Friedricks, 1992 Henry E Huntington nephew and prot g of Southern Pacific Railroad magnate Collis Huntington decided to invest his fortune in developing interurban railroads serving the Los Angeles Basin beginning in 1898 and working through 1920 With enough capital to put railroads where he felt they would work best he exerted considerable influence on the early growth of Southern California He also invested in a number of other regional industries and as an avid collector of rare books and art he and his second wife Arabella created a notable cultural legacy as well Made in U.S.A. Sidra Stich, University Art Museum Berkeley,1987-01-01 Made in U S A takes a new look at American art of the 1950s and 1960s and shows us how American it was This is a provocative study of those artists who appropriated everyday images form the world of mass media and suburban living and forced their viewers into a sometimes witty sometimes bittersweet confrontation with the realities of living in late twentieth century America Federal-city Relations in the United States John J. Rury.Frank economic historians A. Castillo, 2022-06-28 In the early twentieth century Miami cultivated an image of itself as a destination for leisure and sunshine free from labor strife Thomas A Castillo unpacks this idea of class harmony and the language that articulated its presence by delving into the conflicts repression and progressive grassroots politics of the time Castillo pays particular attention to how class and race relations reflected and reinforced the nature of power in Miami Class harmony argued against the existence of labor conflict but in reality obscured how workers struggled within the city s service oriented seasonal economy Castillo shows how and why such an ideal thrived in Miami s atmosphere of growth and boosterism and amidst the political economy of tourism His analysis also presents class harmony as a theoretical framework that broadens our definitions of class conflict and class consciousness
