Re-Constructing the Man of Steel Martin Lund, 2016-11-17 In this book Martin Lund challenges contemporary claims about the original Superman s supposed Jewishness and offers a critical re reading of the earliest Superman comics Engaging in critical dialogue with extant writing on the subject Lund argues that much of recent popular and scholarly writing on Superman as a Jewish character is a product of the ethnic revival rather than critical investigations of the past and as such does not stand up to historical scrutiny In place of these readings this book offers a new understanding of the Superman created by Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster in the mid 1930s presenting him as an authentically Jewish American character in his own time for good and ill On the way to this conclusion this book questions many popular claims about Superman including that he is a golem a Moses figure or has a Hebrew name In place of such notions Lund offers contextual readings of Superman as he first appeared touching on among other ideas Jewish American affinities with the Roosevelt White House the whitening effects of popular culture Jewish gender stereotypes and the struggles faced by Jewish Americans during the historical peak of American anti Semitism In this book Lund makes a call to stem the diffusion of myth into accepted truth stressing the importance of contextualizing the Jewish heritage of the creators of Superman By critically taking into account historical understandings of Jewishness and the comics creative contexts this book challenges reigning assumptions about Superman and other superheroes cultural roles not only for the benefit of Jewish studies but for American Cultural and Comics studies as a whole     A Sampler of Jewish-American Folklore Josepha moral positions ranging from cautious approval to wait and see attitudes to unconditional condemnation On the other hand scientists are involved in the ethical evaluation of the results of their own research However the results of scientific pursuits are capable of producing immediate effects on the daily life of every human being Consequently alongside the scientists people feel strongly about their need and their right to contribute to an accurate assessment of the effects of science on society This is a collection of essays reflecting a considerable range of different cultural experiences and different ethical underpinnings The main subject is cloning Cloning is the most accessible and most readily perceived point of convergence from which ethical judgments on the current developments of scientific investigations can be proposed Cloning is also the paradox on which the confrontation between scientific research and popular imagination is focused Seeing Red Pauline Sameshima, 2007 A brilliant and daring piece of scholarship this book will raise eyebrows and spark much debate It does not simply break new ground it breaks all the rules ultimately compelling us to examine and embrace scholarship in fresh innovative ways Seeing Red is based on Pauline Sameshima's doctoral dissertation Winner of the 2007 Arts Based Educational Research ABER Outstanding Dissertation Award by the American Educational Research Association AERA This award is for the best dissertation that explores is an exemplar of and pushes the boundaries of arts based educational research The book showcases a PhD dissertation written in the form of an epistolary bildungsroman a didactic novel of personal developmental journeying The work is a fiction letters from a graduate student to the professor she is in love with embedded in developmental understanding of living the life of a teacher researcher The work shares the possibilities of how artful research informs processes of scholarly inquiry and honours the reader's multi perspective as integral to the research project's transformative potential Parallax is the apparent change of location of an object against a background due to a change in observer position or perspective shift The concept of parallax encourages researchers and teachers to acknowledge and value the power of their own and their readers and students shifting subjectivities and situatedness which directly influence the constructs of perception interpretation and learning The novel format ties themes and characters together just as storytelling can bind theory and practice Norman Denzin 2005 supports the pedagogical and libratory nature of the critical democratic storytelling imagination He hails this book as bold innovative a wild transformative text almost unruly a new vision for critical reflexive inquiry The love story and issues of teacher learner role boundaries are controversial and largely unspoken of in educational settings and the letter format is voyeuristic In this sense the audience is being given a peek a look at the unrevealed One of the advantages of the epistolary novel is its semblance of reality and the difficulty for readers to distinguish the text from genuine correspondence Wurzbach 1969 The genre allows the reader access to the writing character's intimate thoughts without perceived interference from the author's manipulation and conveys events with dramatic and sensational immediacy Carafi 1997 Mother of Learning: ARC 2 nobody103, Domagoj Kurmaic, 2022-05-17 As the months in the time loop seem to add up without end Zorian forms alliances with acquaintances old and new in an effort to

