The Intellectual Education of the Italian Renaissance Artist Angela Dressen,2021-09-02

Scholars have traditionally viewed the Italian Renaissance artist as a gifted but poorly educated craftsman whose complex and demanding works were created with the assistance of a more educated advisor These assumptions are in part based on research that has focused primarily on the artist's social rank and workshop training In this volume Angela Dressen explores the range of educational opportunities that were available to the Italian Renaissance artist Considering artistic formation within the history of education Dressen focuses on the training of highly skilled average artists revealing a general level of learning that was much more substantial than has been assumed She emphasizes the role of mediators who had a particular interest in augmenting artists' knowledge and highlights how artists used Latin and vernacular texts to gain additional knowledge that they avidly sought Dressen's volume brings new insights into a topic at the intersection of early modern intellectual, educational and art history Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,1998 LIFE

Spalliera Paintings of Renaissance Tuscany Anne B. Barriault,1994 Spalliera Paintings of Renaissance Tuscany defines and characterizes cycles of panel paintings that decorated patrician residences in Tuscany It takes a fresh approach to the paintings placing them not only in the context of Renaissance art but also in the context of the society for which they were made It contributes to our understanding of the formal conventions of the pictures as narrative paintings designed to be seen in specific spaces within bedchambers and studies their function integrated with the woodwork and furniture of those spaces and their social role often commissioned in honor of weddings to reinforce values of patrimony civic mindedness and familial duty Spalliera painting flourished between 1470 and 1520 with artists such as Botticelli Ghirlandaio Piero di Cosimo Pontormo and Andrea del Sarto translating the histories poems and tales of Livy Ovid Petrarch and Boccaccio among others into colorful didactic sequences that demonstrate ancient and exemplary standards of conduct An analysis of the typologies of the heroes and heroines in these paintings and the meanings that their stories may have had for the patrons who commissioned them also sheds light on social mores expectations and issues of gender in the patrician society of Renaissance Tuscany The Development of the Italian Schools of Painting Raimond van Marle,1923 Animal Fables after
