Confessions of an Ordinary Mystic Jannel T. Glennie,2000-08 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2002 The Journal of Transpersonal Psychology ,2004 Teresa of Avila Cathleen Medwick,2001-01-16 A refreshingly modern reconsideration of Saint Teresa 1515 1582 one of the greatest mystics and reformers to emerge within the sixteenth century Catholic Church whose writings are a keystone of modern mystical thought From the very beginning of her life in a convent following the death of her mother and the marriage of her older sister it was clear that Teresa s expansive nature intensity and energy would not be easily confined Cathleen Medwick shows us a powerful daughter of the Church and her times who was a very human mass of contradictions a practical and no nonsense manager and yet a flamboyant and intrepid presence who bent the rules of monastic life to accomplish her work while managing to stay one step ahead of the Inquisition And she exhibited a very personal brand of spirituality often experiencing raptures of an unorthodox arguably erotic nature that left her frozen in one position for hours unable to speak Out of a concern for her soul and her reputation her superiors insisted that she account for every voice and vision as well as the sins that might have engendered them thus giving us the account of her life that is now considered a literary masterpiece Medwick makes it clear that Teresa considered her major work the reform of the Carmelites an enterprise requiring all her considerable persuasiveness and her talent for administration We see her moving about Spain with the assurance if not the authority of a man in spite of debilitating illness to establish communities of nuns who lived scrupulously devout lives without luxuries In an era when women were seldom taken seriously she even sought and received permission to found two religious houses for men In this fascinating account Cathleen Medwick reveals Teresa as both more complex and more comprehensible than she has seemed in the past She illuminates for us the devout and worldly woman behind the centuries old iconography of the saint Quaker Life, 2000

Choosing Peace Through Daily Practices Ellen Ott Marshall, 2005 Choosing Peace through Daily Practice is intended for people who feel both called to and daunted by the vocation of peacemaking How do we live out this calling in a world that seeks peace through violence How do we live out this calling in a society that understands peace as the absence of violence rather than the presence of justice How do we live out this calling in a time when the daily news reinforces the perception that peace is truly untenable The contributors all of whom teach at Claremont School of Theology argue in their essays that we live out this calling by practicing peace in and through our daily devotions work and interaction with others The first set of essays explores the vocation of peacemaking explains practices language and highlights the connection between the processes of peace in the world and peace in the home The remaining chapters describe practices of peacemaking in spiritual life classroom discourse congregational ministry and community interaction Essentials for Life for Women Marcia Ford, 2010-04-13 Helps women put first things first so that she can live a more confident fulfilled life How does a woman keep the cares of this world and the enticements that it offers from choking out the essentials of following God Essentials for Life for Women helps them get back to the basics of what matters most with a fresh perspective on four core essentials of the Christian life What do I believe How do I grow closer to God What should my character and life reflect How do I live my life every day Essentials for Life for Women offers fifty daily or weekly readings that each include a key life principle scripture and quotes meditation and an application Each discussion offers hope and a sense of peace and well being by focusing on life with an eternal perspective The content offers spiritual truth while the interior graphic design including sidebars and visuals enhances the readability and the impact of each core essential

Listen to the Silence: A Retreat with Père Jacques Père Jacques Bunel, OCD, 2005 The Carmelite nuns at Pontoise invited P re Jacques to give conferences and to preach as retreat master They received from him a seven day retreat in the late summer of 1943 This book contains the talks he gave to the nuns they are inspiring but also warm hearted reflections on questions of key interest to his audience Among the topics were love for Christ for His Blessed Mother the nuns Carmelite contemplative prayer life and their religious observance but all received deft treatment from this confrere who eventually became famous for his compassionate assistance to the persecuted in World War II More Information As a diocesan priest P re Jacques Bunel was frequently in demand as a preacher in his home diocese of Rouen Normandy Along with his duties as educator in a prep school in Le Havre he spoke at important public occasions He was chosen to give the sermon that marked the five hundredth anniversary of the death of St

Joan of Arc in the Cathedral of Rouen the city where she was burned at the stake Afterwards when he became a Discalced Carmelite friar the cover photo shows him on the day he professed his vows he continued to exercise a preaching ministry We owe the full texts of those talks to the Carmelite Nuns of Pontoise as well as helpful notes and an introduction to Rev Dr Francis J Murphy Father Murphy a diocesan priest who has become a good friend of the Carmelites through his interest in P re Jacques collaborating with them as he collaborates with his historian colleagues teaches at Boston College in Chestnut Hill Massachusetts This collection of talks extends the knowledge Father Murphy has provided to the public in the biography volume he named and published at ICS Publications with the title P re Jacques Resplendent in Victory Book includes 8 photos
