Embodying The Monster Encounters With The Vulnerable Self:

Embodying the Monster Margrit Shildrick, 2001-11-01 Written by one of the most distinguished commentators in the field this book asks why we see some bodies as monstrous or vulnerable and examines what this tells us about ideas of bodily normality and bodily perfection Drawing on feminist theories of the body biomedical discourse and historical data Margrit Shildrick argues that the response to the monstrous body has always been ambivalent In trying to organize it out of the discourses of normality we point to the impossibility of realizing a fully developed invulnerable self She calls upon us to rethink the monstrous not as an abnormal category but as a condition of attractiveness and demonstrates how this involves an exploration of relationships between bodies and embodied selves and a revising of the phenomenology of the body Law and the Relational Self Jonathan Herring, 2019-11-21 Describes the concept of the relational self and its potential significance to the law

Disability, Human Rights and the Limits of Humanitarianism Assoc Prof Cathy J Schlund-Vials, Asst Prof Michael Gill, 2014-06-28 Disability studies scholars and activists have long criticized and critiqued so termed charitable approaches to disability where the capitalization of individual disabled bodies to invoke pity are historically socially and politically circumscribed by paternalism Disabled individuals have long advocated for civil and human rights in various locations throughout the globe yet contemporary human rights discourses problematically co opt disabled bodies as evidence of harms done under capitalism war and other forms of conflict while humanitarian non governmental organizations often use disabled bodies to generate resources for their humanitarian projects It is the connection between civil rights and human rights and this concomitant relationship between national and global which foregrounds this groundbreaking book s contention that disability studies productively challenge such human rights paradigms which troublingly eschew disability rights in favor of exclusionary humanitarianism It relocates disability from the margins to the center of academic and activist debates over the vexed relationship between human rights and humanitarianism These considerations thus productively destabilize able bodied assumptions that undergird definitions of personhood in civil rights and human rights by highlighting intersections between disability race gender ethnicity and sexuality as a way to interrogate the possibilities and limitations of human rights as a politicized regime

Retrieving the Crip Outsider Someshwar Sati, 2024-03-30 Why are abnormal figures at the heart of literary canon and what do they tell us about the society that writes and circulates these stories This book studies the constitution of disability and discusses concepts of corporeal difference that are socio historically rooted in the Indian cultural milieu The volume aims at looking at the central issue of the various aspects of disability representation the impact of these representations on the materially embodied experience of disablement the political imperatives shaping the narratives of corporeal difference and the influences of highly particularised local cultural context on the constitution of epistemic and discursive notions of corporeality The volume follows three routes of inquiry How do we find disability in texts or what are disability texts How do we read concepts historically using literary and cultural texts and what would a similar study of the Indian context reveal How do we study culturally distinct ways of narrating bodyminds These questions will be answered through a discussion of representation histories of the abnormal informed by histories of disease conditions and its representations with the aim of developing ways of thinking and talking about concepts of corporeal difference that are socio culturally and socio historically located away from the western context and to explore the intersections between gender caste religion sexuality class and disability

Reflective Writing in Medical Practice Miriam A. Locher,2017-06-05 This book reports the results of a linguistic analysis of reflective written texts produced during medical education or practice It explores the topics and communication skills the authors write about how the narratives develop how these texts are shaped what genres influence their composition how relational work surfaces in them and how the writers linguistically create their identities as experts or novices It is clear that both experienced and trainee medics grapple with the place of emotions in their communicative acts and with the idea of what it means to be a doctor The book makes a valuable contribution to genre analysis interpersonal pragmatics and the study of linguistic identity construction and will be essential reading for those involved in teaching doctor patient communication skills

Monsters and Monstrosity in Jewish History Iris Idelson-Shein,Christian Wiese,2019-02-21 This is the first study of monstrosity in Jewish history from the Middle Ages to modernity Drawing on Jewish history literary studies folklore art history and the history of science it examines both the historical depiction of Jews as monsters and the creative use of monstrous beings in Jewish culture Jews have occupied a liminal position within European society and culture being deeply immersed yet outsiders to it For this reason they were perceived in terms of otherness and were often represented as monstrous beings However at the same time European Jews invoked with tantalizing ubiquity images of magical terrifying and hybrid beings in their texts art and folktales These images were used by Jewish authors and artists to push back against their own identification as monstrous or diabolical and to tackle concerns about religious persecution assimilation and acculturation gender and sexuality science and technology and the rise of antisemitism Bringing together an impressive cast of contributors from around the world this fascinating volume is an invaluable resource for academics postgraduates and advanced undergraduates interested in Jewish studies as well as the history of monsters

