French Drawings From The 15th Century Th:

15th-18th Century French Drawings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Jacob Bean, 1986 French Visual Culture and the Making of Medieval Theater Laura Weigert, 2015-12-30 This book revives what was unique strange and exciting about the variety of performances that took place in the realms of the French kings and Burgundian dukes Laura Weigert brings together a wealth of visual artifacts and practices to explore this tradition of late medieval performance located not in theaters but in churches courts and city streets and squares By stressing the theatricality rather than the realism of fifteenth century visual culture and the spectacular rather than the devotional nature of its effects she offers a new way of thinking about late medieval representation and spectatorship She shows how images that ostensibly document medieval performance instead revise its characteristic features to conform to a playgoing experience that was associated with classical antiquity This retrospective vision of the late medieval performance tradition contributed to its demise in sixteenth century France and promoted assumptions about medieval theater that continue to inform the contemporary disciplines of art and theater history Fifteenth- to Eighteenth-century European Drawings Egbert Haverkamp Begemann (Kunsthistoriker), Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1999 Early European art was a consuming interest of both Robert Lehman and his father Philip Lehman an interest reflected in the remarkable number and quality of drawings they owned from the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries In addition to an important group of early German drawings the collection includes a Saint Paul from a series associated with Jan van Eyck and the famous Scupstoel from the circle of Rogier van der Weyden the only design for a decorative sculpture to survive from the fifteenth century The great artists of the seventeenth century Peter Paul Rubens Jacob Jordaens Claude Lorrain and Rembrandt among them are also represented Rembrandt by seven drawings including the large study of Leonardo's Last Supper that would stay in his mind all through his career Drawings by Antoine Watteau Jean Honor Fragonard Gabriel de Saint Aubin Thomas Gainsborough Paul Sandby and George Romney are among the many from eighteenth century France and England The volume discusses all 153 drawings at length placing each in its art historical setting and complementing the discussion with comparative illustrations of related works This e book on the MetPublications website is also accompanied by links to related works and under the Additional resourcestab are links to Met works of art and Heilbrunn Timeline of Art History essays and timelines viewed May 1 2014 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 1991 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress.