Wein,2015-02-11 Was Israel founded by Czechoslovakia A History of Czechs and Jews examines this question and the resulting findings are complex Czechoslovakia did provide critical secret military sponsorship to Israel around 1948 but this alliance was short lived and terminated with the Prague Trial of 1952 Israel s Czech guns were German as much as Czech and the Soviet Union strongly encouraged Czechoslovakia s help for Israel Most importantly however the Czechoslovak Israeli military cooperation was only part of a much larger picture Since the mid 1800s Czechs and Jews have been systematically comparing themselves to each other in literature music politics diplomacy media and historiography A shared perception of similar fates of two small nations trapped between East and West in constant existential danger helped forge a Czech Jewish national friendship amid periods of estrangement Yet this Czech Jewish national friendship an idea that can be traced from Masaryk and Kafka via Weizman and Ben Gurion to Havel and Netanyahu was more myth than reality Relations were often mixed and highly dependent on larger historical developments affecting Central Europe and the Middle East As the Czech Republic emerges as Israel s main EU ally this book provides a timely analysis of this old new alliance and is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in History and Jewish Studies Prague Palimpsest Alfred

Thomas,2010-10-15 A city of immense literary mystique Prague has inspired writers across the centuries with its beauty cosmopolitanism and tragic history Envisioning the ancient city in central Europe as a multilayered text or palimpsest that has been constantly revised and rewritten from the medieval and Renaissance chroniclers who legitimized the city s foundational origins to the modernists of the early twentieth century who established its reputation as the new capital of the avant garde Alfred Thomas argues that Prague has become a paradoxical site of inscription and effacement of memory and forgetting a utopian link to the prewar and pre Holocaust European past and a dystopia of totalitarian amnesia Considering a wide range of writers including the city s most famous son Franz Kafka Prague Palimpsest reassesses the work of poets and novelists such as Bohumil Hrabal Milan Kundera Gustav Meyrink Jan Neruda V t zslav Nezval and Rainer Maria Rilke and engages with other famous authors who wrote Prague including Guillaume Apollinaire Ingeborg Bachmann Albert Camus Paul Celan and W G Sebald The result is a comparative interdisciplinary study that helps to explain why Prague more than any other major European city has haunted the cultural and political imagination of the West The Intellectual Origins of Modernity David Ohana,2019-03-21 The Intellectual Origins of Modernity explores the long and winding road of modernity from Rousseau to Foucault and its roots which are not to be found in a desire for enlightenment or in the idea of progress but in the Promethean passion of Western humankind Modernity is the Promethean passion the passion of humans to be their own master to use their insight to make a world different from the one that they found and to liberate themselves from their immemorial chains This passion created the political ideologies of the nineteenth century and made its imprint on the totalitarian regimes that arose in their wake in the twentieth Underlying the Promethean passion there was modernity humankind s project of self creation and enlightenment the existence of a constant tension between the actual and the desirable between reality and the ideal Beneath the weariness the exhaustion and the skepticism of post modernist criticism is a refusal to take Promethean horizons into account This book attests the importance of reason which remains a powerful critical weapon of humankind against the idols that have come out of modernity totalitarianism fundamentalism the golem of technology genetic engineering and a boundless will to power Without it the new Prometheus is liable to return the fire to the gods

Consuming Agency in Fairy Tales, Childlore, and Folkliterature Susan Honeyman,2013-04-15 In this book Honeyman looks at manifestations of youth agency and representations of agency produced for youth as depicted in fairy tales childlore and folk literature investigating the dynamic of ideological manipulation and independent resistance as it can be read or expressed in bodies first through social puppetry and then through coercive temptation our consumption replacing the more obvious strings that bind us Reading tales like Popeye Hansel Gretel and Pinocchio Honeyman concentrates on the agency of young subjects through material relations especially where food signifies the invisible strings used to control them in popular discourse and practice modeling efforts to come out from under the hegemonic handler and take control at least of their own body spaces and ultimately finding that most examples indicate less power than the ideal holds
