The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction Liam Harte, 2020-10-15 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction presents authoritative essays by thirty five leading scholars of Irish fiction They provide in depth assessments of the breadth and achievement of novelists and short story writers whose collective contribution to the evolution and modification of these unique art forms has been far out of proportion to Ireland's small size The volume brings a variety of critical perspectives to bear on the development of modern Irish fiction situating authors texts and genres in their social intellectual and literary historical contexts The Handbook's coverage encompasses an expansive range of topics including the recalcitrant atavisms of Irish Gothic fiction nineteenth century Irish women's fiction and its influence on emergent modernism and cultural nationalism the diverse modes of irony fabulism and social realism that characterize the fiction of the Irish Literary Revival the fearless aesthetic radicalism of James Joyce the jolting narratological experiments of Samuel Beckett Flann O'Brien and Mairéad Ní Cadhain the fate of the realist and modernist traditions in the work of Elizabeth Bowen Frank O'Connor Seán O Faoláin and Mary Lavin and in that of their ambivalent heirs Edna O'Brien John McGahern and John Banville the subversive treatment of sexuality and gender in Northern Irish women's fiction written during and after the Troubles the often neglected genres of Irish crime fiction science fiction and fiction for children the many hued novelistic responses to the experiences of famine revolution and emigration and the variety and vibrancy of post millennial fiction from both parts of Ireland Readably written and employing a wealth of original research The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Fiction illuminates a distinguished literary tradition that has altered the shape of world literature

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries

The Novel's

Seductions Karyna Szmurlo, 1999 The distinctive place of Stael's novel in literature and its disseminative powers are documented in Part III Genie at Large From Corilla Olimpica to Marguerite Yourcenar the critics depict affiliations among female writers striving for public recognition and explore the ideological textual borrowings among Corinne and other classic works The Book of Esther and the Typology of Female Transfiguration in American Literature Ariel Clark Silver, 2017-11-30 The enduring search for female salvation in American literature is first expressed through typology an interpretive framework that pairs type with antitype historical scriptural promise with future spiritual fulfillment When Cotton Mather invokes the typos of Esther in Ornaments of the Daughters of Zion a Puritan conduct book he offers a female type of divine wisdom authority and force In the biblical Book of Esther Esther acts as a female type of wisdom and redemption but her story also engages the larger history of Hebrew salvation In nineteenth century America Margaret Fuller seeks to extend the spiritual claims once made by Mather and establish the role of the divine female in the salvation of American culture and society Fuller supplants the type of male sacrifice with a type of female transfiguration in works such as Woman in the Nineteenth Century Nathaniel Hawthorne then transforms these iconoclastic ideals into literary life by engaging the multi faceted figure of Esther as a typos of female redemption and salvation in Legends of the Province House The Scarlet Letter The Blithedale Romance and The Marble Faun Through his female characters Esther Dudley Hester Prynne Zenobia and Miriam he seeks to fulfill the divine destiny of the American woman Hawthorne discovers however that female redemption is followed by revenge as Esther turns from saving her people to ensuring an end to their oppression When Henry Adams later revives Esther Dudley in his novel Esther he rejects male redemption for the American woman In Democracy Esther Mont Saint Michel and The Education of Henry Adams Adams envisions an independent eternal woman who can rival the political scientific artistic and theological power of men The movement from male to female salvation is achieved when the terms of female redemption are transformed and the American woman is established as her own source of divine wisdom power retribution and force The typology of female transfiguration in America is fulfilled by Fuller Hawthorne and Adams through the promise extended by the type of Esther The Routledge Companion to Biofiction Lucia Boldrini, Laura Cernat, Alexandre Gefen, Michael Lackey, 2025-03-31 The Routledge Companion to Biofiction provides readers with the history origins and evolution of this popular genre Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field this authoritative collection foregrounds analyses of biofiction's core foundations through contemporary debates The volume is organized into seven sections Histories of biofiction Theoretical reflections on biofiction Biofiction national models and transnational constructions Biofiction as political intervention Biofictional case studies Activating lives early modern women and Authorial reflections This groundbreaking collection features works that refine our understanding of the genesis and evolution of biofiction theorize its unique and distinctive modes of signifying reflect on its value for the future and social justice chart new approaches for doing biofictional analysis and offer insights from authors of biofiction into the creative process This is the first collection to bring together the two main schools of interpreting biofiction the Francophone and Anglophone while also shedding light on biofictions in many languages from or about many continents and offering a platform to established and new voices alike It will be essential reading for students as well as advanced scholars interested in biographical fiction

J.M. Coetzee and the Novel Patrick Hayes, 2010-08-12 Anti illusionism is I suspect only a marking of time a phase of recuperation in the history of the novel The question is what next J M Coetzee Patrick Hayes argues that the significance of Coetzee's fiction lies in the acuity with which it both explores and develops the tradition of the novel ranging from Cervantes Defoe and Richardson to Dostoevsky Kafka and Beckett as part of a sustained attempt to rethink the relationship between writing and politics For Coetzee questions about the future of the novel are closely related to what it means to write after Beckett and J M Coetzee and the Novel examines the ways in which his fiction discerningly assimilates the techniques of literary modernism to engage with some of the most troubling aspects of late twentieth century cultural and political life While Coetzee is rightly known as an intensely serious writer Hayes shows that the true seriousness of his writing is intimately bound up with comedy or to use the word Coetzee borrows from Joyce the jocoserious Opening up a range of new approaches to this major contemporary author J M Coetzee and the Novel argues that it is only by paying especially close attention to the experience of reading Coetzee's finely nuanced prose that his distinctive impact on longstanding questions about identity community and the nature of political modernity can be appreciated
