Elizabeth Barrett Browning Edmund Clarence Stedman, 1875      Elizabeth Barrett Browning Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 1988-08 Most of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poetry has been unavailable to new readers in spite of a growing appreciation of her innovativeness as a poet and in spite of her obvious importance for any feminist reading of nineteenth century English poetry With the publication of this book a major portion of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's work returns to print The poems selected here include early verse published in 1826 when the poet was twenty as well as the last poems she wrote before her death in 1861 Her religious verse appears alongside lively ballads examples of her social reforming and political verse and generous selections of her love poetry including the whole of the Sonnets from the Portuguese The volume illustrates Elizabeth Barrett Browning's development as a poet and reveals her contribution to feminist literature Innocent seeming ballads beloved in the Victorian period for their sweetness and condemned thereafter for their cloying sentimentality here emerge as subversive articulations of the plight of women Few heard what Elizabeth Barrett Browning said in her time Margaret Forster writes Today with ears more finely attuned we can hear her clearly      Selected Poems Elizabeth Barrett Browning, 2019 When Robert Browning first read his future wife's poems the effect was immediate I love your verses with all my heart he wrote to her praising her poems for their fresh strange music the affluent language the exquisite pathos and true new brave thought For her part the 38 year old Miss Barrett was inspired by her love for Robert Browning to write the Sonnets from the Portuguese some of the most beautiful love poetry in the English language This collection is loosely based on the original Crown Classics selection made by Samuel Looker in 1948 updated with poems such as The Runaway Slave and The Lady's Yes which speak very directly to contemporary sensibilities Publisher's website
