Pygmalion In Which We Serve Brief Encounter Black Narcissus The Red Shoes and A Hard Day's Night In addition he looks in detail at the ground breaking Victim and brings together the moving reminiscences of gay men who first saw the film in the hostile climate of 1961 and the reactions of contemporary critics This fluent chronology of over 150 famous half remembered and forgotten films is a testament to the contribution of gays and lesbian to British cinema culture A Social History of British Performance Cultures 1900-1939 Maggie B. Gale,2019-11-26 This book provides a new social history of British performance cultures in the early decades of the twentieth century where performance across stage and screen was generated by dynamic and transformational industries Exploring an era book ended by wars and troubled by social unrest and political uncertainty A Social History of British Performance Cultures 1900 1939 makes use of the popular material cultures produced by and for the industries autobiographies fan magazines and trade journals as well as archival holdings popular sketches plays and performances Maggie B Gale looks at how the performance industries operated circulated their products and self regulated their professional activities in a period where enfranchisement democratization technological development and legislation shaped the experience of citizenship Through close examination of material evidence and a theoretical underpinning this book shows how performance industries reflected and challenged this experience and explored the ways in which we construct our performance as participants in the public realm Suited not only to scholars and students of British theatre and theatre history but to general readers as well A Social History of British Performance Cultures 1900 1939 offers an original intervention into the construction of British theatre and performance histories offering new readings of the relationship between the material cultures of performance the social professional and civic contexts from which they arise and on which they reflect The Church of England and Divorce in the Twentieth Century Ann Sumner Holmes,2016-10-04 Attitudes towards divorce have changed considerably over the past two centuries As society has moved away from a Biblical definition of marriage as an indissoluble union to that of an individual and personal relationship secular laws have evolved as well Using unpublished sources and previously inaccessible private collections Holmes explores the significant role the Church of England has played in these changes as well as the impact this has had on ecclesiastical policies This timely study will be relevant to ongoing debates about the meaning and nature of marriage including the theological doctrines and ecclesiastical policies underlying current debates on same sex marriage Nights Out Judith Walkowitz,2012-05-15 London's Soho district underwent a spectacular transformation between the late Victorian era and the end of the Second World War its fin de siècle buildings and dark streets infamous for sex crime political disloyalty and ethnic diversity became a center of culinary and cultural tourism servicing patrons of nearby shops and theaters Indulgences for the privileged and the upwardly mobile edged a dangerous transgressive space imagined to be outside the nation Treating Soho as exceptional but also representative of London's urban transformation Judith Walkowitz shows how the area's foreignness liminality and porousness were key to the explosion of culture and development of modernity in the first half of the twentieth century She draws on a vast and unusual range of sources to stitch together a rich patchwork quilt of vivid stories and unforgettable characters revealing how Soho became a showcase for a new cosmopolitan identity City of Nets Otto Friedrich,1997-05-02 History of Hollywood in the 1940 s Leo McCarey Wes D. Gehring,2005 This first full length biography of a legendary and award winning Hollywood writer producer and director Duck Soup My Favorite Wife An Affair to Remember Going My Way and The Bells of St Mary s explores the director s life as filtered through his art Gehring maintains that McCarey s films were often a reworking of his antiheroic self In addition the apparent diversity of his films actually represents an interrelated web of various comedy genres and a pattern of antiheroic characters and themes London's West End Rohan McWilliam,2020-09-25 How did the West End of London become the world s leading pleasure district What is the source of its magnetic appeal How did the centre of London become Theatreland London s West End 1800 1914 is the first ever history of the area which has enthralled millions The reader will discover the growth of theatres opera houses galleries restaurants department stores casinos exhibition centres night clubs street life and the sex industry The area from the Strand to Oxford Street came to stand for sensation and vulgarity but also the promotion of high culture The West End produced shows and fashions whose impact rippled outwards around the globe During the nineteenth century an area that serviced the needs of the aristocracy was opened up to a wider public whilst retaining the imprint of luxury and prestige Rohan McWilliam tells the story of the great artists actors and entrepreneurs who made the West End figures such as Gilbert and Sullivan the playwright Dion Boucicault the music hall artiste Jenny Hill and the American Harry Gordon Selfridge who wanted to create the best shop in the world At the same time McWilliam explores the distinctive spaces created in the West End from the glamour of Drury Lane and Covent Garden through to low life bars and taverns We encounter the origins of the modern star system and celebrity culture London s West End 1800 1914 moves from the creation of Regent Street to the glory days of the Edwardian period when the West End was the heart of empire and the entertainment industry Much of modern culture and consumer society was shaped by a relatively small area in the middle of London This pioneering study establishes why that was Movie/TV Soundtracks and Original Cast Recordings Price and Reference Guide Jerry Osborne,2002-11 Heaven and Hell to Play with Preston Neal Jones,2002 Jones uncovers the fascinating inside story of the making of this film one of the American Film Institutes s 100 Greatest Thrillers Every aspect is revealed of the film s development and production casting design shooting scoring and editing to the profound disappointment upon its release This book is the result of over a decade of archival research and interviews with a dozen key people associated with the film including Grubb Gregory actors Robert Mitchum and Lillian Gish and cinematographer Stanley Cortez Their oral histories along with numerous artifacts and film stills are here deftly assembled into an account that is as compelling as the movie it celebrates From Caligari to California Ursula Hardt,1996-12-01 Known as one of the great producers and promoters of the film industry Eric Pommer had a life long commitment to German film despite his emigration in 1933 and worked in France and Britain as well as the United States As German producer studio executive and film politician in the pre Hitler era Erich later Eric Pommer 1889 1966 a native of Germany was an innovator and pioneer a vital force in leading German cinema to international acclaim with successes such as The Cabinet of Dr Caligari The Nibelungen and The Blue Angel As Motion Picture Control Officer of the US Military Government he undertook from 1946 49 the difficult task of rebuilding West Germany's film industry from the ashes of the Second World War He succeeded brilliantly but not without paying the hefty price of becoming embroiled in the turmoil of postwar German politics which made him many friends but also many enemies This book is the first detailed account in English of the remarkable career of Pommer who became a legend in his own lifetime