Monsters and Monstrosity in Media: Reflections on Vulnerability Yeojin Kim,Shane Carreon,2024-04-16 As monstrous bodies on screen signal a wide range of subversive destabilization of the notions of identity and community this anthology asks what meanings monsters and monstrosity convey in relation to our recent circumstances shaped by neoliberalism and the pandemic that have led to the intensified tightening of border controls by nation states the intensive categorization of un identifiable bodies and subsequent forms of isolations and detachments imposed by social distancing and the rapid transition of sociality from reality to virtual reality Presenting various thinkings along the lines of the body and its representations as cultural text together with popular or recent media productions showing various bodies deemed to be monstrous as they either cross conventionally held borders or stay in liminal spaces such as between human animal human machine virtual bodies corporeal flesh living death and other permeable borders this volume looks into the on screen constructions of the monster and monstrosity not only as they represent notions of difference perceived non belongings and disruptions of traditional identity markers but also as they either conceal various vulnerabilities or implicitly endorse violence towards the labeled Other

Monstrous manifestations: Realities and the Imaginings of the Monster Agnieszka Stasiewicz-Bienkowska, Karen Graham, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Monstrous manifestations Realities and Imaginings of the Monster presents an enlightening collection of inter disciplinary research on the multifarious incarnations of the monster Exploring the fears hopes and concerns of contemporary and bygone times alike through the literary cinematic artistic cultural and political metaphor of the monstrous this volume will be of interest to both the expert and the amateur monster aficionado Encompassing a variety of theoretical frameworks Monstrous manifestations illuminates the monsters lurking in studies of gender media and literature as well as of religions and popular culture Consorting with witches vampires shape shifters clones and hybrids and acquainting with killers deformed creatures and beings undefined the authors daringly stalk the monsters coming out of their traditional lairs and colonising the new and constantly expanding social cultural psychological and political spaces inviting the reader to journey with them as they venture into the monster s terrain

Human Thriving and the Law Charles Foster, Jonathan Herring, 2018-10-03 The idea of the Good Life of what constitutes human thriving is implicitly the foundation and justification of the law The law exists to hold societies together to hold in tension the rights of individuals as against individuals the rights of individuals as against various types of non humans such as corporations and vice versa and the rights of individuals individuals as against the state and vice versa In democratic states laws inhibit some freedoms in the name of greater or more desirable freedoms The only justification for law is surely that it tends to promote human thriving But what is the Good Life What does it mean to live a thriving life There has been no want of discussion at least since the great Athenians But surprisingly since human thriving is its sole raison d etre the law has been slow to contribute to the conversation This book aims to start and facilitate this conversation It aims to make lawyers ask What is the law for and conclude that it is to maximise human thriving make lawyers ask But what does human thriving mean make judges and advocates ask How can a judgment about the best interests of a patient be satisfactory unless its basis is made clear

Monsters in the Classroom Adam Golub, Heather Richardson Hayton, 2017-06-09 Exploring the pedagogical power of the monstrous this collection of new essays describes innovative teaching strategies that use our cultural fascination with monsters to enhance learning in high school and college courses The contributors discuss the implications of inviting fearsome creatures into the classroom showing how they work to create compelling narratives and provide students a framework for analyzing history culture and everyday life Essays explore ways of using the monstrous to teach literature film philosophy theater art history religion foreign language and other subjects Some sample syllabi assignments and class materials are provided

Art and

Activism in the Age of Systemic Crisis Eliza Steinbock, Bram Ieven, Marijke de Valck, 2020-10-07 This book examines how renewed forms of artistic activism were developed in the wake of the neoliberal repression since the 1980s The volume shows the diverse ways in which artists have sought to confront systemic crises around the globe searching for new and enduring forms of building communities and reimagining the political horizon The authors engage in a dialogue with these artistic efforts and their histories in particular the earlier artistic activism that was developed during the civil rights era in the 1960s and 70s providing valuable historical insight and new conceptual reflection on the future of aesthetic resilience This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art history of art film and literary studies protest movements and social movements

Intersex Figures in Modern Japanese Literature and Art Leslie Winston, 2025-10-29 Intersex Figures in Modern Japanese Literature and Art explores the history of intersex or futanari figures in modern Japanese literature and culture to examine the provocative discourses that defied a sexual regime as the modern nation state of Japan advanced its national and imperial designs As sexologists and medical practitioners continued reinforcing categories of male and female normal and pathological intersex literary figures garnered attention because the perceived subject was expected to be male or female any variation was unintelligible Many of the same century old tropes and societal attitudes of needing to cure intersex persist At the same time the 1991 novel Ringu by Suzuki K ji testifies to a denial of futanari subjectivity while the 1998 Japanese horror film Ringu and its 2002 American remake The Ring erase intersex all together Winston interrogates how the trope of the futanari is deployed for pragmatic or aesthetic purposes thereby complicating the trajectory of the dominant sexological ideology of the time Winston reads the figurative futanari in the works of Shimizu Shikin Tanizaki Jun ichir and Takabatake Kash and reveals how the artists different approaches to the futanari served their agendas and expressed views that challenged the dominant discourse on intersex

Interdisciplinary Essays on Monsters and the Monstrous M. Susanne Schotanus, 2022-10-20 Interdisciplinary Essays on Monsters and the Monstrous analyses and explores the enduring influence and imagery of monsters and the monstrous on human societies and from a unique interdisciplinary scope tackles the critical question when faced with an existential threat what can we do

