Gold Diggers Of 1933:

Gold Diggers of 1933 James Seymour, David Boehm, Ben Markson, 1980 A popular 1919 Broadway play it pits a group of showgirls against a stodgy upper crust Boston Brahmin type and his lawyer The action centers around two themes money and how to get it and love Gold Diggers of 1933, 2006 Film Hove, 1987-09-01 Blue Skies and Silver Linings Bruce Babington, P. W. Evans, 1988 They Must Be Represented Paula Rabinowitz, 1994-12-17 They Must Be Represented examines documentary in print photography television and film from the 1930s through the 1980s using the lens of recent feminist film theory as well as scholarship on race class and gender emerging from the new interdisciplinary approach of American cultural studies Paula Rabinowitz discusses the ways in which these four media shaped truth claims and political agency over the decades in the 1930s about poverty labor and popular culture during the depression in the 1960s about the Vietnam War racism work and counterculture and in the 1980s about feminist and gay critiques of gender history narrative and cinema A great deal of documentary expression has been influenced by developments in cultural anthropology as committed artists brought their cameras and typewriters into the field not only to report but also to change the world Yet recently the projects of both anthropology and documentary have come under scrutiny Rabinowitz argues that the gendering of vision that occurs when narratives confirm to conventional genres profoundly affects the relation of documentarian to subject She goes on to define this gendering of vision in documentary as an ethnographic process Ultimately this polemical study challenges the construction of the spectator in psychoanalytic film theory and articulates a new model for theorizing power relations in culture and history Showstoppers Martin Rubin, 1993 The name Busby Berkeley creator of the dances for films such as 42nd Street Babes in Arms and Million Dollar Mermaid is synonymous with the spectacular musical production number Films television commercials and MTV videos continue to use Berkeleysque techniques long after Berkeley himself and the genre that nourished him have faded from the scene The first major analysis of Berkeley's career on stage and screen Showstoppers emphasizes his relationship to a colorful somewhat disreputable tradition of American popular entertainment that of P T Barnum minstrel shows vaudeville Buffalo Bill Cody's Wild West Show burlesque and the Ziegfeld Follies Rubin shows how Berkeley absorbed this declining theatrical tradition during his years as a Broadway dance director and then transferred it to the new genre of the early movie musical With lively prose and engaging photographs Showstoppers explores new ways of looking at Busby Berkeley at the musical genre and at individual films Appropriate for both specialists and general readers Showstoppers is an exuberant study of a figure whose career Rubin notes provides an extraordinarily rich point of convergence for a wide range of cultural and artistic contexts Gold Diggers of 1933 (1933) David Boehm, James Seymour, Erwin Gelsey, Ben Markson, 2005 The Sex Goddess in American Film, 1930-1965 Jessica Hope Jordan, 2009 In the first critical study of the sex goddess in film Jessica Hope Jordan illustrates how Jean Harlow uses her sexualized body to affect and seduce viewers away from any primary identification with those characters and their plotlines that are supposed to lead the film to identifying instead with the kind of sexual empowerment and self possession her characters consistently display Linking the idea of sexual empowerment to the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality the book additionally covers previous feminist discussions of Mae West s performances as feminist camp to argue that West sought to both celebrate and embody for women viewers what she viewed as cultural ideals of femininity and women s sexuality With Lana Turner and the cinematic code the book considers the many problems inherent in both the filmic and public celebration of hyper feminine sexuality in relation to censorship and considers the effects of the Hays Code on hyper feminine sexuality as depicted in film noir The book also importantly presents the first critical discussion of the actress Jayne Mansfield suggesting that her 1950s open acceptance celebration and public promotion of her feminine sexuality both onscreen and off makes her not only a precursor of the more sexually liberated 60s but also like the other actresses discussed here a kind of prescient performance artist even theorist of feminine sexuality in particular and cultural ideas about sexuality more generally Beyond recouping her image as feminist the book demonstrates how the kind of desire aroused by the sex goddess a desire which remains endlessly suspended works as a supreme example of the aesthetic apparatus of cinema itself Book Jacket Who's in the Money? Harvey G.
