French Humanism:

French Humanism, 1470-1600 Werner L. Gundersheimer, 1969 Heidegger and French Philosophy Tom Rockmore, 2002-09-11 Martin Heidegger's impact on contemporary thought is important and controversial. However, in France, the influence of this German philosopher is such that contemporary French thought cannot be properly understood without reference to Heidegger and his extraordinary influence. Tom Rockmore examines the reception of Heidegger's thought in France. He argues that in the period after the Second World War, due to the peculiar nature of the humanist French philosophical tradition, Heidegger became the master thinker of French philosophy. Perhaps most importantly, he contends that this reception, first as philosophical anthropology and later as postmetaphysical humanism, is systematically mistaken. The Dawn of the French Renaissance Arthur Augustus Tilley, 1918 An Introduction to 16th-century French Literature and Thought Neil Kenny, 2014-02-25 The age of Shakespeare, Cervantes, Erasmus, Luther, and Machiavelli produced in France too some of Europe's greatest ever literature and thought. Montaigne's Essays, Rabelais' comic fictions, Ronsard's poetry, Calvin's theology. These and numerous other extraordinary writings emerged from and contributed to cultural upheavals, the movement usually known as the Renaissance, which sought to revive ancient Greek and Roman culture for present-day purposes, religious reform, including the previously unthinkable rejection of Catholicism by many in the Reformation, culminating in decades of civil war in France. The French language's transformation into an instrument for advanced abstract thought. This book introduces this vibrant literature and thought via an apparent paradox. Most writers were profoundly concerned to improve life in the here and now, socially, politically, morally, spiritually. Yet they often tried to do so by making detours in their writing to other times and places: antiquity, heaven, and hell, the hidden recesses of Nature, the cosmos, or the future, the remote location of an absent loved one, the newly discovered Americas. The point was to show readers that the only way to live in the here and now was to connect it to larger realities: cosmic, spiritual, and historical. The Documentary Impulse in French Literature, 2021-12-28 The French Renaissance in England Sir Sidney Lee, 1910 French Humanism Werner L. Gundersheimer, 1982-06-01 A New History of French Literature Denis Hollier, 1998-08-19 This splendid introduction to French literature from 842 A.D. to the present decade is the most imaginative single volume guide to the French literary tradition available in English. Studies in the French Renaissance Arthur Augustus Tilley, 1922 Great Christian Jurists in French History Olivier Descamps, Rafael Domingo, 2019-05-16 French legal culture from the Middle Ages to the present day has had an impressive influence on legal norms and institutions that have emerged in Europe and the Americas as well as in Asian and African countries. This volume examines the lives of twenty-seven key legal thinkers in French history with a focus on how their Christian faith and ideals were a factor in framing the evolution of French jurisprudence. Professors Olivier Descamps and Rafael Domingo bring together this diverse group of distinguished legal scholars and historians to provide a unique comparative study of law and religion that will be of value to scholars lawyers and students The collaboration among French and non French scholars and the diversity of international and methodological perspectives gives this volume its own unique character and value to add to this fascinating series 33 French Mocktime Publication,101-01-01 generated by python docx

Twenty Years of French Literary Criticism Freeman G. Henry,1994 A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V2 16th C , The Cambridge Modern History ,1911 The Cambridge Modern History Sir Adolphus William Ward,1907

Contesting the Renaissance William Caferro,2010-08-24 In this book William Caferro asks if the Renaissance was really a period of progress reason the emergence of the individual and the beginning of modernity An influential investigation into the nature of the European Renaissance Summarizes scholarly debates about the nature of the Renaissance Engages with specific controversies concerning gender identity economics the emergence of the modern state and reason and faith Takes a balanced approach to the many different problems and perspectives that characterize Renaissance studies The French Writers' War, 1940-1953 Gisèle Sapiro,2014-04-23 The French Writers War 1940 1953 is a remarkably thorough account of French writers and literary institutions from the beginning of the German Occupation through France s passage of amnesty laws in the early 1950s To understand how the Occupation affected French literary production as a whole Gis le Sapiro uses Pierre Bourdieu s notion of the literary field Sapiro surveyed the career trajectories and literary and political positions of 185 writers She found that writers stances in relation to the Vichy regime are best explained in terms of institutional and structural factors rather than ideology Examining four major French literary institutions from the conservative French Academy to the Comit national des crivains a group formed in 1941 to resist the Occupation she chronicles the institutions histories before turning to the ways that they influenced writers political positions Sapiro shows how significant institutions and individuals within France s literary field exacerbated their loss of independence or found ways of resisting during the war and Occupation as well as how they were perceived after Liberation THE LITERATURE

OF THE FRENCH RENAISSANCE ARTHUR TILLEY, M.A.,1904 The Literature of the French Renaissance Arthur Augustus Tilley,1885 From Francophonie to World Literature in French Thérèse Migraïne-George,2013-12-01 In 2007 the French newspaper Le Monde published a manifesto titled Toward a World Literature in French signed by forty four writers many from France s former colonies Proclaiming that the francophone label encompassed people who had little in common besides the fact that they all spoke French the manifesto s proponents the so called francophone writers themselves sought to energize a battle cry against the discriminatory effects and prescriptive claims of francophonie In one of the first books to study the movement away from the term francophone to world literature in French Th r se Migraïne George engages a literary analysis of contemporary works in exploring the tensions and theoretical debates surrounding world literature in French She focuses on works by a diverse group of contemporary French speaking writers who straddle continents Nina Bouraoui H l ne Cixous Maryse Cond Marie NDiaye Tierno Mon nembo and Lyonel Trouillot What these writers have in common beyond their use of French is their resistance to the centralizing power of a language their rejection of exclusive definitions and their claim for creative autonomy
