Gerald J Beyer's Just Universities discusses ways that U S Catholic institutions of higher education have embodied or failed to embody Catholic social teaching in their campus policies and practices Beyer argues that the corporatization of the university has infected U S higher education with hyper individualistic models and practices that hinder the ability of Catholic institutions to create an environment imbued with bedrock values and principles of Catholic Social Teaching such as respect for human rights solidarity and justice Beyer problematizes corporatized higher education and shows how it has adversely affected efforts at Catholic schools to promote worker justice on campus equitable admissions financial aid retention policies
