Ella Moon A Novel Based On The Life Of Ella Wheeler Wilcox:

Ella Moon Ed Ifkovic, 2001-03 She was one of the Victorian world's most popular poets Her life was a tapestry of color and melodrama an epic of rags to riches This fictionalized account chronicles both the glittering heights of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's life and the nagging fears that accompanied her vast and cherished success A Girl Holding Lilacs Ed

Ifkovic, 2002-10 A Girl Holding Lilacs tells the story of the young daughter of a struggling immigrant family from Croatia living on a small farm in Connecticut during the bleak Depression bound 1930s The family is isolated not only from its cherished Old Country roots but also from the large vibrant Croatian colonies of the Midwest As Anna moves from her six years into adolescence she chronicles with increasing fright and confusion the effects of America on the world she knows She watches her parents change before the harsh new life and she watches as her beloved brother Joey the American born happy go lucky boy who wants so much from life slowly drown in a world of despair and decay Originally published in 1980 as Anna Marinkovich this edition has been rewritten in keeping with the author's original intentions Diana's Dogs Ed

Ifkovic, 2007-10 The Guinness Book of World Records calls her the best selling female singer in history Billboard named her the Celebrity of the Century Diana Ross lead singer of the most popular girl group of the 1960s and later a consummate solo artist has been in the public eye for over four decades From 1964 when Where Did Our Love Go rose to number one on the pop charts to the present day she has been the ultimate diva an artist worshiped by fanatical fans yet pilloried in the press for her temper tantrums and untoward demands Ed Ifkovic delivers his own spin on this international celebrity an idiosyncratic collection of short pieces that create a portrait of the mercurial star From a Detroit housing project to a Connecticut mansion who is this woman who exacts such loyalty from her fans and such vitriol from her detractors There are pieces on Diana's tantrums true but also jottings on the homes she's lived in the food she eats the cars she drives even her role as muse for writers There is a collection of poetic similes commentators have employed to describe her as well as a mind boggling catalogue of garish tabloid headlines This off beat book admittedly an obsessive fan's unembarrassed send up equal parts delight and censure is a spirited yet sardonic tale that also explores the integration of black music into the white mainstream Frankly Diana led that noble charge What the author delights in is the unorthodox observation and gossipy tidbit that accompanied that revolution The Life and Work of Writer Annie Trumbull Slosson Edward Ifkovic, 2004 Annie

Trumbull Slosson 1832-1926 was an important short story writer who epitomized the American local color movement that flourished after the Civil War and ended at the beginning of the twentieth century Along with writers like Sarah Orne Jewett Mary Wilkins Freeman and Elizabeth Stuart Phelps she helped establish the popular and critical model of the short story in which location and idiosyncratic characterization identified a particular region of the United States In New England women dominated the genre for the isolated farms and desolate villages were often places where women and old men lived the young men had died in the war or had gone west in search of gold Slosson's first work The China Hunter's Club 1878 helped establish the viability of local dialect building on the tradition established by Harriet Beecher Stowe and Catherine Sedgwick. But in her two most important volumes Seven Dreamers 1890 and Dumb Foxglove and Other Stories 1898 she reached full maturity with stories that developed the mystical psychological ramifications of her characters mostly older women who abandoned the old style Congregational Calvinist puritanism of their forebears and
