Law Enforcement Assistance Administration,1974 Federal Probation ,1972 Society and Social Pathology R.C. Smith,2017-02-21 This book offers one of the most comprehensive studies of social pathology to date following a cross disciplinary and methodologically innovative approach It is written for anyone concerned with understanding current social conditions individual health and how we might begin to collectively conceive of a more reconciled postcapitalist world Drawing reference from the most up to date studies Smith crosses disciplinary boundaries from cognitive science and anthropology to critical theory systems theory and psychology Opening with an empirical account of numerous interlinked crises from mental health to the physiological effects of environmental pollution Smith argues that mainstream sociological theories of pathology are deeply inadequate Smith introduces an alternative critical conception of pathology that drills to the core of how and why society is deeply ailing The book concludes with a detailed account of why a progressive and critical vision of social change requires a holistic view of individual and societal transformation Such a view is grounded in the awareness that a sustainable transition to postcapitalism is ultimately a many sided social individual and structural healing process

Drugs, Alcohol, and Social Problems James D. Orcutt, David R. Rudy, 2003-09-03 Drugs Alcohol and Social Problems a collection edited James D Orcutt and David R Rudy includes 14 clearly written articles that exemplify the best of sociological scholarship on drug and alcohol problems The readings strike a balance between constructionist epidemiological and ethnographic approaches to the study of drinking drug use and related problems such as domestic violence crime and the spread of HIV AIDS A general introduction and five section introductions written especially for this volume highlight basic theoretical questions and analytical themes that run through the articles In contrast to many books on problems of substance use Drugs Alcohol and Social Problems devotes equal attention to drug and alcohol related issues The volume is organized around important theoretical and research approaches to the sociology of social problems making it suitable for adoption as a supplement in undergraduate courses on social problems as well as for more specialized undergraduate and graduate courses in the area of drug and alcohol studies

Into All the World Mark Harding, Alanna Nobbs, 2017-07-26 Into All the World the third volume from editors Mark Harding and Alanna Nobbs on the content and social setting of the New Testament brings together a team of eminent Australian scholars in ancient history New Testament and the early church to take the story of Christianity into the Jewish and Greco Roman world of the first century In thirteen chapters the contributors discuss all the post Pauline New Testament writings devoting attention to both their content and their context They examine the impact of the growth of the church on both Jews and Gentiles exploring issues such as the diaspora minorities the Book of Acts and the Fourth Gospel The book then proceeds to a discussion of the impact of Christianity on the Roman state including consideration of the book of Revelation and the imperial cult A final chapter investigates how the church was perceived by Clement of Rome at the end of the first century
