Freedom For Ministry:

Freedom for Ministry Richard John Neuhaus, 1992 Taking a look at today's Church and religious situation Neuhaus argues that there is a necessary awkwardness about Christian ministry because we are ambassadors of a disputed sovereignty Neuhaus also discusses the minister as leader of worship and the art discipline and absurd responsibility of being a preacher

Freedom for Ministry Richard John Neuhaus, 1984-03-01 Living in Freedom James G. Groth, 2012-08 It is amazing what God has done for us how overwhelming this is how unrestricted it is and how it upsets every natural principle upon which we depend and naturally build our lives In Living in Freedom author James G Groth shares an understanding of God's grace the new covenant and the role they play in our lives by exploring the current world situation and the impact it has on our lives the differences and purpose of the covenants and how they affect our lives today the problem of basing our lives on our concepts of good and evil the historical conceptual personal and relational aspects of the new covenant the mixing the lifestyles of law and grace and the concept of forgiveness Groth also considered what it means to be a new creation to be born again and the consequences which take us into a life of freedom as well as what it means to live by the spirit rather than by the letter of the law He examines 1 John 1:9 and explains it in context with the times the struggle of cults and in the context of Paul's letters Living in Freedom addresses the true meaning of salvation and encourages Christians to walk in their faith to attain that salvation
