Elsas Housebook A Womans Photojournal:

Elsa's Housebook Elsa Dorfman, 1974 The photobook world Paul Ernest Michael Edwards, 2023-02-28 This volume sets out to challenge and ultimately broaden the category of the photobook It critiques the popular art market definition of the photobook as simply a photographer's book proposing instead to show how books and photos come together as collective cultural productions Focusing on North American British and French photobooks from 1920 to the present the chapters revisit canonical works by Claudia Andujar and George Love Mohamed Bourouissa Walker Evans Susan Meiselas and Roland Penrose while also delving into institutional digital and unrealised projects illegal practices DIY communities and the poetic impulse They throw new light on the way that gendered racial or colonial assumptions are resisted Taken as a whole the volume provides a better understanding of how the meaning of a photobook is collectively produced both inside and outside the art market American Women Photographers Martha Kreisel, 1999-02-28 American women have made significant contributions to the field of photography for well over a century This bibliography compiles more than 1 070 sources for over 600 photographers from the 1880s to the present As women's role in society changed so did their role as photographers In the early years women often served as photographic assistants in their husbands studios The photography equipment initially heavy and difficult to transport was improved in the 1880s by George Eastman's innovations With the lighter camera equipment photography became accessible to everyone Women photographers became journalists and portraitists who documented vanishing cultures and ways of life Many of these important female photographers recorded life in the growing Northwest and the streets of New York City became pioneers of historic photography as they captured the plight of Americans fleeing the Dust Bowl and the horrors of the concentration camps and were members of the Photo Secessionist Movement to promote photography as a true art form This source serves as a checklist for not only the famous but also the less familiar women photographers who deserve attention Sex in the archives Barry Reay, 2018-12-10 The archive has assumed a new significance in the history of sex and this book visits a series of such archives including the Kinsey Institute's erotic art gay masturbatory journals in the New York Public Library the private archive of an amateur pornographer and one man's lifetime photographic dossier on Baltimore hustlers Shedding new light on American sexual history the topics covered are both fascinating and wide ranging the art history of homoeroticism casual sex before hooking up transgender New York queer sex masturbation pornography sex in the city This book will appeal to a wide readership those interested in American studies sexuality studies contemporary history the history of sex psychology anthropology sociology gender studies queer studies trans studies pornography studies visual studies museum studies and media studies The Feminist Art Journal, 1977 History of Photography Laurent Roosens, Luc Salu, 1989-01-01 The fourth volume in a history of photography this is a bibliography of books on the subject Experimental Life Writing Today Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drag, 2025-10-02 This comprehensive volume offers compelling critical essays surveying the myriad forms of innovation in contemporary Anglophone life writing Experimental Life Writing Today provides a historical and critical context for examining avant garde tendencies in biography and autobiography and outlines the poetics of experimental life writing The volume is divided into two parts The first is devoted to a selection of experimental genres of life writing autofiction biofiction paramemoir autotheory graphic memoir photo memoir eco memoir and the lyric essay Part Two includes chapters concerned with the following themes concepts and devices set in the context of experimental life writing illness disability mourning relationality place catalogue narration and fragmentation To ensure clarity and consistency each chapter follows the same structure a theoretical discussion of a given notion comprising a brief discussion of its various aspects and examples followed by a close reading of a chosen text Case studies are devoted to significant contemporary works by authors such as Hazel V Carby J M Coetzee Anne Garr ta Karen Green Vona Groarke Han Kang Mary Karr Deborah Levy Hilary Mantel Maggie Nelson Ruth Ozeki Mark Tredinnick Una D J Waldie and Wim Wenders The volume is dedicated to exploring innovative forms of and in contemporary Anglophone life writing and it makes an important contribution to a rich and burgeoning field of interdisciplinary practice and research First Person Female American Carolyn H. Rhodes, Mary Louise Briscoe, Ernest L. Rhodes, 1980 Women Photographers Peter E. Palmquist, Women in Photography International Archive, 1997

Engaging Art Roslyn Bernstein, 2020-05-14 This book explores the tangled texture of the art world a curious and mysterious space In 60 essays drawn from around the globe it reveals new dimensions about how artists make their art resist censorship and retain an independent creative spirit The essays ask and answer several crucial questions How do artists in Europe the United States Asia the Middle East and Latin and South America find space to live and work How do artists follow their talent to make and exhibit original art in a politicized world where artistic freedom is often limited How do smaller artistic venues survive the economic pressures and competition in the art market Focusing on under the radar subjects the reports interviews and essays illuminate the pain and pleasures of artistic production and the challenges faced by artists curators and gallerists American Witness RJ Smith, 2017-11-07 From the author of the acclaimed James Brown biography The One comes the first in depth biography of renowned photographer and filmmaker Robert Frank best known for his landmark book The Americans As well known as Robert Frank the photographer is few can say they really know Robert Frank the man Born and raised in wartime Switzerland Frank discovered the power and allure of photography at an early age and quickly learned that the art meant significantly more to him than the money success or fame The art was all and he intended to spend a lifetime pursuing it American Witness is the first comprehensive look at the life of a man who s as mysterious and evasive as he is prolific and gifted Leaving his rigid Switzerland for the more fluid United States in 1947 Frank found himself at the red hot social center of bohemian New York in the 50s and 60s becoming friends with everyone from Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg and Peter Orlovsky to photographer Walker Evans actor Zero Mostel painter Willem de Kooning filmmaker Jonas Mekas Bob Dylan writer Rudy Wurlitzer jazz musicians Ornette Coleman and Charles Mingus and more Frank roamed the country with his young family taking roughly 27 000 photographs and collecting 83 of them into what is still his most famous work The Americans. His was an America nobody had seen before and if it was harshly criticized upon publication for its portrait of a divided country the collection gradually grew to be recognized as a transformative American vision. And then he turned his back on certain success giving up photography to reinvent himself as a film and video maker. Frank helped found the American independent cinema of the 1960s and made a legendary film with the Rolling Stones. Today the nonagenarian is an embodiment of restless creativity and a symbol of what it costs to remain original in America. His life defined by never repeating himself never being satisfied American Witness is a portrait of a singular artist and the country that he saw.

The Incorporative Consciousness of Robert Bly Victoria Frenkel Harris, 1992 Victoria Frenkel Harris traces the aesthetic journey of poet Robert Bly from his early structured works of mystical imagery and lyrical landscapes to his recent explorations of intimate relationships and male socialization. Examining the various ways Bly's prose poems articulate his opposition to the Vietnam War and his recent writings manipulate more formal patterns in detailing the intricacies of human relationships Harris labels this evolution in form subject and imagery the incorporative consciousness incorporative because it assimilates Jungian psychological categories international poetic traditions and a compelling breadth of topics. Harris relies in part on contemporary feminist theory to throw revealing new light on Bly's recent works. Though sympathetic to Bly Harris finds that in spite of his affirmation of the interaction of psychic creative and intellectual energies in both sexes the poet's later erotic poems tend to objectify women in counterproductive ways. Bly's idealization of woman as a Jungian universal Harris contends can blind him toward actual women. Harris is at her best as she delimits with balance and precision the full complexity of the poet's work.
