Freshwater A Comedy:

Freshwater Virginia Woolf, 1985 Virginia Woolf's only play a hilarious farce taken from the life of her great aunt Julia Margaret Cameron the famous Victorian photographer It was first performed at Vanessa Bell's London studio in 1935 as one of Bloomsbury's theatrical evenings and later in New York in a star-studded French production Edited and with a Preface by Lucio P. Ruotolo drawings by Edward Gorey Freshwater a Comedy by Virginia Woolf Angelica Garnett, 1986

FRESHWATER Virginia Woolf, 2023-12-24 Virginia Woolf's Freshwater is a pioneering one-act play that intricately explores themes of gender identity and the fluidity of artistic creation Composed in 1935 the play is a semi-autobiographical reflection on Woolf's connection to the influential Bloomsbury Group combining elements of humor with a poignant critique of societal constraints on women's creativity The work exemplifies Woolf's distinctive literary style characterized by experimental prose and psychological depth effectively blurring the lines between reality and theatricality as it interrogates the role of the artist in a patriarchal society Woolf born into a prominent intellectual family experienced firsthand the limitations placed on women in her time which profoundly influenced her literary output The encouragement from her literary circle alongside her own experiences inspired Woolf to create complex female characters that challenge traditional narratives Freshwater serves as both homage and critique of notable figures and artistic conventions demonstrating her belief in the necessity of female voices and perspectives in the literary canon I wholeheartedly recommend Freshwater to those interested in feminist literature as well as anyone invested in the exploration of identity and creativity Woolf's wit and insight make this play not only a remarkable artistic endeavor but also a thought-provoking examination of the societal forces that shape artistic expression Freshwater: a comedy by Virginia Woolf (1923 & 1935 Version) Virginia

Empires, and Ephemeral Exhibition Spaces Dominique Bauer, Camilla Murgia, 2025-10-01 This book explores ephemeral exhibition spaces between 1750 and 1918 The chapters focus on two related spaces the domestic interior and its imagery and exhibitions and museums that display both national imperial identity and the otherness that lurks beyond a country's borders What is revealed is that the same tension operates in these private and public realms namely that between identification and self projection on the one hand and alienation otherness and objectification on the other In uncovering this the authors show that the self the citizen society and the other are realities that are constantly being asserted defined and objectified This takes place they demonstrate in a ceaseless dynamic of projection versus alienation and intimacy versus distancing

Modernism and the Materiality of Texts Eyal Amiran, 2016-07-27 Modernism and the Materiality of Texts argues that elements of modernist texts that are meaningless in themselves are motivated by their authors' psychic crises Physical features of texts that interest modernist writers such as sound patterns and anagrams cannot be dissociated from abstraction or made a refuge from social crisis instead they reflect colonial and racial anxieties of the period Rudyard Kipling's fear that he is indistinguishable from empire subjects J M Barrie's object relations theater of infantile separation and Virginia Woolf's dismembered anagram self are performed by the physical text and produce a new understanding of textuality In readings that also include diverse works by Gertrude Stein and Alice Toklas P G Wodehouse and Conan Doyle J M Barrie George Herriman and Sigmund Freud this study produces a new reading of modernism's psychological text and of literary constructions of materiality in the period

Shaw Gale K. Larson, 2001

SHAW 21 offers readers an eclectic perspective on Shaw his works and his contemporaries Basil Langton actor and director reminisces about his early development as an actor his meeting with Shaw and his career as director of many of Shaw's plays He focuses upon Shaw's stagecraft augmenting his views with those of Sybil Thorndike and Sir Lewis Casson whom he interviewed in 1960 Galen Goodwin Longstreth analyzes the correspondence between Shaw and Ellen Terry and argues that the exchange is itself a literary genre a dramatic performance that reveals their personal identities The next two contributors Stanley Weintraub and Andrea Adolph examine the Shaw Virginia Woolf relationship Weintraub focuses on those occasions when their respective lives touched each other what their feelings for each other were and how those occasions were obliquely woven into Shaw s plays most notably Heartbreak House Professor Adolph argues that in Woolf s only dramatic text Freshwater A Comedy she was conforming to the traditional theatrical mode of the day dominated of course by Shaw but that she subverted his traditional literary depiction of paternity as for example the paternity dramatized in Major Barbara Sidney Albert and Bernard Dukore provide unique perspectives on reading Major Barbara Albert shows how John Bunyan s The Pilgrim s Progress serves as Shaw s source for Barbara s progress toward enlightened understanding Dukore focusing on the perspective of the familial relationship within the play concludes that Shaw s dialectic gives the kids the future and not the dad It will be the next generation not Father Undershaft who will determine where society will go next Julie Sparks and Martin Bucco approach Shaw from a comparative basis juxtaposing him with two American writers contemporaries of Shaw Mark Twain and Sinclair Lewis respectively Sparks explores the commonality that exists in Shaw s and Twain s thinking about evolution namely their heretical visions of a post Darwinian Eden Both viewed conventional Christianity iconoclastically but both arrived at different conclusions about human origin and destiny a view Sparks describes as emanating from the deist pessimist evolutionary determinist perspective versus the mystic optimistic creative evolutionist perspective or the Personal Godhead versus the Impersonal Force Professor Bucco enumerates the many references Sinclair Lewis makes to Bernard Shaw throughout his writings both prose and fiction to underscore the American novelist s admiration for the Irish playwright both recipients of the Nobel Prize for Literature The final two contributors to SHAW 21 Rodelle Weintraub and William Doan provide the readers with distinctive perspectives on John Bull s Other Island and The Doctor s Dilemma respectively Weintraub recasts the play into a dream sequence whereby Doyle s dream becomes an artifice for problem solving Implied within Father Keegan s lines in the play Every dream is a prophecy every jest is an earnest in the womb of Time is the resolution of Doyle s problem with Nora the girl he had left behind and of the dream of modernizing Roscullen Doan suggests that in The Doctor s Dilemma Shaw uses the idea of unconsummated adultery to argue for the efficacy of art over science In the conflict between the artist and the scientist the latter plans to have the artist s muse In the end not only is he deprived of the wife but also of the works of art themselves and the spirit that animates them SHAW 21 also includes three reviews of recent additions to Shavian scholarship as well as John R Pfeiffer s Continuing Checklist of Shaviana

Freedman, 2024-06-28 The renaissance of Virginia Woolf reflects a reassessment not only of Woolf as a writer but also of our social and political life as a whole It points up differences between English and American readers between older and younger critics between men and women Particularly striking in the revaluation is a tendency to approach Woolf as a soliloquist a person rather than as a detached and formal artist In this collection Ralph Freedman has brought together some of Woolf s most interesting commentators whose varied concerns traditional and modern demonstrate the vitality and scope of Woolf criticism Virginia Woolf Revaluation and Continuity contains essays by Ralph Freedman Harvena Richter James Hafley Avrom Fleishman F P W McDowell Jane Marcus Lucio Ruotolo Maria DiBattista Jean O Love Madeline Moore James Naremore and B H Fussell This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1980      A Virginia Woolf Chronology Edward Bishop,1988-12-13 An attempt to draw together the important details of Woolf s working life in a single volume allowing the reader to trace her development as novelist feminist and literary journalist against the background of the age      The Bloomsbury Group Memoir Club S.
