be restored to normal once they leave the range When Reversal Impact happened not only time was turned back but plenty of monsters would pour in to protect the core People that once lived in the time that was reversed would be brought back as well but appeared like a reanimated corpse without a soul Yet for others who still remembered them it would be a moment to look forward to Since the time reversed could not be estimated no one dared to risk inside the range and fight against the monsters When the Reversal Impact took place whoever was inside the range could do nothing but evacuate as soon as possible On the surface of the Epic World the Fairies were the only ones that were invulnerable to Reversal Impact which also explained why the Mirror Core would not be found on the Fairies Continent The Fairies were shielded from the danger of the Reversal Impact We were not entirely sure of the reason why the Fairies were protected but they did not hold the power to destroy the core The only solution the Fairies could propose was to seal the core to stop the monsters from flooding in our world Delegated by Oudelos the Fairies King Asaku as the Seal Priest from the Light race led his partners to explore the world With the Compass of No Return which could locate the Mirror Core and calculate the time turned back Asaku would seal the core to stop Reversal Impact and the inundation of monsters
