The Unconscious without Freud Rosemarie Sponner Sand, 2013-12-18 During the first ten years of his career in psychological medicine Sigmund Freud espoused a theory of unconsciousness which predated his own As Rosemarie Sand describes in The Unconscious without Freud he would evolve this theory over the course of his career and eventually apply it to his own psychological practice Once Freud's hypothesis of unconscious mental functioning was published the same professionals who had valued the traditional concept turned against what they considered to be a catastrophic logically indefensible revision The scientific investigation of unconscious influences was retarded for decades as a war zone opened between implacable opponents and intransigent defenders of the Freudian concept of unconscious mind

In the din of this battle the traditional theory free of the features which Freud's foes could not accept was forgotten Sand argues that a return to this original theory which psychotherapists and experimenters might both espouse could contribute to a cessation of hostilities and lead to the peaceful development of a theory of the unconscious one that is free from the stigma that is currently attached to Freudian theory

The Enigma of the Oceanic Feeling William B. Parsons, 1999-06-17 This study examines the history of the psychoanalytic theory of mysticism starting with the seminal correspondence between Freud and Romain Rolland concerning the concept of oceanic feeling Providing a corrective to current views which frame psychoanalysis as pathologizing mysticism Parsons reveals the existence of three models entertained by Freud and Rolland the classical reductive ego adaptive and transformational which allows for a transcendent dimension to mysticism Then reconstructing Rolland's personal mysticism the oceanic feeling through texts and letters unavailable to Freud Parsons argues that Freud misinterpreted the oceanic feeling In offering a fresh interpretation of Rolland's mysticism Parsons constructs a new dialogical approach for psychoanalytic theory of mysticism which integrates culture studies developmental perspectives and the deep epistemological and transcendent claims of the mystics

The Lives of Lucian Freud: The Restless Years William

Feaver, 2019-10-29 The first biography of the epic life of one of the most important enigmatic and private artists of the 20th century Drawn from almost 40 years of conversations with the artist letters and papers it is a major work written by a well known British art critic Lucian Freud 1922 2011 is one of the most influential figurative painters of the 20th century His paintings are in every major museum and many private collections here and abroad William Feaver's daily calls from 1973 until Freud died in 2011 as well as interviews with family and friends were crucial sources for this book Freud had ferocious energy worked day and night but his circle was broad including not just other well known artists but writers bluebloods royals in England and Europe drag queens fashion models gamblers bookies and gangsters like the Kray twins Fierce rebellious charismatic extremely guarded about his life he was witty mischievous and a womanizer This brilliantly researched book begins with the Freuds life in Berlin the rise of Hitler and the family's escape to London in 1933 when Lucian was 10 Sigmund Freud was his grandfather and Ernst his father was an architect In London in his twenties his first solo show was in 1944 at the Lefevre Gallery Around this time Stephen Spender introduced him to Virginia Woolf at night he was taking Pauline Tennant to the Gargoyle Club owned by her father and frequented by Dylan Thomas he was also meeting Sonia Orwell Cecil Beaton Auden Patrick Leigh Fermor and the Aly Khan and his muse was a married femme fatale 13 years older Lorna Wishart But it was Francis Bacon who would become his most important influence and the painters Frank Auerbach and David Hockney close friends This is an extremely intimate lively and rich portrait of the artist full of gossip and stories recounted by Freud to Feaver about people encounters and work Freud's art was his life my work is purely autobiographical and he usually painted only family friends lovers children though there were exceptions like the famous small portrait of the Queen With his later portraits the subjects were often nude names were never given and sittings could take up to 16 months each session lasting five hours but subjects were rarely bored as Freud was a great raconteur and mimic This book is a major achievement a tour de force that reveals the details of the life and innermost thoughts of the greatest portrait painter of our time Volume I has 41 black and white integrated images and 2 eight page color inserts Downcast Eyes Martin Jay, 1993 Long considered the noblest of the senses vision has increasingly come under critical scrutiny by a wide range of thinkers who question its dominance in Western culture These critics of vision especially prominent in twentieth century France have challenged its allegedly superior capacity to provide access to the world They have also criticized its supposed complicity with political and social oppression through the promulgation of spectacle and surveillance Martin Jay turns to this discourse surrounding vision and explores its often contradictory implications in the work of such influential figures as Jean Paul Sartre Maurice Merleau Ponty Michel Foucault Jacques Lacan Louis Althusser Guy Debord Luce Irigaray Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida Jay begins with a discussion of the theory of vision from Plato to Descartes then considers its role in the French Enlightenment before turning to its status in the culture of modernity From consideration of French Impressionism to analysis of Georges Bataille and the Surrealists Roland Barthes's writings on photography and the film theory of Christian

