Allen, Eric Hankins, Adam Harwood, 2016-09-15 Anyone Can Be Saved articulates a biblical theological explanation of the doctrine of salvation in light of the rise of Calvinistic theology among Southern Baptist churches in the United States Ten scholars pastors and leaders advocate for the ten articles of the Traditional Statement by appealing to Scripture the Baptist Faith and Message and a variety of biblical theological and philosophical writings Although many books address the doctrine of salvation these authors consciously set aside the Calvinist Arminian presuppositions that have framed this discussion in western theology for centuries The contributors are unified in their conviction that any person who hears the gospel can be saved a view that was found among earlier Baptists as well as other Christian groups today This book is not meant to be the final word on Southern Baptist soteriology but is offered as a peaceable contribution to the wider conversation on the doctrine of salvation
