Claiming Abraham Michael Lodahl, 2010-04-01 Many of the Bible s characters and stories are also found in the Qur an but there are often differing details or new twists in the Qur an s retelling of biblical narrative In this compelling book seasoned theologian Michael Lodahl explores these fascinating divergences to discover the theological difference they make Writing from a Christian perspective that is respectful of the Islamic tradition Lodahl offers an accessible introduction to Muslim theology and to the Qur an s leading themes to help readers better understand Islam Lodahl compares and contrasts how the Bible and the Qur an depict and treat certain characters in common to both religions including Noah Abraham Moses and Jesus He offers theological reflection on doctrines held in common by Christians and Muslims such as creation revelation and the resurrection of the body Lodahl also explores the Jewish tradition as an important source for understanding the Qur'an      Teaching the Tradition John J. Piderit, Melanie M. Morey, 2012-02-14 From the origin of universities through their first six hundred years of existence philosophy and theology were the central disciplines That changed dramatically in the nineteenth century As German universities started to establish chairs in mathematics chemistry and philology new academic departments became more distinct and religious issues formerly addressed gradually receded into the background This book focuses on religious issues relating to current academic disciplines Contributors draw upon insights from two theological essays to address religious themes especially Catholic ones pertinent to their discipline as it is taught on the undergraduate level In addition to Catholic anthropology and theology the chapters address Catholic issues in English literature philosophy political theory history mathematics biology physics and astronomy psychology environmental studies art music business and economics education medicine and law      Rahner Beyond Rahner Paul G. Crowley, 2005-11 One hundred years after the birth of Karl Rahner the contributors to this book ask whether and how Rahner's theology can address new religious and cultural realities in the twenty first century particularly those realities found on what has come to be called the Pacific Rim O Stretching from California and Latin America and across the Pacific Ocean to Asia this geographic region manifests an incredible cultural and religious diversity but also many points of intersection and interpenetration resulting in new forms of religion and spirituality The theological categories generated by Rahner such as the anonymous Christian and even the notion of a world church meet steep challenges when read in contexts very different from that of Germany and the theological currents of the O Atlantic O At the same time the encounter between Rahner and the Pacific Rim results in fresh readings of Rahner not previously imagined not only in places like China and Mexico but even Los Angeles Anchored by a seminal essay by Francis X Clooney S J Harvard contributors include Thomas Sheehan Stanford Catherine Bell Santa Clara and George Griener S J Berkeley Each essay examines the possibilities and limitations of Rahner's theology in this newly configured Pacific world      The Misty Land of Ideas and The Light of Dialogue Ali Paya, 2013-11-12 Comparative philosophy like other types of philosophy is a sort of dialogue among philosophers But whereas dialogue among philosophers in the traditional branches of philosophy is usually in the form of dialogue in comparative philosophy three interlocutors are involved Participants in a dialogue of the type which is common in comparative philosophy need not be contemporaneous Nor do they need to speak the same language or belong to the same tradition Of the three interlocutors in a dialogue of the type relevant to comparative philosophy the one who plays the role of the go between among the other two is the true practitioner of comparative philosophy or to coin a term the true comparative philosopher i e the one who is actually engaged in the process of comparing philosophies and reflecting upon the finesse of the art of comparison of views The comparative philosopher is an interpreter a commentator a critic a connoisseur of good philosophical arguments and interesting ideas an educator and a communicator This last characteristic pertains to the role the comparative philosopher plays vis vis contemporary and future audiences      World Christianity in Muslim Encounter

Stephen R. Goodwin, 2011-11-03 Global Christianity in Local Context and Muslim Encounter is a unique collection of essays in honour of David A Kerr well known for his contributions in the areas of Christian Muslim dialogue Ecumenical Studies and Missions With contributions from recognized experts in these fields the book provides a platform for examining contemporary Christian Muslim relations and critical issues facing twenty first century Christianity Volume 2 is a veritable Who's Who of renowned Christian and Muslim scholars that have shaped the course of Christian Muslim dialogue over the last half century Their contributions in this volume address contemporary and pivotal issues facing Christians and Muslims today such as Islamophobia Islamism Religious Freedom Inter religious Challenges and Urbanism Mission and Economic Globalisation Suffering and Social Responsibility and others Faith and Freedom David B. Burrell, 2008-04-15 In this book David Burrell one of the foremost philosophical theologians in the English speaking world presents the best of his work on creation and human freedom A collection of writings by one of the foremost