The Book of the Indians of North America Samuel G. Drake, 1833 The Book of the Indians of North America Samuel Gardner Drake, 1835 The Harvard Book William Bentinck-Smith, 1982 If Harvard can be said to have a literature all its own then few universities can equal it in scope Here lies the reason for this anthology a collection of what Harvard men teachers students graduates have written about Harvard in the more than three centuries of its history The emphasis is upon entertainment upon readability and the selections have been arranged to show something of the many variations of Harvard life For all Harvard men and that part of the general public which is interested in American college life here is a rich treasury In such a Harvard collection one may expect to find the giants of Harvard s last 75 years Eliot Lowell and Conant attempting a definition of what Harvard means But there are many other familiar names Henry Dunster Oliver Wendell Holmes James Russell Lowell Henry Adams Charles M Flandrau William and Henry James Owen Wister Thomas Wolfe John P Marquaud Here is Mistress Eaton s confession about the bad fish served to the wretched students of Harvard s early years here too is President Holyoke s account of the burning of Harvard Hall a student s description of his trip to Portsmouth with that aged and Johnsonian character Tutor Henry Flynt Cleveland Amory s retelling of the murder of Dr George Parkman Mayor Quincy s story of what happened in Cambridge when Andrew Jackson came to get an honorary degree Alistair Cooke s commentary on the great Harvard Yale cricket match of 1951 There are many sorts of Harvard men in this book popular fellows like Hammersmith snobs like Bertie and Billy the sensitive and the lonely like Edwin Arlington Robinson and Thomas Wolfe and independent thinkers like John Reed Teachers and pupils scholars and sports heroes and rogues pass across the Harvard stage through the struggles and the tragedies to the moments of triumph like the Bicentennial or the visit of Winston Churchill And speaking of visits there are the visitors too the first impressions of Harvard set down by an assortment of travelers as various as Dickens Trollope Rupert Brooke Harriet Martineau and Francisco de Miranda the precursor of Latin American independence For the Harvard addict this volume is indispensable For the general reader it is the sort of book that goes with a good living room fire or the blissful moments of early to bed The London Chronicle, 1759 Francophone Literature After the Postcolonial Age Farid Laroussi, 2024-12-15 Francophone Literature After the Postcolonial Age argues that Francophone literature extends beyond the postcolonial critical landmarks that helped define the field since the late 1980s Today Francophone literature maps out different paths that highlight its emancipation from both the Francophonie s cultural ascendancy and postcolonial theory s scholarly hegemony Farid Laroussi s argument is that three main forces have reshaped the French postcolonial in the twenty first century digital globalization intertextuality and ecocriticism With digital globalization Francophone literature finds new voices unfettered from former aesthetic print and distribution diktats Home and the exilic paradigm are redefined in the postcolonial subject s own terms Intertextuality reconnects with poetic dialogism sans the mimicry burden The intertextuality challenge showcases a new writers community across time and cultures The old anxiety around one s own poetic voice now provides valid responses to literary reconfigurations The book s study cases operate around three specific pairings Segalen Glissant Kafka Maghreb literature and Morrison Miano Lastly ecocriticism along the decolonial discourse comes to discuss the place of the postcolonial home as well as the responsibility category The author contends that the attention to the land cannot be separated from imaginaries collective and individual Francophone writers stand at the crossroads of activism and poetics moving further away from French metropolitan preoccupations
