Freedom Human Rights Education Pack:

Education Pack "all different - all equal" 2021 Rui Gomes, Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia, Patricia Brander, Laure de Witte, Gavan Titley, 2021-11-22 It is easy to say I have no prejudices I m not racist so it has nothing to do with me I didn t invite those refugees It is hard to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn t continue in the future The Education Pack all different all equal was originally produced in 1995 as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism antisemitism xenophobia and intolerance Soon after its publication it became a reference work for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people across Europe and beyond Translated into many languages it remains today one of the most successful and most sought after publications of the Council of Europe The usefulness of the pack stems from the variety and creativity of the methodologies proposed More than twenty years after the all different all equal campaign the role plays simulation exercises case studies and cooperative group work that it proposes remain an inspiration to many youth workers trainers teachers and other people actively involved in intercultural education European societies continue to suffer from a growth of racist hostility and intolerance towards minorities and foreigners the necessity for intercultural youth work remains undiminished and the relevance of this pack remains unquestionable Little bit has been changed in this new edition of the pack apart from an updating of references Most changes are visible and usable only in the online version which offers relevant links with other resources for human rights education which continue the legacy of the campaign equality in dignity and rights respect for broader appreciation of diversity

Education Pack "All different - All equal" 4th edition Rui Gomes, Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia, Patricia Brander, Laure de Witte, Gavan Titley, 2024-10-01 An invaluable education pack proposing resources and activities for education and action with young people against racism and discrimination It is easy to say I have no prejudices or I m not racist so it has nothing to do with me It is much harder to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn t continue in the future Many young people in Europe and beyond defied the pandemic and took to the streets in 2020 to express their sorrow and their anger in the aftermath of George Floyd s death in Minneapolis at the hands of a white policeman This also served as a wake up call to the daily systemic and sometimes structural forms of racial discrimination which are visible across Europe expressed in hate speech or outright physical violence and which target people on the basis of their characteristics or identity including age colour of skin disability ethnicity gender legal status nationality origin race religion and belief sex and sexual orientation Youth leaders and human rights activists turned to the Council of Europe the guardian of human rights in Europe for responses support and in particular what the youth sector could propose A consultation with youth workers and specialists in human rights education concluded that part of the response has to be educational The rise of populist nationalist and xenophobic ideas and discourse must also be countered through democratic citizenship and human rights education including anti racism education and intercultural learning Education remains an important antidote to racism and prejudice This manual was originally produced in 1995 for the European youth campaign against racism antisemitism xenophobia and intolerance It has been updated and extended to reflect the kaleidoscope of racial discrimination in Europe today and the mutations of racist discourses and ideologies It contains basic information and hands on non formal education methodologies for supporting young people in learning about and addressing prejudice and its impact on people and societies Compass - Manual for Human Rights Education with Young People (2012 edition - fully revised and updated) Council of Europe,Collectif,2015-06-01 Human rights cannot be defended by legal measures alone They need to be protected and safeguarded by everyone including young people Human rights are best respected and appreciated when we know them stand up for them and apply them in our lives COMPASS provides youth leaders teachers and facilitators of human rights education activities whether professionals or volunteers with concrete ideas and practical activities to engage involve and motivate young people in living learning and acting for human rights It promotes a comprehensive perspective on human rights education and sees young people as actors for a culture of universal human rights COMPASS was originally published in 2002 and is now available in more than 30 languages A version specifically designed for human rights education with children COMPASITO enjoys a similar success This fully revised and updated edition includes new activities and information about human rights issues such as disability and disablism migration religion remembrance war and terrorism COMPASS is a practical tool and resource for citizenship and human rights education It is an essential companion for all those who are curious and interested in making the right to human rights education a reality for everyone Freedom! Caroline Adams,Marietta Harrow,Dan Jones,2001 What are our human rights How have they been developed denied and challenged This text investigates these questions and many more It offers a wide range of differentiated material suitable for students across a range of abilities from Key Stage 3 and upwards It is suitable for use in courses which focus on religious education personal and social education citizenship law sociology politics geography history and general studies The information pack has been produced by Amnesty International who campaign for freedom and human rights worldwide Working for Freedom Amnesty International,1991 Amnesty,1993 T-Kit 14 - Value-based learning in mobility projects Snežana Bačlija Knoch,Sérgio Gonçalves,Susie Nicodemi,2022-05-18 Promote value based education in general and in learning mobility in the youth field in particular Learning mobility in the youth field is increasingly recognised and present in European programmes and in the activities and initiatives supported by the European Union the Council of Europe and other institutions Providing a meeting place for people from different environments and communities learning mobility programmes draw attention to values trigger reflections on them and stimulate questioning and critical examination If prepared and facilitated well these experiences can contribute to preparing and supporting young people and adult learners to be active in society and to be agents of change This T Kit has been written by and is for facilitators of learning to help start their thinking process about an important but also complex topic It aims to promote value based education in general to explain it and with practical examples related to specific values show how it can be used It is framed within the current policy framework of the Council of Europe and the European Union including their youth mobility programmes The T Kit should be understood through a holistic learning and non formal education approach the combination of theory background information examples and some practical ideas should help to initiate reflection from the relatively new angle of value based education in learning mobility in the youth field Value based learning is not neutral and neither is the T Kit Value based learning in mobility projects It is rooted in a set of values that it explores promotes and encourages action based on them To support this process the T Kit is divided into two parts one conceptual and one practical The conceptual part lays the foundation for value based learning in mobility while the practical part encompasses concrete activities and thought provokers which address the dilemmas and questions that can arise when implementing activities
