Freud On Women A Reader:

Freud on Women Sigmund Freud, 2002 This collection contains Freud's most significant statements on women taken from letters as well as published work presenting a clear accessible view of the progress of his thought and his own struggle for understanding and coherence Elisabeth Young Bruehl untangles the arguments relating Freud's ideas on women and on bisexuality to his clinical practice and broader theory while the annotated bibliography traces the later disputes REUD ON GIRLS They go through an early age in which they envy their brothers their signs of masculinity and feel at a disadvantage and humiliated because of the lack of it REUD ON WOMEN At one time in a matriarchal society the woman may have been the dominant partner In this way like the defeated deities she acquires demonic properties ND ON HIMSELF My mother was nowhere to be found I was crying in despair My brother Philip unlocked a wardrobe for me and when I did not find my mother within it either I cried even more until slender and beautiful she came through the door What can this mean

Freud on Women Sigmund Freud, 1990 Ever since Freud first unveiled his theories of female psychology arguments have raged from his contemporaries denial of infantile sexuality to the feminist attacks of today This reader contains Freud's central statements on women from letters as well as published work It presents an accessible view of the development of his thought The introduction and linking commentaries lay out the arguments and relate his ideas to his clinical practice and broader theory There is also an annotated biography Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi-layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors The Gender and Psychology Reader Blythe Clinchy, Julie K Norem, 1998-04 In The Gender and Psychology Reader Blythe McVicker Clinchy and Julie K Norem have culled through a diverse group of readings to provide a wide ranging exploration of both progress made and problems encountered as psychologists grapple with gender The volume includes both classic and contemporary readings drawn from all branches of psychology social developmental personality cognitive history physiological biological as well as from other disciplines including sociology philosophy and anthropology The essays cover a gamut of subjects including epistemological issues the study of difference the embodiment of gender autonomy and connection in relationships and clinical implications A concluding chapter by the editors considers themes that can be traced through the different sections gaps in current perspectives and future directions The Gender and Psychology Reader includes contributions from an array of distinguished scholars from varying methodological and disciplinary backgrounds Among the contributors are Laurel Furumoto Jeanne Marecek Laura S Brown Anne Fausto Sterling Sandra Lipsitz Bem Michelle Fine Joseph H Pleck J G Morawski Daniel A Hart Barrie Thorne and Aida Hurtado Organized for easy use as either a primary or supplementary text for upper level undergraduate and graduate courses in psychology The Gender and Psychology Reader will also serve as the essential reference for those in clinical practice interested in gender issues     Jeanne Hyvrard, Wounded Witness Helen Vassallo, 2007 Critical responses to Jeanne Hyvrard have generally categorised her as a writer of critique of feminine and or autobiography due to salient features of her oeuvre such as the use of first person narrative a cyclic writing style and the quest for a female language Within these broader considerations however a recurrent motif throughout Hyvrard's writing is that of the body specifically the female body represented as suffering from different forms of physical mental illness and emotional social malaise It is this primordial aspect of Hyvrard's work on which surprisingly little critical analysis has been written that this monograph explores It has been demonstrated that Hyvrard's works can be studied as a unity as well as individually given that all of her texts form part of her wider theory While this theory is often referred to in abstract terms as pens e ronde pens e globale or pens e femme this study shows that it can be more specifically highlighted as a theory of disease i.e. the intertwining of physical malady and social malaise medical terms and metaphor and particularly as a social theory of the diseased female body     Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies Timothy Murphy, 2013-10-18 The Reader's Guide to Lesbian and Gay Studies surveys the field in some 470 entries on individuals Adrienne Rich arts and cultural studies Dance ethics religion and philosophical issues Monastic Traditions historical figures periods and ideas Germany between the World Wars language literature and communication British Drama law and politics Child Custody medicine and biological sciences Health and Illness and psychology social sciences and education Kinsey Report

Feminisms Robyn R. Warhol, Diane Price Herndl, 1997 In the landmark 1991 edition of Feminisms Robyn Warhol and Diane Price Herndl assembled the most comprehensive collection of American and British feminist literary criticism ever to be published In this revised edition the editors have updated the volume in keeping with the expanded parameters of feminist literary discourse With the inclusion of more than two dozen new essays along with a major reorganization of the sections in which they appear Warhol and Price Herndl have again established the measure for representing the latest developments in the field of feminist literary theory Believing that the feminist movement can only move forward where difference commands attention not dismissal or negativism they have continued the original collection's mission of providing a multiplicity of perspectives and approaches This anthology contains three new sections Conflict Gaze and Practice and includes more selections by and about women of color and lesbians Aimed at academics and the general public alike this collection is an indispensable guide to the range of practice on campus today in the field of feminist literary criticism     Reader's Guide to the History of Science Arne Hessenbruch, 2013-12-16 The Reader's Guide to the History of Science looks at the literature of science in some 550 entries on individuals Einstein institutions and disciplines Mathematics general themes Romantic Science and central concepts Paradigm and Fact The history of science is construed widely to include the history of medicine and technology as is reflected in the range of disciplines from which the international team of 200 contributors are drawn

