Handbook of Research on Leading Higher Education Transformation With Social Justice, Equity, and Inclusion Reneau, Clint-Michael, Villarreal, Mary Ann, 2021-06-25 With the resurgence of race related incidents nationally and on college campuses in recent years acts of overt racism hate crimes controversies over free speech and violence continue to impact institutions of higher education Such incidents may impact the overall campus racial climate and result in a racial crisis which is marked by extreme tension and instability How institutional leaders and the campus community respond to a racial crisis along with the racial literacy demands of the campus leaders can have as much of an effect as the crisis itself As such 21st century university leaders must become more emotionally intelligent and responsive to emergent campus issues Improving campus climate is hard and to achieve notable gains higher education professionals will have to reimagine how they approach this work with equity influenced practices and transformative leadership The Handbook of Research on Leading Higher Education Transformation With Social Justice Equity and Inclusion offers a window into understanding the deep intersections of identity and professional practice as well as guideposts for individual leadership development during contested times The chapters emphasize how identity manifests in the way we lead supervise make decisions persuade form relationships and negotiate responsibilities each day In this book the authors provide insight examples and personal narratives that explore how their identities lens and commitments shaped their leadership and supported their courageous acts for equity and social justice It provides practical tools that leaders can draw on to inform sustainable equity and inclusion focused practices and policies on college campuses and will discuss important campus climate issues and ways to address them This book is a valuable reference work for higher education administrators policymakers leaders managers university presidents social justice advocates practitioners faculty researchers academicians and students who are interested in higher education leadership practices that support and promote social justice equity and inclusion Holistic Education Resource Book Peter Schreiner, Esther Banev, Simon Oxley, The book comes out of the ecumenical movement and is one outcome of the Holistic Education Study Process of the World Council of Churches It contributes to a dialogue between education philosophy and religious education spiritual education and the search for peace and justice reconciliation and healing as a yearning of all human beings Catalog of the Peace Collection Swarthmore College. Peace Collection, 1982 Tenth Anniversary Edition of Economic Justice for All Catholic Church. National Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1997 This tenth anniversary edition of the landmark pastoral letter includes both A Decade After Economic Justice for All and A Catholic Framework for Economic Life Social Justice Education in Canada Ali A. Abdi, 2023-01-03 This engaging edited collection highlights key discussions around educational inequity and related structures and sub structures Featuring a diverse array of contributors Social Justice Education in Canada balances important knowledge learning practices and possibilities emanating from and embedded in anti racist and anti oppressive education with instructive grounding examples The text confronts the idea of social justice as an abstract concept discussing suggestions for rethinking educational systems and making changes that will benefit the learning lives of all students With the aim to critically expand the emerging and increasingly active debates in this important area of educational and social development this volume strives to collectively deepen our understanding and appreciation for critical social justice education Organized into 14 chapters and featuring an epilogue written by Dr Edward Shizha the book critically deals with contemporary topical issues in education including readings on cultural racial religious Indigenous language socio economic citizenship disability ableism and immigrant refugee status realities and their interwoven learning and teaching intersections This text is an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students of education across Canada FEATURES Designed to spark discussions and debates each chapter closes with discussion questions to encourage critical reflection Contributors move beyond the theoretical with actionable practical applications for critical social justice that can be utilized by educators and teacher educators Intersecting topical diversity is at the forefront of this volume which features contributors from different backgrounds and communities critically engaging with issues pertinent to social justice and equity in education