philosophers of religion in the English speaking world Brings together in one volume the best of David Burrell's work on creation and human freedom from the last twenty years Dismantles the libertarian approach to freedom underlying Western political and economic systems Engages with Islam Judaism and Christianity and with modern and pre modern systems of thought The author is noted for his rigorous approach his wry humor his intellectual subtlety and his generous spirit Index to Book Reviews in Religion, 1999 Aquinas on Doctrine: Thomas Gerard Weinandy, Daniel Keating, John Yocum, 2004-02-01 This book provides a critical study of the main Christian doctrines as understood and explained by Thomas Aquinas The whole Thomistic revival of the last century focused almost exclusively on Aquinas as the Christian philosopher Thus books and articles developed his understanding of being his epistemology natural theology etc However little has been done even to this day by way of examining Aquinas teaching on the major Christian doctrines This book of essays by an international team of recognised scholars will help fill this gap Such a book will be indispensable in every theological library Creation and Chaos Talk Eric M. Vail, 2012-06-07 Talk about chaos is pervasive Biblical scholars theologians and scientists have been using the word chaos for some time occasionally mingling ideas across disciplines around the shared word Quite often discussions of chaos center on the issues of creation's origin and nature as well as on God's creative methods and relationship to creation Eric M Vail investigates the current uses of the word chaos in those areas A new way of articulating creation out of nothing is offered as both helpful and appropriate in our current milieu He suggests where we ought to focus our use of the word chaos in Christian discourse and argues that chaos is more fitting for naming where creation has gone awry rather than for naming that state out of which creation comes to be Jonathan Edwards's Turn from the Classic-Reformed Tradition of Freedom of the Will Philip John Fisk, 2016-07-11 Theologians Church Historians Historical Theologians Slavery, Freedom and Culture Among Early American Workers Graham Russell Hodges, 1998 This text consists of six chapters all on the related subjects of black revolt slavery freemanship and labour A short introduction organizes the collection and argues its importance for historians of early American labour slavery black studies and general history      The End of the Law? David W. Opderbeck, 2021-08-12 Does neuroscience show that all our ideas about law and ethics are false David Opderbeck answers this question with a broad and deep survey of the relationship between theology science and ethics He proposes that Christian theology which narrates the humanity and divinity of Christ in conversation with the new Aristotelianism in the philosophy of science provides a path through secular and religious fundamentalisms alike      The World and God Are Not-Two Daniel Soars, 2023-04-25 The World and God Are Not Two is a book about how the God in whom Christians believe ought to be understood The key conceptual argument that runs throughout is that the distinctive relation between the world and God in Christian theology is best understood as a non dualistic one The two God and World cannot be added up as separate enumerable realities or contrasted with each other against some common background because God does not belong in any category and creatures are ontologically constituted by their relation to the Creator In exploring the unique character of this distinctive relation Soars turns to Sara Grant's work on the Hindu tradition of Advaita Vedānta and the metaphysics of creation found in Thomas Aquinas He develops Grant's work and that of the earlier Calcutta School by drawing explicit attention to the Neoplatonic themes in Aquinas that provide some of the most fruitful areas for comparative engagement with Vedānta To the Christian the fact that the world exists only as dependent on God means that world and God must be ontologically distinct because God's existence does not depend on the world To the Advaitin this simultaneously means that World and God cannot be ontologically separate either The language of non duality allows us to see that both positions can be held coherently together without entailing any contradiction or disagreement at the level of fundamental ontology What it means to be world does not and cannot exclude what it means to be God      The God who Risks John Sanders, 1998-01-01 In The God Who Risks theologian John Sanders enlightens pastors and lay persons who struggle with questions about suffering evil and human free will      A Trinitarian Theology of Law David H. McIlroy, 2009-07-01 This book explores the neglected significance of the doctrine of the Trinity for the understanding of human law Through interaction with the thought of Jürgen Moltmann Oliver O'Donovan and Thomas Aquinas it argues that human law is called to play a positive but limited role in maintaining shallow justice and relative peace Human law is overshadowed by the work of the Son included in the purposes of the Father and used as an instrument by the Holy Spirit However the Spirit works in those who are in Christ to effect deep justice a work of sanctification which culminates in glorification the experience of perfect free willing obedience in heaven Thinking about law in the light of the Trinity enables us to understand its role its purposes and its limits      The Muslim World Book Review, 1994

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sendor Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra
