Freedom for Ministry Richard John Neuhaus,1984-03-01 Freedom for Ministry Richard John Neuhaus,1992 Taking a look at today s Church and religious situation Neuhaus argues that there is a necessary awkwardness about Christian ministry because we are ambassadors of a disputed sovereignty Neuhaus also discusses the minister as leader of worship and the art discipline and absurd responsibility of being a preacher The Promise of Lutheran Ethics Karen L. Bloomquist,John R. Stumme,1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases themes and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today s world Writing in dialogue they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer Then in a lively Table Talk the participants discuss and debate the tradition s insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today s burning ethical issues such as homosexuality Designing the Sermon James Earl Massey,2010-10-01 Providing fundamental homiletical principles this classic book gives readers all the tools they need to prepare a meaningful sermon Sermon design James Massey s contemporary creative approach to shaping specific classifications of sermons focuses on order What is the preacher s goal and on movement What structure is he or she using to get there The discussion of his approach begins with an appraisal of the sermon in context in relation to goals design basic forms contemporary concerns and the why of it all Dr Massey s specific forms for designing sermons include the narrative story sermon a subject which is receiving renewed interest today the textual expository sermon the doctrinal topical sermon and the special occasion sermon for which he has chosen the topic of the funeral Suggestions are included for studying the methods of master preachers as a resource for more effective preaching And three of the author s own tested sermons are used as illustrations of sermon design possibilities FREEDOM FOR MINISTRY (Critical Affirmation ..the Church & Its Mission). Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1984 Our Purpose Is Love David N. Field,2018-04-19 We live in a time of great division in the world and too often we find this polarization mirrored in the church People sitting in the same pew working in the same office and living on the same street find themselves at odds with one another politically and theologically on a variety of issues Conflict seems to reign supreme As Christians we know we are supposed to love one another but even that mandate has come to mean different things to different people What does it mean to love God and neighbor today in both the world and the church and can this be the answer to the conflict that divides and polarizes us In Our Purpose Is Love author David Field answers this question with a compelling Yes as he challenges us to recognize and reclaim love as the center of our identity and purpose as the church Field presents a Wesleyan vision of the church as the embodiment of God's love in the world and explores the implications of this vision for our life together In this vision the church is where we become creatures of love learning to love God and neighbor ever more completely and authentically through the means of God's grace As a result we bear witness to the world by reflecting God's love more and more perfectly in the way we treat others and order our common life With a special focus on the importance of unity for the church's witness Field invites us to consider the ways in which embodying God's love can and should influence how we live as individuals and as communities of faith calling us to reclaim and recommit to love as the center of who we are Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K.
