Jung, 2014-12-18 First published in 1989 As a young man growing up near Basel Jung was fascinated and disturbed by tales of Nietzsche's brilliance, eccentricity and eventual decline into permanent psychosis These volumes the transcript of a previously unpublished private seminar reveal the fruits of his initial curiosity Nietzsche's works which he read as a student at the University of Basel had moved him profoundly and had a life-long influence on his thought During the sessions the mature Jung spoke informally to members of his inner circle about a thinker whose works had not only overwhelmed him with the depth of their understanding of human nature but also provided the philosophical sources of many of his own psychological and metapsychological ideas Above all he demonstrated how the remarkable book Thus Spoke Zarathustra illustrates both Nietzsche's genius and his neurotic and prepsychotic tendencies Since there was at that time no thought of the seminar notes being published Jung felt free to joke to lash out at people and events that irritated or angered him and to comment unreservedly on political, economic and other public concerns of the time This seminar and others including the one recorded in Dream Analysis were given in English in Zurich during the 1920s and 1930s The Sunday-school World, 1885

Journal, 1898 An Order Outside Time Robert B. Clarke, 2005-06-15 The line of Western Spirituality began in Egypt and continued through the time of Christ Has it become stalled in the years since Robert Clarke says yes it has In The Four Gold Keys Clarke going by his own spiritualization in the psychic depths argued that the way out of Western civilization's essential atheism lies in the psychological teachings of Swiss psychologist Carl Jung In An Order Outside Time Clarke reinterprets Western Spirituality using Jungian symbolism to show that the great stories of ancient Egypt and of the Old and New Testament are processes of what Jung called individuation This is the individual's journey from lowest to highest Self from Osiris to Horus from Moses to Joshua from David to Solomon from John the Baptist to Jesus Christ These pairings also reflect what Joseph Campbell calls the Hero's Journey which may ultimately spiritualize the whole culture Clarke traces the connections between Egyptian Jewish and Christian mythology and concluding that the West's spiritual lineage has become stalled maintains that we can attain wholeness only by making sense of the clues provided by our mythology This is the royal line of Higher Self incarnations through the collective unconscious The ultimate example of individuation Clarke says is the Christ who must now be further understood and developed And taking Christ as our symbol of the Self direct experience of the sacred by each of us can enable us to achieve our greatest spiritual potential both as individuals and as a whole culture An Order Outside Time shows how that spiritual journey began and how it must be continued
