These deceptively simple stories uncover both the complexity and irony of women's lives in Bhutan today They show how ordinary lives choices and experiences are both remarkable and poignant In I am a Small Person a despised woman uses her femininity as a means to control a man the young girl in I Won't ask Mother suddenly feels empowered and confident when she makes a decision without consulting her mother All the stories take place in rural settings to which creeping urbanisation brings gradual change and tensions surface between the new and the old or the traditional and the modern For many rural women being able to connect to the city and all its perceived power and glamour is a very real aspiration This yearning is exemplified in Look at her Belly Button where a young woman effortlessly slips out of the role of a farmer to become a real Bhutanese urbanite Published by Zubaan

The magic skin, The quest of the absolute, and others stories Honoré de Balzac, 1901 A Provincial Newspaper and Other Stories Miriam Karpilove, 2023-09-15

When the young narrator of Miriam Karpilove's A Provincial Newspaper leaves New York to work for a new Yiddish newspaper in Massachusetts she expects to be treated with respect as a professional writer Instead she finds herself underpaid and overworked In this slapstick novella Karpilove's narrator lampoons the gaggle of blundering publishers and editors who put her through the ringer and spit her back out again Along with A Provincial Newspaper this captivating collection includes nineteen stories originally published in Forverts in the 1930s during Karpilove's time as a staff writer at that newspaper. In the stories we find a large cast of characters: an older woman navigating widowhood, a writer rebuffed by dismissive audiences, American-born Jewish girls unable to communicate with Yiddish-speaking immigrants, and a painter who overcomes with jealousy about his muse's potential lover that he misses his opportunity with her, each portrayed with both sympathy and irony in ways unexpected and delightful. Also included are Karpilove's recollections of her arrival in Palestine in 1926, chronicled with the same buoyant cynicism and witty repartee that is beloved by readers of her fiction. The Publishers Weekly, 1894. Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30. Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century. Some emerged after World War II, yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980. The first reference of its kind, this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography, a discussion of major works and themes, a survey of the writer's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. Writers include Frank Chin, Sui Sin Far, Shirely Geok-lin Lim, Toshio Mori, and Bharati Mukherjee. An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story, and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading.

On the Rez and Other Stories Barbara Wyatt Olson, 2015-08-21. Fifteen stories of quiet longing and desire, of second chances and no chance at all. In On the Rez, when you're broken down and abandoned in Indian territory on the dusty back roads of Kansas, there are certain to be monsters and fiends. In Ask for Anything, a family escaped into the Blue Ridge Mountains learns you do not always get what you think you want. In Florida Blues, a former lover on a prison visit must face regret, heartache, and frustration. While in California Quarter, a lady friend has not agreed to starving on the trip home.

The Dead Camel and Others Stories of Love Parvati Sharma, 2012-06-25. In which an uncast ballot precipitates social embarrassment and recalls a past love, a young housewife finds her kitchen plagued by unabashed canoodling in the flat next door, an aspiring novelist tries to forget near-manslaughter, a schoolgirl discovers the travails of depilation, and in a locked room, two medieval noblewomen recount the amorous avowals of a young soldier. There's also the small matter of a dead camel lying unattended on the streets of Delhi. These twelve stories explore the unsaid, the unfinished, and the misunderstood, the shocks and nuances of love and sexuality, responsibility and ambition, and our tentative attempts to peel away the layers of stories that make up our lives. Beautifully precise writing. These stories capture people with such exactitude that you know they must come from a serious student of life. But this is one of those serious books at which you never stop laughing for Parvati Sharma's sense of the world is lively, generous, and wickedly original. Rana Dasgupta, author of Solo.
