Golden Wing A Sociological Study Of Chin:

The Golden Wing Yueh-Hwa Lin, 2013-08-21 First published in 1998 This is Volume X of the fifteen in the Sociology of Gender and the Family series and offers a sociological study of Chinese familism The Golden Wing written in 1948 is a sociological study written in the form of a novel Its theme is refreshingly simple in conception but like the painting of a bamboo leaf its austere form conceals a high degree of art The story sets out to examine why of two families living side by side in a Fukien village in South China and related by kinship and business interests one should continue to prosper through adversity and the other should first flourish and then decline The Golden Wing Yaohua Lin, 1974 GOLDEN WING LIN. YUEH-HWA, 2018 The Golden Wing. A Sociological Study of Chinese Familism Yüeh-hua LIN, 1948 The Golden Wing Yueh-Hwa Linn, 1978 Family and Kinship in Chinese Society Ai-li S. Chin, Maurice Freedman, Joint Committee on Contemporary China. Subcommittee on Research on Chinese Society, 1970 Includes bibliographical references The Golden Wing Yaohua Lin, 1948 Chinese Lineage and Society Maurice Freedman, 2021-01-07 This book takes the argument first set out in Lineage Organization in South Eastern China a step further It incorporates some of Professor Freedman's field data gathered in the Hong Kong New Territories in 1963 and draws on a wide variety of written sources As in his first book on the subject the author seeks to analyse certain crucial institutions of Chinese society within the framework of contemporary anthropological theory The Cambridge History of China John King Fairbank, Denis Crispin Twitchett, 1978 International scholars and sinologists discuss culture economic growth social change political processes and foreign influences in China since the earliest pre dynastic period Chinese Death Rituals in Singapore Tong Chee Kiong, 2004-03-01 Through a cultural analysis of the symbols of death flesh blood bones souls time numbers food and money Chinese Death Rituals in Singapore throws light upon the Chinese perception of death and how they cope with its eventuality In the seeming mass of religious rituals and beliefs it suggests that there is an underlying logic to the rituals This in turn leads Kiong to examine the interrelationship between death and the socioeconomic value system of China as a whole Edmund Leach Edmund Ronald Leach, 1990 Chinese Kinship Paul Chao, 2013-10-28 First published in 1983 Professor Paul Chao writes Chinese Kinship in the line of the Chinese tradition it is in this tradition that cultural complexes such as family structure and kinship in relation to religious political and economic organizations are expounded by analysis of concepts and supported by historical documents For the anthropological study of kinship is indispensable as a supplement to important historical work on basis of written documents Professor Chao has made in the main a study of kinship in China of all known periods He has taken the points of view of social anthropology and has also given a history of his topic The Golden Wing Lin Yueh-Hua, 1942 Lineage Organisation in South-Eastern China Maurice Freedman, 2021-01-07 This essay is the work of a social anthropologist but it is not based upon field work It is concerned with Chinese matters but it is not written by a sinologue In this essay are the author's reflections on certain aspects of southeastern Chinese society during the last hundred and fifty years with attention on the Fukien and Kwangtung region of China has it has specialized not only in large scale unilineal organization but also in sending people overseas Studies in Asian Genealogy Jyotsna K. Bose, 1972

These collected papers are based upon those which were delivered at the World Conference of Records at Salt Lake City in August 1969 My Mother-in-law's Village Taili Hu, Daili Hu, 1984 Chinese Family and Marriage in Singapore Maurice Freedman, 1970 Oriental Art , 1948 Behaviour and Evolution Peter James Bramwell Slater, Tim Halliday, 1994-09-15

Some of the most exciting recent advances in animal behaviour have occurred at the interface between that subject and the study of evolution This book written by experts in this area illustrates how the profound changes in our understanding of evolution have influenced behavioural research Its chapters span both studies of how behaviour itself has evolved dealing with topics such as comparative studies the genetics of behaviour speciation and the evolution of sociality and of intelligence and also the adaptiveness which this evolution has brought about with treatment of mating and fighting strategies and theories of kinship and altruism Behaviour and Evolution will be invaluable to senior undergraduate and graduate students of biology and psychology especially those studying animal behaviour behavioural ecology sociobiology evolution ecology and environmental biology Colonial Research Studies , 1955
