

The background of the slide is a vibrant photograph of a coastal town. On the left, a white building with a prominent bell tower and a golden dome sits on a hill. Below it, a sandy beach is crowded with people and colorful umbrellas. The sea is a deep blue, and mountains are visible in the distance under a clear sky. A large circular graphic with the French flag's colors (blue, white, and red) is positioned behind the title.

A Companion to Medieval Poetry Corinne Saunders, 2010-04-12

MEDIEVAL POETRY In a series of original essays from leading literary scholars this Companion offers a chronological sweep of medieval poetry from Old English to the great genres of romance narrative and alliterative poetry of the 15th century. Beginning in the Anglo-Saxon period the volume explores the Old English language and its alliterative tradition before moving on to examine the genres of heroic devotional wisdom and epic poetry culminating in a discussion of arguably the founding text of the English literary canon the great epic Beowulf. In part two the Companion moves on to discuss the linguistic and social changes brought about as a result of the Norman Conquest exploring how this influenced the development of literary genres. Essays probe the shifts and continuities in genres such as lyric chronicle and dream vision and the emergence of new genres such as popular and courtly romance and drama. A particular focus is the continuation of the alliterative tradition from the Anglo-Saxon period to the fifteenth century. A series of chapters on major authors including Chaucer Gower and Langland provide fresh approaches to reading and studying key texts such as The Canterbury Tales Piers Plowman and Sir Gawain and the Green Knight. Finally the collection examines cultural change at the close of the medieval period and the variety of literature produced in the long fifteenth century including writing by and for women Scots poetry clerical and courtly works and secular and sacred drama.

French Lyrics, in English Verse William Frederic Giese, 1946 Chaucer and the Poems of "Ch" in University of Pennsylvania MS French 15 James I. Wimsatt, 1982 Translation of fifteen lyrics marked Ch found in University of Pennsylvania MS French 15 along with a detailed inventory of the contents and a study of English and Chaucerian connections. When Chaucer began his service in the English courts in the late 1350s the French lyric in the formes fixes of ballade rondeau virelay and chant royal was the poetry of the court. Chaucer no doubt composed such poetry. Among extant anthologies of lyrics in the fixed forms from that time University of Pennsylvania MS French 15 comprising 310 poems of which about half are anonymous seems the most likely to contain works written by Chaucer. To add to the likelihood fifteen of the best anonymous poems ten ballades four chants royaux and a rondeau have the intriguing initials Ch entered just beneath the rubrics. Besides editions and translations of the fifteen lyrics Chaucer and the Poems of Ch provides a record of the numerous filiations of the Pennsylvania MS collection with Chaucer.

and England This record includes text of a fascinating exchange of poems between Chaucer's early contemporaries Philippe de Vitry and Jean de la Motte the text of Granson's Cinq Balades Ensievens in the closest version extant to Chaucer's Complaint of Venus and an analysis of the contents of the MS as they relate to Chaucer Chaucer and the Poems of Ch concludes with a detailed inventory of this little studied MS with particular note of Chaucerian aspects of it Catalogue of the Public Library of the City of Taunton, Mass Taunton (Mass.).
