Freedom and Responsibility Hilary Bok,2022-03-08 Can we reconcile the idea that we are free and responsible agents with the idea that what we do is determined according to natural laws For centuries philosophers have tried in different ways to show that we can Hilary Bok takes a fresh approach here as she seeks to show that the two ideas are compatible by drawing on the distinction between practical and theoretical reasoning Bok argues that when we engage in practical reasoning the kind that involves asking what should I do and sifting through alternatives to find the most justifiable course of action we have reason to hold ourselves responsible for what we do But when we engage in theoretical reasoning searching for causal explanations of events we have no reason to apply concepts like freedom and responsibility Bok contends that libertarians arguments against compatibilist justifications of moral responsibility fail because they describe human actions only from the standpoint of theoretical reasoning To establish this claim she examines which conceptions of freedom of the will and moral responsibility are relevant to practical reasoning and shows that these conceptions are not vulnerable to many objections that libertarians have directed against compatibilists Bok concludes that the truth or falsity of the claim that we are free and responsible agents in the sense those conceptions spell out is ultimately independent of deterministic accounts of the causes of human actions Clearly written and powerfully argued Freedom and Responsibility is a major addition to current debate about some of philosophy's oldest and deepest questions

First Philosophy III: God, Mind, and Freedom Andrew Bailey,2004-08-06 First Philosophy God Mind and Freedom brings together classic and ground breaking readings on metaphysics the philosophy of mind and the philosophy of religion Mindful of the intrinsic difficulty of much of the material the editor has provided comprehensive introductions both to the central topics and to each individual selection By providing a detailed discussion of the historical and intellectual background to each piece he aims to enable readers to approach the material without unnecessary barriers to understanding In an introductory chapter the editor provides a brief introduction to the nature of philosophical enquiry to the nature of argument and to the process of reading and writing within the academic discipline of philosophy Self-Knowledge and the Self David A Jopling, 2002-09-11 In this clear and reasoned discussion of self knowledge and the self the author asks whether it is really possible to know ourselves as we really are He illuminates issues about the nature of self identity which are of fundamental importance in moral psychology epistemology and literary criticism Jopling focuses on the accounts of Stuart Hampshire Jean Paul Sartre and Richard Rorty and dialogical philosophical psychology and illustrates his argument with examples from literature drama and psychology Reflections on Exile and Other Essays Edward W. Said, 2000 With their powerful blend of political and aesthetic concerns Edward W Said s writings have transformed the field of literary studies This long awaited collection of literary and cultural essays offers evidence of how much the fully engaged critical mind can contribute to the reservoir of value thought and action essential to our lives and culture Wisdom for the Soul Larry Chang, 2006 Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing Analysis and Metaphysics Keith Lehrer, 2012-12-06 AND BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH This collection of essays in honor of Roderick M Chisholm is the work of his former students The book was conceived and the original contributors invited by Richard Taylor We restricted the contributors to former students of Chisholm as a special tribute to his acknowledged as a teacher of philosophy The profundity of his contributions to genius epistemology and metaphysics are acknowledged throughout the philosophical world Those who have been present at his lectures and seminars who have been incited to philosophical cerebration by the clarity and precision of his exposition know that his impact on contemporary philosophy far exceeds the influence of the written word It is we think appropriate that his students should reserve for themselves the privilege of honoring Chisholm in this way as his 60th birthday draws near The tribute paid to Chisholm in Taylor s essay conveys a personal impression I shall consequently refrain from personal reminiscence here and instead mention some of the highlights of an illustrious life Chisholm was born on November 27 1916 in North Attleboro Massachusetts He married Eleanor F Parker in 1943 and raised three children with her He received an A B from Brown in 1938 a Ph D from Harvard in 1942 and served in the U S Army from 1942 to 1946
