Mark Twain & Company Leland Krauth, 2003 In this comparison of Mark Twain with six of his literary contemporaries Leland Krauth looks anew at the writer s multifaceted creativity Twain a highly lettered man immersed in the literary culture of his time viewed himself as working within a community of writers He likened himself to a guild member whose work was the crafted product of a common trade and sometimes made with borrowed materials Yet there have been few studies of Twain in relation to his fellow guild members In Mark Twain the humor and social criticism of Twain and Howells the use of the Gothic by Twain and Stowe to explore racial issues the role of Victorian Sage assumed by Arnold and Twain to critique civilization the exploitation of adventure fiction by Twain and Stevenson to reveal conceptions of masculinity and the use of the picaresque in Kipling and Twain to support or subvert imperialism Mark Twain Company casts new light on some of the most enduring writers in English At the same time it refreshes the debate over the transatlantic nature of Victorianism with new insights about nineteenth century morality conventionality race corporeality imperialism manhood and individual identity

Manhood in Hollywood from Bush to Bush David Greven, 2010-01-01 A struggle between narcissistic and masochistic modes of manhood defined Hollywood masculinity in the period between the presidencies of George H W Bush and George W Bush David Greven's contention is that a profound shift in representation occurred during the early 1990s when Hollywood was transformed by an explosion of films that foregrounded non normative gendered identity and sexualities In the years that have followed popular cinema has either emulated or evaded the representational strategies of this era especially in terms of gender and sexuality One major focus of this study is that in a great deal of the criticism in both the fields of film theory and queer theory masochism has been positively cast as a form of male sexuality that resists the structures of normative power while narcissism has been negatively cast as either a regressive sexuality or the bastion of white male privilege Greven argues that narcissism is a potentially radical mode of male sexuality that can defy normative codes and categories of gender whereas masochism far from being radical has emerged as the default mode of a traditional normative masculinity This study combines approaches from a variety of disciplines psychoanalysis queer theory American studies men's studies and film theory as it offers fresh readings of several important films of the past twenty years including Casualties of War The Silence of the Lambs Fight Club The Passion of the Christ Auto Focus and Brokeback Mountain

Women's History at the Cutting Edge Karen Offen, Chen Yan, 2020-06-04 This book considers the promise of women's and gender history for revolutionizing our understanding of the past while also acknowledging the current national political financial and other contextual realities that can and do constrain or promote the possibilities for researching and writing women's history The editors assert that the promise of women's and gender history is a cutting edge field of research a revolutionary development in the politics of historical scholarship essential for understanding the human past Further they argue for the inseparability of women's history and gendered analytical approaches The contributors to the volume address questions including what have been the achievements of women's and gender history over the past two decades To what extent has it succeeded in making women's history an integral part of historical study rather than an optional specialist area What impact has the study of manhood masculinities and men's gendered power had on our understanding of women's lives

 What is the relationship between gender studies and new critical histories of colonialism and empire contact zones cross cultural encounters and racialization How is new work on cultural geography and spatial categories impacting on our historical understandings of bodily difference This book was originally published as a special issue of the Women's History Review     Pop Cultures and Ecstatic States of the Body Since World War II Kristoff Kerl, Detlef Siegfried, Robert P.
 Stephens, Olaf Stieglitz, 2025-07-15 This book examines the many varied historical entanglements between pop cultures and ecstatic euphoric and intoxicated bodies focusing on the period between the 1950s and the 1980s Charting a new course by bringing together pop culture studies the history of bodies and the history of emotions the volume unites new historical perspectives on different forms of corporeal pleasure and offers novel methods for studying the social and cultural politics of ecstasy     David Mamet and American Macho Arthur Holmberg, 2012-02-02 What does it mean to be an American man Holmberg demonstrates how David Mamet's plays explore complex issues of masculinity     Masculinity and the Hunt Catherine Bates, 2013-03-21 As an age old metaphor for the sexual chase the hunt provides a uniquely conflicted site for the representation of masculinity On the one hand hunting had from ancient times served to define a particular and culturally approved mode of masculinity as heroic pursuant and goal oriented where success was measured by the achievement of the objectives set the capture and killing of prey When applied to love on the other hand hunting was inflected quite differently At first glance the basic scenario of a male subject pursuing elusive quarry over which he ultimately comes to assert control might seem to epitomise the dynamic of the sexual chase yet when poets invoke the hunt in an amorous context this most obvious manifestation of the metaphor is not the one they put to use On the contrary in lyric poetry and romance the hunt metaphor serves to demote or destabilise the masculine subject in some way The huntsman is routinely a figure of failure for all his efforts he either fails to catch what he pursues catches the wrong thing ends up being caught by others or runs round in circles chasing himself His failure is measured precisely as a shortfall from the cultural ideal The metaphor of the hunt thus opens up possibilities for exploring definitions of masculinity that deviate from culturally approved models of mastery and power It shows how limited those models are and offers examples of alternative and counter cultural versions of a masculine subjectivity that radically query patriarchal stereotypes of gender and class The hunt has been the subject of increased critical interest over last few years partly as a result of its politicisation as an issue as reflected in recent changes to hunting legislation within the UK Shifting attitudes to the hunt indicate that as a cultural phenomenon it continues to mobilise strong opinion and to activate notions of class and gender identity to this day Masculinity and the Hunt is a unique study considering the link between hunting and masculinity in the literature of the sixteenth century     Masculinity and Irish Popular Culture Conn Holohan, Tony Tracy, 2015-12-30 Masculinity and Irish Popular Culture Tiger's Tales is an interdisciplinary collection of essays by established and emerging scholars analysing the shifting representations of Irish men across a range of popular culture forms in the period of the Celtic Tiger and beyond Masculinity in American Politics Monika L. McDermott, Dan Cassino, 2025-02-25 A compendium of new research on how when and why masculinity affects politics in America at a variety of levels the general realm of politics the world of candidates and campaigns and individual attitudes and behavior among citizens and voters The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1899 Social Problems D. contemporary quality TV series feature male anti heroes at the center of their narratives This dissertation argues that the constructions of masculinity in series such as Breaking Bad and The Walking Dead are informed by the Western hero Furthermore the dissertation links this recourse to an arguably outmoded model of masculinity to recent crisis tendencies in the USA most notably the recent economic downturn and the aftermath of September 11 2001 Moreover the return of the Western hero can be understood as a process of remasculinization in light of the crisis of masculinity The Free Methodist, 1899
