Schools and National Identities in French-speaking Africa Linda Gardelle, Camille Jacob, 2020-11-25 Schools and National Identities in French speaking Africa showcases cutting edge research to provide a renewed understanding of the role of schools in producing and reproducing national identities Using individual case studies and comparative frameworks it presents diverse empirical and theoretical insights from and about a range of African countries The volume demonstrates in particular the usefulness of the curriculum as a lens through which to analyse the production and negotiation of national identities in different settings Chapters discuss the tensions between decolonisation as a moment in time and decolonisation as a lengthy and messy process the interplay between the local national and international priorities of different actors and the nuanced role of historiography and language in nation building At its heart is the need to critically investigate the concept of the nation as a political project how discourses and feelings of belonging are constructed at school and what it means for schools to be simultaneously places of learning tools of socialisation and political battlegrounds By presenting new research on textbooks practitioners and policy in ten different African countries this volume provides insights into the diversity of issues and dynamics surrounding the question of schools and national identities It will be of particular interest to scholars researchers and postgraduate students of comparative and international education sociology history sociolinguistics and African studies

Francophone African Poetry and Drama Richard J. Gray II, 2014-09-23 Scholars examining literature from former French colonies sometimes view it wrongly as simply an outgrowth of colonial literature By suggesting new ways to understand the multiple voices present this book explores how Francophone African poetry and theatre in particular since the 1960s constitute both an organic cultural product and a reflection of the diverse African cultures in which they originate Themes explored in five chapters include the many kinds of African identity formation the resistance to former notions of literary composition as art a remapping of social responsibility and the impact of globalization on Francophone Africa s participation in world economics politics and culture

This study highlights the inner workings of Francophone African literature and suggests a canonization of modern Francophone works from a world perspective

Politics in Francophone Africa Victor T. Le Vine, 2004 Explores the elements that have shaped the particular political dynamics of the 14 former French colonies in west and equatorial Africa while allowing them to remain part of a unique francophone sociopolitical community

African Urban Spaces in Historical Perspective Steven J. African Literature as Political Philosophy Mary Stella Chika Okolo,2008-02-29 The politics of development in Africa have always been central concerns of the continent s literature Yet ideas about the best way to achieve this development and even what development itself should look like have been hotly contested African Literature as Political Philosophy looks in particular at Achebe s Anthills of the Savannah and Petals of Blood by Ngugi wa Thiong o but situates these within the broader context of developments in African literature over the past half century discussing writers from Ayi Kwei Armah to Wole Soyinka M S C Okolo provides a thorough analysis of the authors differing approaches and how these emerge from the literature She shows the roots of Achebe s reformism and Ngugi s insistence on revolution and how these positions take shape in their work Okolo argues that these authors have been profoundly affected by the political situation of Africa but have also helped to create a new African political philosophy
