Fischer,Even Lange,2017-10-18 This book compiles seven essays concerning changes to merchant shipping over the hundred and fifty years between 1850 and 2000 and spanning a range of countries with particular focus on Norway Greece Japan and England The essays are linked by the theme of change from traditional to modern shipping in fluctuating cargo demands from sail to steam wood to iron in improvements in communication technologies in political natures and affiliations in seafaring skillsets in the advent of containerisation and advent of globalisation The overall aim is to construct a solid international context for the merchant shipping industry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries primarily to aid a major Norwegian deep sea merchant marine project The book contains an introduction that sets out these aims and seven essays by maritime historians which form part of the international contextual whole though all can be approached individually Wealth and The Wealthy in the Modern World W.D.

Rubinstein,2024-01-01 First published in 1980 Wealth and The Wealthy in the Modern World looks at the careers of the very wealthy and the extent of wealth holding and wealth distribution in the major Western nations since the Industrial Revolution Each essay examines how wealth was created controlled and maintained in each country It also considers the relationship between wealthy persons and the rest of society and the divisions amongst the wealthy class Social mobility into top wealth and income brackets is also discussed as are the idiosyncratic features of wealth holding in each society Together these essays provide a broad yet detailed portrait of a social class which has had extraordinary influence on shaping the social history of the Western world in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This book will be of interest to students of economics political science and development studies A History of Greek-Owned Shipping Gelina Harlaftis,2005-08-17 Greek
