on a different journey to follow our savior to unlikely places meet him among the world's poor and experience the joy of abundant life

The Sacred Place of Exile Carla Brewington, 2013-02-01 The person of exile may be considered a wanderer a nomad a refugee or a rebel People of exile can be the marginalized the disenfranchised the outcast the left out and the pushed away Different terms are used but what defines them all is separation Exile is a dangerous and dominant theme that runs through Scripture through the lives of the people of Israel and through the universal church Women who have known the sacred place of exile are uniquely qualified to form a women's mission The case is made for a momentum shift in missiological thinking There is a desperate and aching need for a women's mission which could lead the way to a women s missionary movement The emergence of such a mission movement is indeed fraught with skepticism and suspicion from many of those inside the church and leaders in the missionary world But the radical disruptive costly following of Jesus to those outside the camp is our calling The Missionary Review of the World ,1938

The Set-Apart Woman Leslie Ludy,2015-03-20 In The Set Apart Woman women of all ages will be encouraged to stay grounded in Jesus amid the many distractions and temptations of their daily lives Biblical truths will help readers understand what it means to live the consecrated life set apart for God s purposes Readers will apply these truths to practical areas of struggle that women face on a daily basis such as sinful attitudes and patterns and other hindrances to our souls A Day's Journey Tim Keesee,2023-10-24 Beautifully written and inspiring grounded in the deepest truths this is a book that will give strength and courage to all who are making their way through uncertain times and difficult days Tim Challies author of Seasons of Sorrow How Do You Make Each Day of Your Brief Life Count Tim Keesee spent years crisscrossing the globe documenting the gospel s advance in regions of war and persecution through his writing and films But double blows from terminal cancer diagnoses in 2019 and 2021 brought his travels to a halt In A Day s Journey Tim takes up his pen to write dispatches from a smaller more intimate world He writes of Christian brothers and sisters who have taught him so much about a day well spent the way they work and worship the way they pray and sing the way they love their neighbors and their enemies even when beaten black and blue for the sake of Christ In this book you ll have the privilege to walk with Tim through days of pain and hard questions but also days of grace wonder and death defying joy Poignant inspiring and beautifully written these stories model the courage we need the joy we have the gospel we love the cross we bear and the hope we embrace until faith becomes sight A Day s Journey was written for you The stories on the following pages are compiled for the enrichment of your faith For when it comes to hardships we all need hope help and a little guidance With every chapter Tim provides convincing examples of how to do what is good that is how to endure the weightiest of afflictions with an eye to God s glory Joni Eareckson Tada from the foreword Extraordinary Women of Christian History Ruth A.

Tucker,2016-02-09 Christianity has long been criticized as a patriarchal religion But during its two thousand year history the faith has been influenced and passed down by faithful women Martyrs and nuns mystics and scholars writers and reformers preachers and missionaries abolitionists and evangelists these women are examples to us of faith perseverance forgiveness and fortitude With gracious irreverence Ruth Tucker offers engaging and candid profiles of some of the most fascinating women of Christian history From the famous to the infamous to the obscure women like Perpetua Joan of Arc Teresa of Avila Anne Hutchinson Susanna Wesley Ann Judson Harriet Tubman Fanny Crosby Hannah Whitehall Smith Corrie ten Boom and Mother Teresa along with dozens of others come to vivid life Perfect for small groups these portraits of women who changed the world in their own significant way will spark lively discussion and inspire today s Christians to lives of faithful witness