Feminisms Redux Diane Price Herndl, 2009      Ideas, obsessions, intertexts Yvonne Studer, 2000      The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader Helen Cousins, 2016-03-03 In January 2004 daytime television presenters Richard Madeley and Judy Finnigan launched their book club and sparked debate about the way people in Britain from the general reader to publishers to the literati thought about books and reading The Richard Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book literature scholars and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books Beginning with an analysis of the book club's history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide including Oprah's the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society literature and its marketing and popular culture Contributors ask how readers discuss books judge value and make choices The collection addresses questions of authorship authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre including the postcolonial exotic disability and representations of the body food books and domesticity In addition book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview      Moving Beyond Words Gloria Steinem, 1995-02 The Masculinization of Wealth shows us the ways class works in reverse for women in families of inherited wealth because the closer we are to power the more passive we have to be kept It reshapes our understanding of class and exposes the other end of the feminization of poverty      Encyclopedia of Criminological Theory Francis T. Cullen, Pamela Wilcox, 2009-12-15 This two volume set is designed to serve as a reference source for anyone interested in the roots of contemporary criminological theory Drawing together a team of international scholars it examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them presenting them in a context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses The work provides essays on cutting edge research as well as concise to the point definitions of key concepts ideas schools and figures Topics include contexts and concepts in criminological theory the social construction of crime policy implications of theory diversity and intercultural contexts conflict theory rational choice theories conservative criminology feminist theory and more Key Themes The Classical School of Criminology The Positivist School of Criminology Early American Theories of Crime Biological and Biosocial Theories of Crime Psychological Theories of Crime The Chicago School of Criminology Cultural and Learning Theories of Crime Anomie and Strain Theories of Crime and Deviance Control Theories of Crime Labeling and Interactionist Theories of Crime Theories of the Criminal Sanction Conflict Radical and Critical Theories of Crime Feminist and Gender Specific Theories of Crime Choice and Opportunity Theories of Crime Macro Level Community Theories of Crime Life Course and Developmental Theories of Crime Integrated Theories of Crime Theories of White Collar and Corporate Crime Contemporary Gang Theories Theories of Prison Behavior and Insurgency Theories of Fear and Concern About Crime

Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women's Literature Geneva Cobb Moore, 2017-03-31 An in depth examination of Black women's experiences as portrayed in literature throughout American history Geneva Cobb Moore deftly combines literature history criticism and theory in Maternal Metaphors of Power in African American Women's Literature by offering insight into the historical black experience from slavery to freedom as depicted in the literature of nine female writers across several centuries Moore traces black women writers creation of feminine and maternal metaphors of power in literature from the colonial era work of Phillis Wheatley to the postmodern efforts of Paule Marshall Alice Walker and Toni Morrison Through their characters Moore shows how these writers re created the identity of black women and challenge existing rules shaping their subordinate status and behavior Drawing on feminist psychoanalytic and other social science theory Moore examines the maternal iconography and counter hegemonic narratives by which these writers responded to oppressive conventions of race gender and authority Moore grounds her account in studies of Wheatley Harriet Jacobs Charlotte Forten Grimké Jessie Fauset Nella Larsen and Zora Neale Hurston All these authors she contends wrote against invisibility and powerlessness by developing and cultivating a personal voice and an individual story of vulnerability nurturing capacity and agency that confounded prevailing notions of race and gender and called into question moral reform In these nine writers construction of feminine images real and symbolic Moore finds a shared sense of the historically significant role of black women in the liberation struggle during slavery the Jim Crow period and beyond A foreword is offered by Andrew Billingsley a pioneering sociologist and a leading scholar in African American studies

Black Professional Women in Recent American Fiction Carmen Rose Marshall, 2015-01-24 The last three decades of the 20th century have marked the triumph of many black professional women against great odds in the workplace Despite their success few novels celebrate their accomplishments Black middle class professional women want to see themselves realistically portrayed by protagonists who work to achieve significant productivity and visibility in their careers desire stability in their personal lives aspire to accrue wealth and live elegantly though not consumptively The author contends that most recent American realistic fiction fails to represent black professional women protagonists performing their work effectively in the workplace Identifying the extent to which contemporary novels satisfy the readerly desires of black middle class women readers this book investigates why the readership wants the texts as well as what they prefer in the books they buy It also examines the technical and cultural factors that contribute to the lack of books with self empowered black professional female protagonists and considers The Salt Eaters by Toni Cade Bambara and Waiting to Exhale by Terry McMillan two novels that function as significant markers in the development of contemporary black women writers texts
