Educating for Sustainability in a Small Island Nation

Jane Spiteri,2023-01-19 This volume problematizes the intentions of early childhood education for sustainability ECEfS from two new perspectives the context of small island states and the bi directional intergenerational learning about the environment and sustainability that takes place in a variety of contexts including the family home and school It questions how belonging to a small island and the children s home influence learning in the early years of life In doing so this book offers new insights and new theoretical perspectives into intergenerational environmental learning in the school family and beyond Informed by consideration of the most recent literature in early childhood education and sustainability this volume also looks at how these informal learning spaces provide young children with the opportunities to enhance further learning in the field thus portraying the fluidity of intergenerational learning from different theoretical standpoints It provides a deep insight into ECEfS and intergenerational learning about the environment and environmental issues in early childhood education from a perspective of a small island state by adopting a children s rights perspective It additionally explores the relationship between early childhood theories children s rights and postcolonial theory

Achieving Sustainable E-Government in Pacific Island States

Rowena Cullen,Graham Hassall,2017-02-17 This book analyzes the common set of obstacles to the development and integration of government Information and Communication Technology ICT projects and effective e government initiatives in developing countries It draws on the expertise and experience of more developed states in the Pacific notably Australia and New Zealand both highly rated in global rankings for e government and active in a variety of e government development projects across the region There has been a general failure to identify priorities and align projects with local needs in ICT e government projects Small Island Developing States or SIDS present a unique problem in terms of e government Not only do they suffer from a common set of barriers to ICT development such as their remoteness geographical dispersion moist tropical climates largely rural populations and lack of ICT capacity and infrastructure but are also dependent on external agencies for investment and must negotiate with powerful donors who have conflicting agendas E government is widely regarded as transformational increasing efficiency productivity accountability economic growth and citizen involvement But while the governments of SIDS are committed to harnessing ICTs for effective government and economic development they face major challenges in establishing successful e government initiatives due to the problems outlined above coupled with a lack of HR capacities and appropriate strategies and policies Drawing on the experience of the states mentioned above as well as regional quasi governmental bodies nongovernmental organizations NGOs aid agencies and the private sector the book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of e government public administration political science communication information science and social media

Encyclopedia of Education: Race-State James W. Guthrie, 2003      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sustainability in Higher Education Wendy M. Purcell, Janet Haddock-Fraser, 2023-01-12 This Handbook illustrates that universities per se and higher education in general are essential to catalyze and action the transformative change needed for sustainability and delivery of the Sustainable Development Goals Part One shows how sustainability can be adopted as a driver of change within higher education institutions HEIs as they react and respond to influencing factors outside the academy Part Two examines how a university working with and for sustainability can influence effect and amplify change beyond the institution working with and through others International contributors explore regional national and international perspectives presenting a variety of critically assessed accounts case studies that reflect different local and national contexts institutional archetypes and academic missions Frameworks of sustainability led transformation are illustrated at the level of the institution executive administrative organization culture place based anchor and student in various countries including Aruba Belgium Brazil Canada Hong Kong Japan Lebanon Nepal New Zealand Nigeria South Africa Spain Uganda United Kingdom and the United States of America The book concludes with a manifesto for change and a call to action It identifies that the sustainability journey of a HEI is influenced by context and place with mission leadership and strategy playing a vital role and change agency by students a key ingredient Recognizing the patience and resolve to effect change communication dialogue and inclusion were central to community building and partnership      Climate Change and Tradition in a Small Island State Peter Rudiak-Gould,2013-07-18 The citizens of the Marshall Islands have been told that climate change will doom their country and they have seen confirmatory omens in the land air and sea This book investigates how grassroots Marshallese society has interpreted and responded to this threat as intimated by local observation science communication and Biblical exegesis With grounds to dismiss or ignore the threat Marshall Islanders have instead embraced it with reasons to forswear guilt and responsibility they have instead adopted in group blame and having been instructed that resettlement is necessary they have vowed instead to retain the homeland These dominant local responses can be understood as arising from a pre existing vigorous constellation of Marshallese ideas termed modernity the trickster a historically inspired narrative of self inflicted cultural decline and seduction by Euro American modernity This study illuminates islander agency at the intersection of the local and the global and suggests a theory of risk perception based on ideological commitment to narratives of historical progress and decline      Reorienting Educational Efforts for Sustainable Development Rajeswari Namagiri Gorana,Preeti Rawat Kanaujia,2016-07-01 Education in South Asia has a renewed agenda which can enable societies to leapfrog development that is sustainable such that the individual is prepared for his her involvement responsibility and commitment to local and global discussions of our common future This book on South Asia will focus on initiatives under the Education for Sustainable Development ESD umbrella and discuss the challenges opportunities issues and strategies in the countries of the region It presents these initiatives of Environmental Education ESD vis vis the administrative economic social cultural and ecological realities of each country at various levels of policy planning implementation and evaluation The discussions in this book extend beyond formal education systems like schools higher education pre service and in service teacher preparation to community education and education initiatives conceptualized with the goal of sustainability All initiatives will demonstrate how each country in its own pace contributing to move ESD from the periphery to the core of education initiatives      Commonwealth Education Beth Kreling,Peter R.C. Williams,2022-12-29 Education once regarded as a key pillar of Commonwealth activity is increasingly inconspicuous on Commonwealth agendas Written to mark the sixtieth anniversary of the first Commonwealth Education Conference in 1959 the chapters in this volume reflect on the past present and future of Commonwealth educational cooperation This book reviews some of the principal dimensions of education development in Commonwealth member states and the challenges they face including girls education student exchange the use of technology education challenges in small states and efforts to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals in and through education Across all its contributions this book examines the case for education being a continued priority area for Commonwealth collective engagement and considers where and how the Commonwealth might direct future efforts in education at a time of constrained resources This book is an insightful resource for scholars and researchers involved in Commonwealth studies and will be of particular interest to political scientists economists and educators This book originally appeared as a special issue of The Round Table The Commonwealth Journal of International Affairs      Unesco List of Documents and Publications Unesco,1993      Schooling for Sustainable Development in Africa Heila Lotz-Sisitka,Overson Shumba,Justin Lupele,Di Wilmot,2016-11-11 This book considers the scope and dynamics of Education for Sustainable Development ESD and learning in schools in Africa It explores the conditions and processes that support such learning and examines how ESD in schooling can improve the quality and relevance of education The quality of education has been defined internationally as a key concern for educational institutions around the world including schools in Africa The models of quality are often limited to performance based approaches and or inclusive approaches The contributions in this book show that there is more to a discussion on educational quality in Africa than performance success and or inclusion The chapters explain how ESD brings a new relevance to education in Africa and at the same time sounds the beginning of a new concept of quality education The volume presents a collection of experiences in creating and supporting quality learning processes through a variety of ESD practices
