Affective-Discursive Practice in Online Medical Consultations in China Yu Zhang, 2022-08-18 This book provides readers with the latest research on the affective aspect of online interactions between doctors and e patients in the context of China from a poststructuralist discourse analysis perspective At the heart of this book is the presentation of four chapters which address 1 indirect negative emotional acts by e patients and empathic acts by doctors constituting affective practice 2 the interactional discursive features involved in the affective practice 3 discursive positions of e patients and doctors within the affective practice context and 4 power relations that are reflected in the positionings This book sheds light on the importance of examining the affective facet of medical consultation when it comes to identifying non traditional positions and power relations in doctor patient communication It also provides the implication that e healthcare platforms especially those with an e commercialized model for healthcare services have potential to produce a type of neo liberal discourse the e commercialized medical consultation discourse in which patients and caregivers who are acknowledged as the less powerful group in the traditional healthcare activities are empowered and privileged The Phraseology of Administrative

French Wendy J. Anderson, 2006 The French administrative language of the European Union is an emerging discourse it is only fifty years old and has its origins in the French administrative register of the middle of the twentieth century but it is also a unique contact situation in which translation has always played a pivotal role Using the methodology of corpus linguistics and a specially compiled corpus of texts covering a range of genres this book describes the current discourse of EU French from the perspective of phraseology and collocational patterning and in particular in comparison with its French national counterpart Corpus methodology and an inclusive notion of phraseology embracing typical formulae locutions and patterning around keywords reveal subtleties and patterns which otherwise remain hidden and point to a discourse of EU French whose novel context of production has led it to be phraseologically conservative compared with the administrative French of France Making Sense of Race, Class, and Gender Celine-Marie Pascale, 2013-02-01 Using arresting case studies of how ordinary people understand the concepts of race class and gender Celine Marie Pascale shows that the peculiarity of commonsense is that it imposes obviousness that which we cannot fail to recognize As a result how we negotiate the challenges of inequality in the twenty first century may depend less on what people consciously think about difference and more on what we inadvertently assume Through an analysis of commonsense knowledge Pascale expertly provides new insights into familiar topics In addition by analyzing local practices in the context of established cultural discourses Pascale shows how the weight of history bears on the present moment both enabling and constraining possibilities Pascale tests the boundaries of sociological knowledge and offers new avenues for conceptualizing social change In 2008 Making Sense of Race Class and Gender was the recipient of the Distinguished Contribution to Scholarship Book Award of the American Sociological Association Section on Race Gender and Class for distinguished and significant contribution to the development of the integrative field of race gender and class Keywords in Western Literary Criticism and Contemporary China Yamin Hu, 2020-07-14 Since the reform and opening up of China in 1978 Western literary criticism has begun to flourish and gain in popularity within the country s academic literature community These two volumes meticulously select and examine nine of the most influential keywords from Western literary theory while identifying the intricate historical sources of these terms and analyzing their relevance to other disciplines and ideas The result shows how these words function as heterogeneous cultural contexts in the complexity of experience but also how they function within the context of Chinese culture as well as Chinese literature and criticism In this volume the editors focus on discourse text narrative literariness and irony from the perspectives of etymology documentation meanings and other core factors Students of literature and languages and especially Chinese literature will benefit from this two volume set The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Zølner, 2006-11-22 Methodological questions about how to study democratic network governance have so far received little research attention This book aims to remedy this by addressing some important methodological questions in relation to case studies of the multilevel network governance of employment policy in Britain France and Denmark

Problems and Perspectives Wendy Ayres-Bennett, Janice Carruthers, Rosalind Temple, 2014-02-25 Problems and Perspectives Studies in the Modern French Language looks at a number of interesting or problematic areas in the phonology morphology syntax and lexis of the French language and encourages the reader to think critically about different ways of approaching describing and explaining these issues or data The book is divided into two parts the first section is a preliminary to and contextualises the discussion of the more specialised topics of the second part Part two presents problematic and controversial areas in the description and analysis of the contemporary language Where appropriate historical and sociolinguistic issues are also integrated into the discussion of modern French Aimed primarily at advanced students and researchers in French linguistics the introductory sections of part one also make this book accessible to undergraduates beginning their study of French linguistics and to less specialised readers

Cartographies of Knowledge Celine-Marie Pascale, 2010-11-04 Interpretative Qualitative Research Agency Subjectivity and Experience frames the concerns and processes of standard analytic induction ethnomethodology and symbolic interaction in terms of cutting edge issues for contemporary qualitative research It is the first book to demonstrate how interpretive paradigms for qualitative data analysis produce research findings that are rooted to significantly different understandings of personal agency and social structures subjectivity and identity and the nature of human experience Specifically the book explores the analytical process interpretative power and political effects of these three styles of interpretative research The result is a rich pedagogical resource that explores not only how data is interpreted but also the kinds of problems solutions and questions that can be investigated

Arab Regionalism Silvia Ferabolli, 2014-09-25 Arab regionalism details and examines the power relations involved in the making of an Arab region On an empirical level this book concentrates on the drawing of topographic and ideational boundaries in the Arab region on Arab regional organizations on the functional cooperation among Arab states and institutions and on the socio cultural infrastructure that supports the Arab region making process with a strong focus on post 1990 dynamics On a theoretical level this work makes a case for the analytical autonomy of Arab regionalism as opposed to regionalism in the Middle East or in the Mediterranean and for the necessity of approaching it as an actual process instead of a failed project The attitude of debasement and erasure towards Arab regionalism that is common place in the field of regional studies is replaced in this book for the acknowledgment that there is much more political coordination economic cooperation and social integration in the Arab region than has previously been assumed Providing a fresh perspective on Arab regionalism this book will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers with an interest in Regionalism Middle Eastern Politics and International Relations
