Emanuel Hahn And Elizabeth Wyn Wood Tradition And Innovation In Canadian Sculpture:

Emanuel Hahn and Elizabeth Wyn Wood Victoria A. Baker, National Gallery of Canada, 1997 Emanuel Hahn et Elizabeth Wyn Wood Victoria A. Baker, Musée des Beaux-Arts du Canada Staff, 1997 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century Joan Murray, 1999-11-01 Canadian Art in the Twentieth Century is a survey of the richest most controversial and perhaps most thoroughly confusing centuries in the whole history of the visual arts in Canada the period from 1900 to the present Murray shows how beginning with Tonalism at the start of the century new directions in art emerged starting with our early Modernists among them Tom Thomson and the Group of Seven Today Modernism has lost its dominance Artists critics and the public alike are confronted by a scene of unprecedented variety and complexity Murray discusses the social and political events of the century in combination with the cultural context movements ideas attitudes and styles the important groups in Canadian art and major and minor artists and their works Fully documented well researched and written with clarity and over four hundred illustrations in both black and white and colour Murray's book is essential for understanding Canadian art of this century As an introduction it is excellent in both its scope and intelligence Public Art in Canada Annie G rin, James S. McLean, 2011-03-18 Arguably public art is experienced daily by more people than most offerings in galleries yet our notion of what constitutes public art is surprisingly limited Public Art in Canada broadens the critical discussion by exploring public art's varied means of engaging with public space and the public sphere Annie G rin and James S McLean have assembled contributions from new and established Canadian scholars curators and artists Each contributor enlivens our understanding of public art as a practice and its place in the social and aesthetic formation of which it is a part As a result the book provides an overview of the current debates in the field of public art that are informed by the theories and critical literature of art history communication studies cultural studies sociology and urban studies The rigorous essays and original works of art collected in this volume present a compelling demonstration of the strategies aesthetic and otherwise used by artists to elicit intellectual sensual or emotional responses that can only be obtained through artistic practices in public places Public Art in Canada is a major contribution to the study of Canadian art and culture

Rethinking Professionalism Kristina Huneault, Janice Anderson, 2012 The first collection of scholarly essays on women and art in Canadian history Bringing Art to Life Andrew Horra, 2009-09-14 In 1959 Alan Jarvis the brilliant and charismatic director of the National Gallery of Canada was forced to resign following a disagreement with the government over the purchase of works by European Old Masters He never fully recovered from this dismissal or the public humiliation that followed succumbing to alcoholism in a little over a decade Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975

Unbuilt Toronto 2 Mark Osbaldeston, 2011-10-03 Discover the scrapyard statue planned for University Avenue the flapper era CN Tower that led to a decade of litigation and an electric light rail transit network proposed in 1915 Winner of the 2012 Heritage Toronto Award of Merit Quill Quire cited Unbuilt Toronto as a book filled with well researched often gripping tales of grand plans while Canadian Architect said that it is an impressively researched exploration of never realized architectural and master planning projects intended for the city Now Unbuilt Toronto 2 provides an all new fascinating return to the Toronto that might have been Discover the scrapyards statue planned for University Avenue the flapper era CN Tower that led to a decade of litigation and an electric light rail transit network proposed in 1915 What would Toronto look like today if it had hosted the Olympics in 1996 or 1976 And what was the downtown expressway that Frederick Gardiner really wanted With over 150 photographs maps and illustrations Unbuilt Toronto 2 tracks the origins and fates of some of the city's most interesting planning transit and architectural what ifs

The Vimy Trap Ian McKay, Jamie Swift, 2017-03-16 The story of the bloody 1917 Battle of Vimy Ridge is according to many of today's tellings a heroic founding moment for Canada This noble birth of a nation narrative is regularly applied to the Great War in general Yet this mythical tale is rather new Vimyism today's official story of glorious martial patriotism contrasts sharply with the complex ways in which veterans artists clerics and even politicians who had supported the war interpreted its meaning over the decades Was the Great War a futile imperial debacle A proud nation building milestone Contending Great War memories have helped to shape how later wars were imagined The Vimy Trap provides a powerful probe of commemoration cultures This subtle fast paced work of public history combining scholarly insight with sharp eyed journalism and based on primary sources and school textbooks battlefield visits and war art explains both how and why peace and war remain contested terrain in ever changing landscapes of Canadian memory

Remembered in Bronze and Stone Alan Livingstone MacLeod, 2016-11-30 Remembered in Bronze and Stone evokes the years immediately following the First World War when grief was still freshly felt in communities from one end of Canada to the other This book tells the story of the nation's war memorials particularly bronze or stone sculptures depicting Canadian soldiers through the artists who conceived them the communities that built them and above all those who died in the war and were immortalized in these stunning sculptures raised in their honour A century has passed since Canadians were scarred by the loss of more than sixty thousand sons and daughters who now lie in faraway battlefield graves Highlighting more than 130 monuments from coast to coast Remembered in Bronze and Stone revives a pivotal period in history that changed Canada forever

Creating Memory John Warkentin, 2010 Toronto has over 600 public outdoor sculptures works of art that provide a sense of the rich variety of life and work in the city its peoples cultures and aspirations Interest in commissioning public sculpture began slowly in the nineteenth and early twentieth century but increased rapidly after the 1950s This is a book about the sculptures and how they disclose the city to itself Creating Memory's two introductory sections examine the factors behind this expansion over time and the changes in style as one generation of sculptors succeeded another It looks at the reasons behind the changes as sculptures were conceived sculpted and erected More than 10 categories of sculptures are defined and discussed including Founding the City Natural Environment Immigration Ethnic Groups Economic Activities Disaster and Calamity War And Conflict Leaders Ordinary Citizens