Metz Jay provides lucid and fair minded accounts of thinkers and ideas widely known for their difficulty His book examines the myriad links between the interrogation of vision and the pervasive antihumanist antimodernist and counter enlightenment tenor of much recent French thought Refusing however to defend the dominant visual order he calls instead for a plurality of scopic regimes Certain to generate controversy and discussion throughout the humanities and social sciences Downcast Eyes will consolidate Jay s reputation as one of today s premier cultural and intellectual historians

Bibliography of the History of Medicine , Love and the Novel Christina Lupton,2022-06-02 It is a clever well written book and I often found myself underlining whole paragraphs as I read wonderfully insightful I ve never read accounts of any of these texts that manage to be at once so searching and so wondrously concise and Lupton made me want to go back to them all Rachel Cooke Observer Incandescent Lara Feigel Guardian A subversive brilliant and beautifully written book about love play and power in fiction and in the well read life Sarah Moss author of Summerwater A delicious combination of critical thought and passionate personal experience Tanya Shadrack author of The Cure for Sleep Romantic love was born alongside the novel and books have been shaping how we experience and think about our most intimate stories ever since But what do novels give us when our own lives diverge from the usual narrative paths Christina is a professor used to examining stories with a critical eye until one day in middle age she finds herself falling in love and leaving her marriage for a romance with another woman This involves a familiar enough tale but when her new partner suffers a stroke Tina begins to reflect on the sorts of love that novels rarely capture A heady mix of memoir criticism and storytelling that draws on novels ranging from Pride and Prejudice to Price of Salt Anna Karenina to Conversations with Friends to illuminate the ways love and novels work and show how some types of love which don t race to a narrative end point might be the most important of all

Freud/Tiffany Elizabeth Danto,Alexandra Steiner-Strauss,2018-12-12 With over 100 archival photographs and nine original wide ranging essays Freud Tiffany brings to life the fascinating intersection of psychoanalysis and education Out of the cultural and political ferment of inter war Vienna emerged the Hietzing School founded in the 1920s by Anna Freud the youngest daughter of Sigmund Freud and Dorothy Tiffany Burlingham the youngest daughter of the great American artist Louis Comfort Tiffany Anna Freud s story unfolds over three decades from her adolescence through the 1940s as she and Dorothy Tiffany Burlingham leverage their hands on research with children into educational innovations at the Hietzing School and beyond The Viennese psychoanalysts of the 1920s demonstrated a unique sensitivity to marginalised populations and to the impact of war its threats and its aftermath especially on the lives of children The book features never before seen historical photographs including four of Sigmund Freud as well as unpublished archival material and original paintings Drawings manuscripts and memoirs make vivid the founders vision of the Hietzing School s origins its day to day experience and its enduring significance for our understanding of education and the developing mind Marking the first publication of many of the historic materials originally showcased in 2017 at a major Freud Museum London exhibition the international scholarship behind Freud Tiffany demonstrates that the Hietzing School remains the seedbed for a surprising range of modern theory and practice in child and adolescent mental health from Erik Erikson's lifespan model of identity to the legal concept of the best interests of the child The Freud and Tiffany legacies are now brought together as never before in this lively book and the Hietzing School is restored to its rightful place in the history of so many ideas with which we are still working today The book is essential for any reader interested in the cultural legacy of interwar Vienna

Western Rationality and the Angel of Dreams Murray Lionel Wax, 1999 Throughout recorded time people have been fascinated by dreams and their meanings Tribal societies valorize knowledge obtained from dreams and respect possession as a channel for revelation In contrast implicit in Western intellectual thought is an image of the human as a non social atom with a unitary and rational mind which turns dreaming into an epiphenomenon or for Freud a neurosis in miniature Integrating materials from anthropology post Freudian psychoanalysis social evolution and the social psychology of Mead Cooley James and Sullivan this book offers a view of the self and the psyche that provides meaning to the views of traditional peoples on dreams possession and the loss of self
