French Critical Reception Of African American Literature From The Beginnings To 1970 An Annotated Bibliography:

The French Critical Reception of African-American Literature ,1995-10-24 The first real reviewing of African American literature in France began in 1844 when audiences welcomed the romantic dramas of Victor Séjour With the passing of time African American works have become increasingly known in France where they are now translated almost as soon as they come out in the United States This bibliography charts the French critical response to African American literature from the 19th century to 1970 The bulk of the items selected were published between 1900 and 1970 and all were printed in French The selection has been limited to responses to the works of creative writers along with some important and influential autobiographical writings Entries are arranged in chronological sections and then alphabetically within each section Annotations summarize the critical views expressed in the work cited As a whole the bibliography is a valuable guide to changing French critical attitudes toward African American literature and is an index to the growing popularity of African American literature in France African American Criminologists, 1970-1996 Lee Ross,1998-04-16 To this date efforts to document the scholarly contributions of exclusively African American criminologists are nonexistent This is a reference work which offers contemporary Afrocentric perspective on critical issues of crime and justice by focusing on the contributions of African American criminologists whose interests and responses to crime arguably differ from those of mainstream white criminologists This reference will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate students and faculty in criminal justice and practitioners in policy making Most of the abstracts can be cross referenced to publications within mainstream criminal justice journals In addition selected books manuscripts and an array of state and government documents are included and provide rare Afrocentric perspectives on issues of crime and justice In the process it credits many Caucasians and ethnic minorities as important contributors to a given publication This reference book consists of five chapters 1 an introductory article on issues that define and confront African American criminologists 2 an alphabetical listing of published abstracts for each contributing author 3 selected references to each publication 4 an appendix containing titles to doctoral dissertations for all contributing African American scholars and 5 an author and subject index The History of Blacks in Canada George H. Junne,2003-03-30 This fascinating bibliography of source materials clearly demonstrates the significant roles blacks have played in the history and culture of Canada from its beginnings as well as their 400 year fight for equity and justice Organized by area of endeavor and by province the source materials detailed here reveal that blacks in Canada have created a rich diverse and complex legacy This volume lists resources that point to blacks history as soldiers prospectors educators cowboys homesteaders entertainers legislators athletes artists servants and writers The most comprehensive bibliography about blacks in Canada that has been published it is well organized to facilitate locating specific topics or people spanning black history Also included are newspapers and videos that add their own unique contribution Academicians researchers students and interested lay people will find an organized compilation of a vast number of primary and secondary sources about blacks in Canada Bibliography of African American Leadership Cedric Johnson, Ronald W. Walters, 2000-06-30 Compiled in this volume is the most significant accumulation of works on the subject of African American leadership to date As the field of leadership studies continues to grow this timely work contributes to an understanding of the activities of those people and organizations that have been leaders of people of African descent and have contributed to the cultural and political affairs of the black community as well as the representation of the black community in mainstream American life The annotated entries cover a variety of works on subjects such as dedicated black leadership studies local descriptions and analyses biographies leadership organizations and audio visual materials This reference is an important contribution to the field of leadership studies in general and African American leadership in particular and will serve as a valuable research tool for educators and practitioners alike The entries are organized into six sections which offer a broad overview of the various aspects of African American leadership Part I Critical Studies and Appraisals focuses on the history of works dedicated to both national and local leaders and their politically relevant activities The next section Local Leadership Studies is organized around black leaders who served local communities and the various issues they addressed Part III looks at relevant social movements and ideologies that have highlighted the activities of black leaders Individual leaders who have made contributions to the political life of the black community are included in Part IV while leadership organizations are highlighted in Part V The concluding section of the volume looks at available audio visual materials A thorough index rounds out the bibliography The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology Yale French Studies, Number 135-136 Lauren Du Graf, Julia Elsky, Clémentine Fauré, 2020-01-07 Focused on existentialism this issue explores current writers thinkers and texts affiliated with the movement In 1948 Yale French Studies devoted its inaugural issue to existentialism This anniversary issue responds seventy years later In recent years new critical and theoretical approaches have reconfigured existentialism and refreshed perspectives on the philosophical literary and stylistic movement This special issue restores the writers thinkers and texts of the movement to their subversive strength In so doing it illustrates existentialism s present relevance revealing how the concerns of the past urgently bristle into our own times Roots of Afrocentric Thought Clovis E. Semmes,1998-02-12

