International Law of Human Rights Michael K. Addo, 2017-07-05 International law is a social construct crafted by human endeavour to achieve or at least contribute to the achievement of goals perceived to be valuable or necessary to effective social relations In effect international law is no more than a facilitative process and so cannot have answers and conclusions of its own other than what lies within the ambitions of those who define the limits of the process The essays collected together here reveal how international law facilitates the achievement of the long standing ambition of turning human rights ideals and rhetoric into reality Taiwan and Southeast Asia Karl Chee Leong Lee, Ying-kit Chan, 2023-06-16 Lee Chan and their contributors analyse the different kinds of soft power deployed by Taiwan in its bid to strengthen its relations with its neighbours in Southeast Asia Despite not having formal diplomatic relations with Southeast Asian countries after their diplomatic recognition of the People's Republic of China decades ago Taiwan continues to be a key economic and socio cultural partner for the region at large Successive administrations in Taiwan from the Chen to Tsai eras have circumvented the long standing absence of diplomatic recognition with the diffusion of soft power shaping what others want with attractiveness through the utilization of its existing economic and socio cultural links with Southeast Asian countries While such soft power diffusion contributes to Taiwan's triple quests for legitimacy as a member of international community status as a constructive actor in the region and long term economic prosperity for the island state the emergence of China as an economic superpower in the 21st century has significantly challenged such quests from Taipei The contributors to this volume examine both the intentions and the reception of Taiwan's approach to the nations of ASEAN An essential read for students and researchers investigating the impact and limitations of soft power in foreign policy Wissenschaft und Zukunft Gottfried Magerl, Helmut Rumpler, Christian Smekal, 2000 Aus dem Inhalt Reinder J van Duinen Science and the Future James W Vaupel Demographic Imbalance John F B Mitchell Detection and Prediction of Anthropogenic Climate Change Winfried von Urff Ernährung für die Welt von morgen Reinhard Margreiter Homo faber homo ludens Gert G Wagner Vollbeschäftigung aus der Sicht der Volkswirtschaftslehre Guy Kirsch Arbeit und Civil Society Nebojsa Nakicenovic Long Term Energy Perspectives and Economic Development Vincenz Timmermann Political Rights and Economic Liberties Herbert C Kelman International Conflict Resolution The Crooked Timber of Democracy in Israel Dahlia Scheindlin, 2023-09-18 A narrative chronicle of Israeli democracy that defines historic phases and follows thematic challenges to democracy including competition between religion and the rule of law the statist society and chaotic minoritocracy modern illiberal populism and the Israeli Palestinian conflict The comprehensive portrait exposes endemic flaws of democracy in Israel but also shows that Israel has considerable capacity and responsibility to fulfill the promise of democracy Does More Intense Competition Lead to Higher Growth? Mark Andrew Dutz, Aydin Hayri, 2000 Empirical evidence indicates a strong correlation between long run growth and effective enforcement of antitrust and competition policy Freedom in the World Freedom House Survey Team, 1994 An annual guide published by Freedom House 120 Wall Street New York NY 10005 and distributed by National Book Network Lanham MD 20706 Individual country reports detail and rate the political and human rights situation in 186 countries and 66 related territories and include data on life expectancy population and ethnic composition Regional essays sum up major events and charts and maps display data Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Arms on the Market Gary K. Law and the State Alain Marciano, Jean-Michel Josselin, 2005-01-01 Law and the State provides a political economy analysis of the legal functioning of a democratic state illustrating how it builds on informational and legal constraints It explains in an organised and thematic fashion how competitive information enhances democracy while strategic information endangers it and discusses how legal constraints stress the dilemma of independence versus discretion for judges as well as the elusive role of administrators and experts Throughout the book empirical evidence and comparative studies illuminate sometimes provocative theoretical views on issues such as the place of the rule of law in constitutional and banking systems regulation of copyright art and heritage innovations and technologies of communication and information terrorism and media manipulation Both private and public law applied and theoretical issues are covered comprehensively Academics and researchers of law and economics and public choice will find much to challenge and inform them within this book