The Animals Christopher Isherwood, Don Bachardy, 2014-05-13 The love story between Christopher Isherwood and Don Bachardy in their own words The English novelist and screenwriter Christopher Isherwood was already famous as the author of Goodbye to Berlin when he met Don Bachardy a California teenager on the beach in Santa Monica in 1952 Within a year they began to live together as an openly gay couple defying convention in the closeted world of Hollywood Isherwood was forty eight Bachardy was eighteen The Animals is the testimony in letters to their extraordinary partnership which lasted until Isherwood's death in 1986 despite the thirty year age gap affairs and jealousy on both sides the pressures of increasing celebrity and the disdain of twentieth century America for love between two men The letters reveal the private world of the Animals Isherwood was Dobbin a stubborn old workhorse Bachardy was the rash playful Kitty Isherwood had a gift for creating a safe and separate domestic milieu necessary for a gay man in midtwentieth century America He drew Bachardy into his semi secret realm nourished Bachardy's talent as a painter and launched him into the artistic career that was first to threaten and eventually to secure their life together The letters also tell of public achievements the critical acclaim for A Single Man the commercial success of Cabaret and the bohemian whirl of friendships in Los Angeles London and New York with such stars as Truman Capote Julie Harris David Hockney Vanessa Redgrave Gore Vidal and Tennessee Williams Bold transgressive and playful The Animals articulates the devotion in tenderness and in storms between two uniquely original spirits

Past and Present James Chapman, 2005-09-23 This ground breaking book takes as its focal point director Ken Loach's view that The only reason to make films that are a reflection on history is to talk about the present In the first book to take on this major genre in all its complexity James Chapman argues that historical films say as much about the times in which they are made as about the past they purport to portray Through in depth case studies of fourteen key films spanning the 1930s up to the turn of the twenty first century from The Private Life of Henry VIII and Zulu to Chariots of Fire and Elizabeth Chapman examines the place of historical films in British cinema history and film culture Looking closely at the issues that they present from gender class and ethnicity to militarism and imperialism he also discusses controversies over historical accuracy and the ways in which devices such as voice overs title captions and visual references to photographs and paintings assert a sense of historical verisimilitude Exploring throughout the book the dialectical relationship between past and present Chapman reveals how such films promote British achievements but also sometimes question them and how they project images of Britishness to audiences both in the UK and internationally

Margaret O'Brien Allan R. Ellenberger, 2015-09-11 Among Hollywood's child stars are some talented children normal and pleasant who find fame in film Margaret O'Brien is one her career began in 1941 The fresh faced mopplet quickly became a sensation and won the 1944 Academy Award for Outstanding Child Actress As Adele in Jane Eyre 1944 and Beth in Little Women 1949 Margaret endeared herself to millions Despite the strain of growing up on screen O'Brien continues to perform today This reference work details O'Brien's remarkable and varied career on stage screen and television it includes a biography and a complete listing of all her film radio stage and television appearances as well as references to her in magazines and newspapers Each entry includes complete production information as well as reviews and behind the scenes commentary Included are forewords by Robert Young and O'Brien herself who provided much of the information in this book Dozens of photos including many from O'Brien's personal collection illustrate the text and show the varied stages of a career that includes both famous roles and famous friendships
