Emancipating The Female Sex The Struggle For Womens Rights In Brazil 1850 194:

Emancipating the Female Sex June Edith Hahner, 1990 June E Hahner's pioneering work Emancipating the Female Sex offers the first comprehensive history of the struggle for women's rights in Brazil. Based on previously undiscovered primary sources and fifteen years of research, Hahner's study provides long overdue recognition of the place of women in Latin American history. Hahner traces the history of Brazilian women's fight for emancipation from its earliest manifestations in the mid nineteenth century to the successful conclusion of the suffrage campaign in the 1930s. Drawing on interviews with surviving Brazilian suffragists and contemporary feminists as well as manuscripts and printed documents, Hahner explores the strategies and ideological positions of Brazilian feminists. In focusing on urban upper and middle class women from whose ranks the leadership for change arose, she examines the relationship between feminism and social change in Brazil's complex and highly stratified society.

Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies. Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi-layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter. Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors.

Civilizing Rio Teresa A. Meade, 2010-11-01 Conflicts during the Old Republic between Rio de Janeiro's lower orders and their employers, the transit companies and the state about the effects of modernization resulted in many losses but also a few victories for the poor. Such popular protests have been marginalized by a historiography that tends to label them pre-modern and to privilege workplace organization and protest over community protest. Handbook of Latin American Studies v 58
