Email For Lovers:

A Networked Self and Love Zizi Papacharissi, 2018-06-12 We fall in love every day with others with ideas with ourselves Stories of love excite us and baffle us This volume is about love and the networked self It focuses on how love forms grows or dissolves Chapters address how relationships of love develop are sustained or broken up through technologies of expression and connection Authors explore how technologies reproduce reorganize or reimagine our dominant rituals of love Contributors also address what our experiences with love teach us about ourselves others and the art of living Every love story has a beginning and an end Technology does not give love the kiss of eternity but it can afford love new meaning

ROMANTIC IDEAS FOR LOVE San Santos, 2017-05-30 We all know that sooner or later the routine settles into the life of any couple that is romance and spontaneity need If you are looking for romantic ideas we gather exciting ideas to make the relationship two even more special This book was written with the intention of helping every person man or woman who wants to increase their relationship to increase new romantic ideas in their relationship and spice up their love life I m sure that after reading this book you are full of wonderful ideas And loving to please your partner Invest in your relationship and get out of the rut and create new things that have surprised your love Infidelity on the Internet Marlene M. Maheu, Rona Subotnik, 2001 Discusses the social effects of virtual infidelity on those in committed relationships analyzing how such affairs develop different types of sexual activity on the Internet and how to recover from cyber infidelity Falling in Love with Work Denice Kronau, 2011 Most of us fantasize about what it would be like to walk away from work Denice Kronau did it On the surface Denice had it all a great job as CEO of a 100 million company offices in thirty countries and travel around the world However her great job was killing her because she couldn t keep work in perspective She let it take over her life and was exhausted overworked overweight and endlessly running on a hamster wheel When it became too much she took an unpaid sabbatical and spent months regaining a sense of balance in her life She explored what drove her to work in such a destructive way and discovered many insights about work More importantly she found what made her happy at work In Falling in Love with Work Denice shares many of these key elements such as We re human beings not human doings Don t feed the urgent while starving the important It s perfectly fine to Find out what you don t do well and don t do it to quote Alf the 1980s TV character Be happy now Don t postpone happiness while waiting for a one time event About the Author Denice Kronau is a veteran of corporate life During her thirty year career she has held positions of chief executive officer chief financial officer and chief diversity officer She has worked for notable global companies such as Altria Diageo PLC and Siemens AG Communication of Love Eva L. Wyss, 2014-11-15 By the end of the twentieth century certain new media had established themselves which have profoundly changed communication among lovers SMS and email in particular have created new relational forms and forms of intimacy From declarations of love on talk shows to televised dating games and marriage quiz shows television offers a panoply of wildly popular theatrical communications of love Does the neglecting of traditional communication media such as love letters and the telephone cause the intermingling of intimacy with the public sphere and hence the abrogation of it From the disciplines of sociology history cultural and media studies and linguistics this book offers answers to this question by analyzing and discussing new media from various perspectives Contributions by Eva Illouz Joachim R H flich Friedrich Krotz Helga Kotthoff Karl Lenz Sabine Maasen and others No Greater Love John A. Siegfried, Kevin Ferris, 2022-09-30 The story of Philadelphia s only Medal of Honor recipient from the Vietnam War told here for the first time Michael Crescenzo grew up in one of Philadelphia s booming post war Catholic neighborhoods distinguishing himself early on as a leader brother and friend who fearlessly rose to the defense of others in need The second of six sons born to a World War II veteran Michael was known for his big smile athletic abilities toughness and fierce competitive spirit Growing up Michael s world revolved around his family parish local playgrounds and the bustling Catholic schools he attended from first grade through high school graduation All these influences shaped the man he would become the one who felt a sense of duty to serve his country and enlisted in the U S Army to do his part during the Vietnam War He was in Vietnam barely two months when his unit the 4th Battalion 31st Infantry was sent into battle against deeply entrenched enemy forces on Nui Chom Mountain the fortress in the clouds tucked away in the far northwest corner of South Vietnam near the borders with North Vietnam and Laos Commanders knew they were in for a fight but didn t know the enemy had more than 250 machine gun bunkers deployed along the mountain s slopes On November 20 1968 Alpha Company was ambushed on the wet jungle mountainside the NVA taking down the two men up front and pinning down the rest with relentless fire Thinking first of the danger to those around him Private First Class Michael J Crescenzo picked up an M60 machine gun and charged the enemy bunkers He did not survive but his actions saved the lives of his fellow soldiers and allowed them to advance and ultimately prevail For his valor and sacrifice Michael was posthumously awarded the Medal of Honor No Greater Love tells this story from the perspective of those who loved Michael Crescenzo most close friends family Michael s commanding officer in Vietnam retired Lieutenant General Sam Wetzell and medic William Doc Stafford the soldier closest to Michael when he was cut down by enemy fire and who believes to this day that he survived Nui Chom only because of the selfless actions of Private First Class Crescenzo Love Hard Jason Wren, 2021-03-17 Most of us have a fundamental misunderstanding of love We think it is about us We believe it is about how someone or something makes us feel When something or someone fails to give us the positive feeling we want we move on and look for something else This type of love requires little effort By making it about us and how we feel we miss the many opportunities presented to us every day to have lasting and meaningful impact Truly love is hard It is not a feeling but an action It requires us to be intentional and outwardly focused on others rather than internally focused on our own feelings When we love hard our lives have real meaningful lasting positive impact on the world around us In Love Hard Jason Wren uses stories from his and others lives to show how all of us can learn to love hard and thus have significant and lasting impact 1001 Ways to Be Romantic Gregory