Transforming Bodies H. Steinhoff, 2015-05-26 At the turn of the twenty first century American media abound with images and narratives of bodily transformations At the crossroads of American cultural literary media gender queer disability and governmentality studies the book presents a timely intervention into critical debates on body transformations and contemporary makeover culture

Embracing Diversity Maureen Miner, Kirsty Beilharz, 2023-07-01 Christian schools and colleges that include spiritual formation and Christian maturity within their mission are facing challenges The challenge of being a Christian college within a secular society is well recognized There are intellectual clashes of secular versus religious worldviews to be negotiated and clashes of social imaginaries where habitual ways of responding come into conflict These challenges are difficult enough for staff of a Christian college when most students have a Christian background and there may be a common language and assumptions Even more difficult are the challenges faced by Christian staff of a Christian college when most students identify with non Christian religions What does a college s mission of forming mature Christians mean when students are largely Muslim Hindu Buddhist Sikh or other non Christian faiths Should staff modify curricula to reduce cognitive clashes Should teaching practices be changed to reduce the dissonance of different social imaginaries How can staff draw from Christian values of tolerance and respect to support non Christian students in their formation of values and ethics while still respecting diversity This volume draws together the work of scholars and researchers who have pondered the nature purpose and means of formation It offers an analysis of the scope context and methods of formation of mature people without denying or downplaying the difficulties of formation It offers hope that people who are mature in all areas of life including the spiritual domain can be formed and urges educators to encompass all domains in their formative work

Space, Gender, and the Gaze in Literature and Art Ágnes Zsófia Kovács,László B. Sári,2017-01-06 This volume explores how the concepts of space and gaze are tied in with social constructions of gender relations It discusses the gendered body the queer gaze the relationship between body and memory the memory of war monstrosity and also domestic and hybrid spaces as key concepts The arguments within the book connect core theoretical issues of gender and space to well known literary texts and contexts like the poems of Sylvia Plath and the novels of Don DeLillo Toni Morrison and Cormack McCarthy The collection will be of interest to university students and instructors alike as an extended introduction to critical and theoretical discourses on gender and space The Legal, Medical and Cultural Regulation of the Body Stephen W.

Smith,2016-03-03 The regulation of the body provides an important concern in law medical practice and culture This volume contributes to existing research in the area by encouraging experts from a range of related disciplines to consider the legal cultural and medical ways in which we regulate the body further exploring how conceptions of self liberalism property and harm inform and influence contentious legal and ethical questions about what we can and cannot do to or with our own bodies Cinema of/for the Anthropocene Katarzyna Paszkiewicz,Andrea Ruthven,2025-01-31 Cinema of for the

Anthropocene sheds new light on the question of how films can allow us to resituate ourselves within what is known today as the Anthropocene The authors address this question through a variety of disciplines and theoretical perspectives from film and cultural studies new materialisms critical posthumanism and animal studies critical race theory and Indigenous media studies to gender and sexuality studies with a primary focus on films produced in the United States and Canada The volume moves beyond the mere acknowledgment of the devastating damage inflicted during the Anthropocene to think about new ways of inhabiting the world through concepts such as affect response ability and more than human kinship The writers in this collection respond to its invitation by addressing a range of genres and modes thus complicating the apocalyptic discourses which have typically been central to the studies on the Anthropocene in addition to dystopian films the volume discusses animated films Hollywood biopics climate change documentaries experimental film comedy horror sci fi as well as disease thriller and survival film Taken together the chapters offer cross disciplinary readings of the cinema of for the Anthropocene showing ways in which it can help us re orient our thinking to make sense of the current age and address the planetary scale environmental catastrophe This volume will appeal to researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and the burgeoning field of environmental humanities The power of vulnerability Anu Koivunen, Katariina Kyrölä, Ingrid Ryberg, 2018-12-28 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book is available as an open access ebook under a CC BY NC ND licence This book investigates the new language of vulnerability that has emerged in feminist queer and antiracist debates on media taking a particular interest in the historical legacies and contemporary forms and effects of this language Contributors such as Jack Halberstam and Sara Ahmed examine how vulnerability has become a battleground how affect and vulnerability have turned into a politicised currency both for addressing and obscuring asymmetries of power and how media activism and state policies address so called vulnerable groups Taking on such heated topics as trigger warnings and diversity policies the book will be of interest to scholars and students in media and cultural studies affect theory gender studies queer theory and critical race studies

Queer and Trans Life Silvia Posocco, EJ Gonzalez-Polledo, Lars Aaberg, Tunay Altay, 2025-02-01 Against a background marked by endless ordinary crises widespread precarity and disrupting critical events Queer and Trans Life charts queer investments for the future It examines the challenges and pleasures in marginal everyday experiences of gender and sexual dissidence and the labours of care and endurance which sustain a sense of sociality and community often against all odds It presents queer and trans anthropological research from emerging European contexts Though occasionally posited as non belonging the volume demonstrates that queer anthropology in Europe continues to thrive by providing textured ethnographic analysis and timely interventions in anthropological theory