The uniqueness sweeping content and timing of Negro Digest Black World give it enormous historical and scholarly importance The most influential and widely read Black literary magazine in the 1960s Negro Digest played a critical role in the era s Black Arts and Black Consciousness movement and is the most complete voice of that movement Renamed Black World in 1970 the magazine gave voice to scholars coining and developing the concept of Afrocentric and African centered analysis An analysis of Afrocentric methods and discourse would not be complete without an examination of this magazine This reference guide provides easy access to this valuable publication Part One includes chapters on Literature and Literary Criticism History Mass Media and the Arts and Social and Political Analysis which provide annotations on original articles and speeches Part Two indexes original materials including poetry short stories and plays reviews and interviews

Contemporary African American Female Playwrights Dana A. Williams,1998-06-30 Lorraine Hansberry s A Raisin in the Sun 1959 was a major dramatic success and brought to the world s attention the potential talent of African American women playwrights But in spite of Hansberry s landmark contribution both the theater and the literary world have often failed to include contemporary African American female playwrights within the circle of production publication and criticism In African American drama anthologies female playwrights are seldom given the degree of attention that is accorded their male counterparts And because of space constraints anthologies of works by women playwrights are forced to exclude numerous female dramatists including African Americans Meanwhile some scholars have argued that the works of African American female playwrights are seldom produced in the mainstream theater because these plays frequently challenge the views of white America But as A Raisin in the Sun demonstrates plays by African American women dramatists can have a powerful message and are worthy of attention A comprehensive research tool this annotated bibliography sheds light on the often neglected works of contemporary African American female playwrights Included within its scope are those dramatists who have had at least one work published since 1959 the year of Hansberry s monumental achievement The first section provides a listing of anthologies that include one or more plays written by an African American female dramatist The second gives entries for reference works and for scholarly and critical studies of the dramatists and their plays The third presents a listing of published plays by individual dramatists along with a summary of each drama the works of each playwright that are related to drama and secondary sources that treat the dramatists and their plays Entries are accompanied by concise but informative annotations and the volume closes with a list of periodicals that frequently publish criticism of African American female playwrights a section of brief biographical sketches of the dramatists and extensive indexes Blacks in the American West and Beyond--America, Canada, and Mexico George H. Junne,2000-05-30 Almost a century before their arrival in the English New World Blacks appeared alongside the Spanish in what is now the American West Through their families communities and institutions these Western Blacks left behind a long history which is just now beginning to receive systematic scholarly treatment Comprehensively indexing a variety of research materials on Blacks in the North American West Junne offers an invaluable navigational tool for students of American and African American history Entries are organized both geographically and topically and cover a broad range of subjects including cross cultural interaction health art and law Contains a complete compilation of African American newspapers

African American Women's Literature in Spain Sandra Llopart Babot,2023-05-31 This volume brings forward a descriptive approach to the translation and reception of African American women s literature in Spain Drawing from a multidisciplinary theoretical and methodological framework it traces the translation history of literature produced by African American women seeking to uncover changing strategies in translation policies as well as shifts in interests in the target context and it examines the topicality of this cohort of authors as frames of reference for Spanish critics and reviewers Likewise the reception of the source literature in the Spanish context is described by reconstructing the values that underlie judgements in different reception sources Finally this book addresses the specific problem of the translation of Black English into Spanish More precisely it pays attention to the ideological and the ethical implications of translation choices and the effect of the latter on the reception of literary texts
