How to Learn French in Canada Victor E Graham, 1965-12-15 It is well known that even after several years exposure to high school French most English Canadians remain unable to speak the language It is equally well known that many French Canadians are bilingual One of the more obvious explanations for this relative deficiency on the part of the English Canadian is his lack of opportunities to use the French language in day to day situations and conversely the French Canadian s need to know the second language too often perhaps for economic reasons Professor Graham s book gives useful and practical suggestions on how to go about becoming fluent in French It offers not a course of instruction but a listing of practical ways of applying oneself to a study of the language There is specific up to date information and advice regarding services provided by the governments of Quebec and France courses offered in various Canadian communities clubs and societies correspondence courses universities and summer schools and language laboratories A feature which will be especially helpful for those in remote areas is the listing of publications books newspapers and periodicals music and songs records films and radio and television programmes which provide instruction in French The reader will quickly see that the available means are much more varied than he realizes and it is in providing this concise convenient enumeration of them that Professor Graham performs a great service Any adult who is reasonably proficient in French but wishes to improve will find this a practical and useful guide to ways of making a personal contribution to bilingualism in Canada This study has been prepared under the sponsorship of the Canadian Association for Adult Education Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series ,1954 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
