Re-schooling Society David Hartley, 2014-01-21 This text describes and explains the sense of uncertainty faced by educators as the millenium approaches It highlights the many transitions taking place in all aspects of public life and education during the postmodern phase of late capitalism by using examples from the study of childhood curriculum pedagogy assessment and organization of education It also considers attempts made so far by policy makers in the western industrialized nations to come to terms with rapid cultural and social changes whilst at the same time trying to maintain competitive economies to meet the growing challenge of the emergent Pacific Rim nations

Education for Modern Man Sidney Hook, 2020-02-18 a remarkable book A most penetrating study of education Saturday Review of Literature an admirable defense of the critical mind in education Sidney Hook is among the the Children of the Light that is to say of the Enlightenment Albert Guerard New York Herald Tribune Mr Hook has put his finger upon the profound fallacy of most of the current attempts to reorganize higher education exciting reading Howard Mumford Jones New York Times needed by anyone who wishes to have a comprehensive view of the problems of modern education Wendell Johnson Chicago Sun Sidney Hook brings a new high standard of sanity and clarity

For sheer excellence of logic and for magic of comprehensiveness the book is head and shoulders above all recent competitors William Randel St Louis Post Dispatch a fine book it has the advantage of Mr Hook s dissecting mind operating with the cleanness of a surgical instrument Jerome Nathanson The New Republic Wisely sane John Dewey Fabricating Europe António Nóvoa, M. Lawn, 2007-05-08 Fabricating Europe has within it a core idea a crucial but imprecise idea that of a European educational space which transnational governance networks and cultural and economic projects are creating now Yet the perceptible creation of this contemporary space of European policy making and networking has not been a subject of study It appears offstage in studies of national systems in which national and professional identity political organization policy formation and public private markets are all viewed as contained within the borders of the state Fabricating Europe is concerned with the new possibilities to be discerned and imagined in the European public and institutional spaces and discourses in education and the lack of impetus within the broad area of educational studies to meet the task of creating analyses and responses America's Education Deficit and the War on Youth: Reform Beyond Electoral Politics

Henry A. Giroux, 2013 America s latest war according to renowned social critic Henry Giroux is a war on youth While this may seem counterintuitive in our youth obsessed culture Giroux lays bare the grim reality of how our educational social and economic institutions continually fail young people Their systemic failure is the result of what Giroux identifies as four fundamentalisms market deregulation patriotic and religious fervor the instrumentalization of education and the militarization of society We see the consequences most plainly in the decaying education system schools are increasingly desi

Higher Education for Modern Societies Sjur Bergan, Radu Damian, 2010-01-01 Developing learners competence is an important part of the mission of higher education The kind of competences that higher education should develop depend on what we see as the purposes of higher education The term converging competences points to the need not only to train individuals for specific tasks but to educate the whole person Education is about acquiring skills but also about acquiring values and attitudes As education policies move from an emphasis on process to a stronger emphasis on the results of the education processes learning outcomes have come to be seen as an essential feature of policies both in Europe and North America This book explores the roles and purposes of higher education in modern complex societies and the importance of competences in this respect Although public debate in Europe could give the impression that the sole purpose of higher education is to prepare for the labour market this important role is complemented by at least three others preparation for democratic citizenship personal development and the development of a broad and advanced knowledge base This work draws on the experiences in both Europe and North America to underline that the discussion is not in fact about which of these different purposes is the real one they are all important and they coexist

A Liberal Education Brendan Apfeld, Emanuel Coman, John Gerring, Stephen Jessee, 2024-01-18 Enlisting a natural experiment global surveys and historical data this book examines the university's evolution and its contemporary impact Its authors conduct an unprecedented big data comparative study of the consequences of higher education on ideology democratic citizenship and more They conclude that university education has a profound effect on social and political attitudes across the world greater than that registered by social class gender or age A university education enhances political trust and participation reduces propensities to crime and corruption and builds support for democracy It generates more tolerant attitudes toward social deviance enhances respect for rationalist inquiry and scientific authority and usually encourages support for Leftist parties and movements It does not nurture support for taxation redistribution or the welfare state and may stimulate opposition to these policies These effects are summarized by the co authors as liberal understood in its classic nineteenth century meaning
