This is a volume of thirty-six quaint and beautiful legends, of the medieval ghetto of Prague. The central figures are the renowned Rabbi Judah Loew, and a Golem, or artificially created man, with whose aid the Rabbi was able to solve many mysteries, uncover conspiracies against the Jewish community of Prague, and, at times, avert perils which threatened the existence of the Jews. The book contains an introduction in which the translator tells the story of the life and work of the author, whose writings have been enthusiastically greeted by literary critics in Central Europe.
