New Approaches to Theodor Fontane Marion Villmar-Doebeling, 2000 While Fontane scholarship has primarily focused on the objective portrayal of nineteenth century German Prussian culture and on the authenticity with which his work supposedly mirrors social reality this collection investigates rhetorical and communicative patterns in his works that call this mirroring effect into question emphasizing the difficulty and ultimate impossibility of realist representation BOOK JACKET , German Literature, Jewish Critics Stephen D. Metaphysics of Freedom? Christian H. Krijnen, 2018-08-27 Freedom is one of the main issues of modern philosophy and Kant's philosophy of freedom a major source for comprehending it Whereas in contemporary debates Kant's concept of practical freedom is addressed frequently the cosmological foundation of it is much less discussed and even mostly taken for granted In Metaphysics of Freedom by contrast Kant's concept of cosmological freedom is scrutinized both in a historical and a systematic perspective As a result a deeper and broader understanding of Kant's conception of freedom its presuppositions and problems emerges American Turner , 1924 All God's Creatures Daniel P. Horan, 2020-07-07 The predominant stewardship model of creation is the result of an intentional effort to correct approaches that reinforce human sovereignty and the resulting environmental degradation However as All God s Creatures argues the stewardship model actually does not offer a correction but rather reinscribes many of the very same pitfalls After close analysis of the stewardship model this book identifies scriptural theological and philosophical sources to support the adoption of a community of creation paradigm Drawing on postcolonial theory this book proposes the concept of planetarity as a framework for conceiving the relationship between human and nonhuman creation and the Creator in a new way This theoretical framework is grounded by a retrieval of the medieval Franciscan theological and philosophical tradition The result is what can be called a postcolonial Franciscan theology of creation imagined in terms of planetarity providing a constructive and nonanthropocentric response to the need for a new conceptualization of the doctrine of creation The Discipline of Philosophy and the Invention of Modern Jewish Thought Willi Goetschel,2015-06-01

Exploring the subject of Jewish philosophy as a controversial construction site of the project of modernity this book examines the implications of the different and often conflicting notions that drive the debate on the question of what Jewish philosophy is or could be The idea of Jewish philosophy begs the question of philosophy as such But Jewish philosophy does not just reflect what philosophy lacks Rather it challenges the project of philosophy itself Examining the thought of Spinoza Moses Mendelssohn Heinrich Heine Hermann Cohen Franz Rosenzweig Martin Buber Margarete Susman Hermann Levin Goldschmidt and others the book highlights how the most philosophic moments of their works are those in which specific concerns of their Jewish questions inform the rethinking of philosophy s disciplinarity in principal terms The long overdue recognition of the modernity that informs the critical trajectories of Jewish philosophers from Spinoza and Mendelssohn to the present emancipates not just Jewish philosophy from an infelicitous pigeonhole these philosophers so pointedly sought to reject but more important emancipates philosophy from its false claims to universalism
