Creators and Created Beings in Twentieth-Century Latin American Fiction Amy Frazier-Yoder, 2023-10-24 Characters are made scripted and invented but Creators and Created Beings in Twentieth Century Latin American Fiction explores what occurs when literary creations become creators themselves Representing Latin American fiction's increasingly skeptical gaze in the early to mid twentieth century these literary creators breach the metafictional frame in order to problematize themes including life and death gender and sexuality and technology Drawing upon a diverse range of literary works by canonical and non canonical authors including Jorge Luis Borges Horacio Quiroga Carlos Onetti Julio Cortázar María Luisa Bombal Carlos Fuentes Roberto Arlt Juan José Arreola Eduardo Ladislao Holmberg Clemente Palma Adolfo Bioy Casares and Pedro Angelici this study excavates critical ontological and epistemological inquiries and delves into questions of identity power scientific knowledge and the transformative nature of fiction

Abraham Among Golems Andrei A. Orlov, 2024-10-01 In this insightful book Andrei A Orlov examines the symbolism of the image of God found in early Jewish pseudepigraphical accounts paying special attention to the cultic traditions in the Apocalypse of Abraham The study demonstrates that the Jewish pseudepigrapha transform various biblical characters including Enoch Abraham Jacob Moses and Aseneth into eschatological embodiments of the imago Dei The book argues that these cultic metamorphoses preserve memories of ancient Near Eastern and Egyptian rituals involving the vivification of cultic statues The Apocalypse of Abraham and other early Jewish pseudepigraphical accounts attempt to polemically refashion the concept of cultic statues by envisioning their protagonists as divine representations in the form of the eschatological image of God

ponerse en crisis cuando otros filósofos efectuaron una objeción evidente si los autómatas pueden sustituirnos no se debe a que también somos autómatas obedientes Existe alguna parte de nosotros que no será nunca remplazada por dispositivos automáticos Desde sus propios orígenes la filosofía vincula el problema de la libertad y la igualdad con la cuestión de las máquinas y este legado conceptual sigue teniendo consecuencias hoy Reencarnando en otro mundo Cristian Lu,2025-06-04
