Navigating the Ubiquitous, Misunderstood, and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program

Coordinator in Higher Education Noelle A. Paufler, Ellen H. Reames, 2023-11-01 Navigating the Ubiquitous Misunderstood and Evolving Role of the Educational Leadership Program Coordinator in Higher Education is an edited volume of chapters focused on the role of the program coordinator PC in educational leadership The book is a recent addition to the book series Dimensions of Leadership and Institutional Success Exploring Connections and Partnerships edited by Ellen H Reames Noelle A Paufler and Ellen H Reames editors created this book to examine various aspects of the PC role because it has been largely ignored in the educational leadership preparation literature The book examines various aspects of the PC role to include responsibilities navigating the politics and policies of higher education and educational agencies internal and external problems and barriers related to the role and recommendations and possibilities for enhancing the PC role The book is divided into 3 sections Section 1 centers on the roles of the PC and also includes a model that can be used to structure PC responsibilities within programs Section 2 focuses the readers attention to present misunderstanding of the PC as a quasiadministrative role which appears to be gaining in clarity through present research Section 3 gives a glimpse to future trends which includes the growing use of clinical faculty as PCs The primary audience is higher education faculty and administrators The term program coordinator spans across all disciplines and is used in most higher education institutions across the United States Higher education institutions are also interested in sustaining partnerships within the university and the communities beyond This book can assist with nuances of partnership development for any higher education field of study The audience also includes faculty in higher educational leadership program development and school university partnership development and enhancement across public and private enterprises who are educating future leaders Other interested groups are university and school based professionals who are seeking to improve relationships partnerships and collaborations between educational leadership preparation programs and K 12 districts and related agencies The book would also be of value to those who conduct research in the areas of partnership creation and implementation and to those who conduct research which improves educational leadership preparation and development The role of the PC in educational leadership is critical to the success of higher education leadership preparation programs and is often very different than PCs in other higher education disciplines

School Leadership for Authentic Family and Community Partnerships Susan Auerbach, 2012-05-22 School leaders are increasingly called upon to pursue meaningful partnerships with families and community groups yet many leaders are unprepared to meet the challenges of partnerships to cross cultural boundaries or to be accountable to the community Alliances are needed among educators families and community groups that value relationship building dialogue and power sharing as part of socially just democratic schools This book brings together research perspectives that intersect the fields of leadership and partnerships to inform and inspire more authentic collaboration Contributors from the fields of educational leadership family engagement school community partnerships and education for social justice come together to examine the role of educational leaders in promoting partnerships as a dimension of leadership for social justice The volume offers a mix of empirical conceptual and reflective chapters with research representing qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches in urban suburban and rural schools The chapter Conversations with Community Oriented Leaders includes candid advice from district and school level administrators on this under documented aspect of leadership Situating leadership for partnerships within the leadership literature this book proposes a model for addressing tensions embedded in home school relations and leading schools toward more authentic relationships with stakeholders This collection of original scholarly articles will be a unique resource for new and aspiring administrators and for researchers in both the fields of leadership and school family community partnerships
